A Commentary on the Authorized English Version of the Gospel According to St. John Francis Henry Dunwell, 1872 A Commentary on the Authorized English Version of the Gospel According to St. John; Compared with the Sinaitic, Vatican, and Alexandrine Manuscripts, and Also with Dean Alford's Revised Translation by the Rev. Francis Henry Dunwell. [With the Text.], 1872 The Poem of Job ... Translated ... By the Rev. J. N. Coleman ... Second Edition, 1871 Discursive

Intersexions Michaela Koch, 2017-06-15 Life narratives and fiction that represent experiences of hermaphroditism and intersex are at the core of Michaela Koch's study. The analyzed texts from the 19th to the early 21st century are embedded within and contrasted with contemporary debates in medicine, psychology or activism to reveal the processes of negotiation about the meaning of hermaphroditism and intersex. This cultural studies informed work challenges both strictly essentialist and constructivist notions. It argues for a differentiated perspective on intersex and hermaphrodite experiences as historically contingent, fully embodied and nevertheless discursive subject positions. The Documentary Film Book Brian

Winston, 2019-07-25 Powerfully posing questions of ethics, ideology, authorship and form, documentary film has never been more popular than it is today. Edited by one of the leading British authorities in the field, The Documentary Film Book is an essential guide to current thinking on documentary film. In a series of fascinating essays, key international experts discuss the theory of documentary, outline current understandings of its history from pre-Flaherty to the post-Griersonian world of digital i-Docs, survey documentary production from Africa to Europe and from the Americas to Asia, consider documentaries by marginalised minority communities and assess its contribution to other disciplines and arts. Brought together here in one volume, these scholars offer compelling evidence as to why over the last few decades documentary has come to the centre of screen studies. Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death, Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently. Entitled Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling, these lectures provide the missing link between Foucault's early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity. Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century, Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth-telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self-incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology, criminology and criminal justice. For Foucault, self-incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing; we wanted to know who the criminal was, not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime. An avowal of wrongdoing was no longer sufficient; psychiatric expertise was now necessary, and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice, made so famous by Foucault. The Yankee Boy from Home Joseph Battell, 1865 The Infinitive, the

Gerund and the Participles of the English Verb Hendrik Poutsma, 1923 Truth, 1879 Sounds English Nabeel

Zuberi,2001 Zuberi looks at how the sounds images and lyrics of English popular music generate and critique ideas of national belonging recasting the social and even the physical landscapes of cities like Manchester and London The Smiths and Morrissey play on romanticized notions of the white English working class while the Pet Shop Boys map a queer urban Britain in the AIDS era The techno culture of raves and dance clubs incorporates both an anti institutional do it yourself politics and emergent leisure practices while the potent mix of technology and creativity in British black music includes local conditions as well as a sense of global diaspora British Asian musicians drawing on Afrodiasporic and South Asian traditions seek a sense of place in Britain as commercial interests try to pin down an image of them to market Sounds English shows how popular music complicates cherished notions of Englishness as it activates cultural outsiders and taps into a sense of not belonging
