The Boy From Aleppo Who Painted The War:

Boy From Aleppo Who Painted The War Sumia Sukkar, 2014-12-09 This is a powerful and deeply moving novel chronicling the Syrian War through the eyes of 14 year old Adam who has Asperger Syndrome It has been adapted into a BBC Radio 4 play I have the urge to paint and I can already see the painting in my head horrible and beautiful all at the same time A gifted artist Adam expresses the intimate sufferings of his family as they struggle through the Syrian conflict by painting with whatever materials he can find Having been dependent on his family all his life he must now cope with separation and loss including the fates of his devoted sister and brothers who are all caught up in the acceleration of events and forced to live out the consequences both of their own choices and those made for them The frightening and unpredictable changes not only for Adam's family but also for a once beautiful city and a whole nation are unfolded with compassion wit and imaginative force through a spectrum of shifting colors moods and atmospheres The novel blends political events emotional drive and Arabian tradition through a unique perspective whilst reminding the reader that what human beings really need is dignity security and love An outstanding debut novel BBC Front Row A moving first novel written with an insider's knowledge of the land and its people The Times This outstanding novel is a must read for anyone who hopes to understand the beauty and character that exists within a country torn apart by war To superimpose the experience of Asperger's upon the experience of war is Sukkar's great achievement and brings a heart breaking clarity to the suffering the strength and the hopes of ordinary people caught up in political mayhem The Booktrust

The Boy with Two Hearts Hamed Amiri, 2022-10-13 You know I honestly believe he has two hearts A heart that fails him of course But another that keeps him going a heart that won't be beaten A story of hope from Afghanistan to Wales Herat Afghanistan 2000 A young mother makes a speech demanding freedom for Afghan women angering local Taliban leaders who issue a warrant for her execution With no choice but to run the Amiri family embark on a long and terrifying journey out of Afghanistan and across Europe with the UK as their ultimate goal Thrown into an unfamiliar world of fake passports and untrustworthy handlers the Amiris must learn how to live with nothing and avoid capture at all costs But with their eldest son Hussein's life threatening heart condition growing steadily worse the journey soon becomes a race against time Will they beat the odds and reach the UK in time for Hussein to receive the surgery he so badly needs The Boy with Two Hearts is the story of a family in danger and a love letter to the NHS This extraordinary true story reveals the courage and humanity behind each refugee story showing that hope and a sense of home can be found in the most unlikely places This edition was published to coincide with the production at the National Theatre in London in October 2022

Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Justyna Deszcz-Tryhubczak, Irena Kalla, 2020-10-29 Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Politics of Intergenerational Play in Children's Literature offers multifaceted reflection on interdependences between children and adults as they engage in play in literary texts and in real life This volume brings together international children's literature scholars who each look at children's texts

as key vehicles of intergenerational play reflecting ideologies of childhood and as objects with which children and adults interact physically emotionally and cognitively Each chapter applies a distinct theoretical approach to selected children s texts including individual and social play constructive play or play deprivation This collection of essays constitutes a timely voice in the current discussion about the importance of children s play and adults contribution to it vis vis the increasing limitations of opportunities for children s playful time in contemporary societies

Global Happiness Roman Adrian Cybriwsky, 2015-12-14 An authoritative comprehensive and highly accessible assessment of the happiest and least happy countries and cities in the world as well as of the happiest and least happy cities and states in the United States Which are the happiest countries in the world and which nations are the least contented Which cities in the world are considered the happiest and unhappiest Which American cities and states are at the top of the list and which ones rank poorly Presenting findings that are based on solid data and authoritative information this book offers a bold take on the geography of happiness around the world and presents results that are often unexpected It enables readers to make informed cross cultural comparisons between countries and world cities and uniquely synthesizes global information in a way that allows us answer the important question What makes us happy A book like no other Global Happiness A Guide to the Most Contented and Discontented Places around the Globe tackles the complex equation of determining what places offer the happiest living experiences by considering quality of life prospects for the future social relations confidence in good government and many other factors that together constitute critical differences in living experience The author a professor of geography and urban studies as well as a world traveler also takes into account the current events politics and environmental situations of specific regions states and cities and considers what residents of the cities and countries say about their own places to derive accurate and fair assessments

Terror and Counter-Terror in Contemporary British Children's Literature Blanka Grzegorzczak, 2020-05-10 The widespread threat of terrorist and counter terrorist violence in the twenty first century has created a globalized context for social interactions transforming the ways in which young people relate to the world around them and to one another This is the first study that reads post 9 11 and 7 7 British writing for the young as a response to this contemporary predicament exploring how children s writers find the means to express the local conditions and different facets of the global wars around terror The texts examined in this book reveal a preoccupation with overcoming various forms of violence and prejudice faced by certain groups within post terror Britain as well as a concern with mapping out their social relations with other groups and those concerns are set against the recurring themes of racist paranoia anti immigrant hostility politicized identities and growing up in countries transformed by the effects of terror and counter terror The book concentrates on the relationship between postcolonial and critical race studies Britain s colonial legacy and literary representations of terrorism tracing thematic and formal similarities in the novels of both established and emerging children s writers such as Elizabeth Laird Sumia Sukkar Alan Gibbons Muhammad Khan Bali Rai Nikesh Shukla Malorie Blackman
