Designing Clothes

Veronica Manlow,2018-05-04 Fashion is all around us we see it we buy it we read about it but most people know little about fashion as a business Veronica Manlow considers the broader significance of fashion in society the creative process of fashion design and how fashion unfolds in an organizational context where design is conceived and executed To get a true insider s perspective she became an intern at fashion giant Tommy Hilfiger There she observed and recorded how a business s culture is built on a brand that is linked to the charisma and style of its leader Fashion firms are not just in the business of selling clothing along with a variety of sidelines These companies must also sell a larger concept around which people can identify and distinguish themselves from others Manlow defines the four main tasks of a fashion firm as creation of an image translation of that image into a product presentation of the product and selling the product Each of these processes is interrelated and each requires the efforts of a variety of specialists who are often in distant locations Manlow shows how the design and presentation of fashion is influenced by changes in society both cultural and economic Information about past sales and reception of items as well as projective research informs design manufacturing sales distribution and marketing decisions Manlow offers a comprehensive view of the ways in which creative decisions are made leading up to the creation of actual styles She helps to define the contribution fashion firms make in upholding challenging or redefining the social order Readers will find this a fascinating examination of an industry that is quite visible but little understood
