While desperately clinging to hope, life tosses Talisa into a whirlwind of storms. What will she do? Will she dig deep to find a resolution? Will she have what it takes to push through the face of adversity? The clock is ticking. Book Review 1: A breath-taking raw account of the effects of a disease, trauma, and poverty, and the hope that prevails. I found myself holding my breath as the curtain was pulled back. This unvarnished debut is not to be missed.

Courtney Cole, New York Times Bestselling Author Book Review 2: This story reveals the resilience of a young girl who refuses to give up hope when her mother is diagnosed with an often debilitating disease. Through dramatic truths, humor, and beautifully poetic asides, it took me on a ride through a no-holds-barred narrative demonstrating the sometimes difficult steps we must face to reach true self-awareness.

Sarah M. Flores, Author and Owner of Write Down the Line Mission Libertad

Fact and fiction converge in this thrilling tale of 14-year-old Luisito Ramirez, a courageous boy who daringly escapes from 1970s communist Cuba as he becomes immersed in American culture and carries out a secret religious mission under the eyes of spies. Integrating Spanish vocabulary and Cuban culture, this novel for ages 10-14 provides an exciting story of the Catholic faith lived out during turmoil. Amplifying Black Undocumented Student Voices in Higher Education

Felecia S. Russell, 2024-04-15 This book centers a qualitative study exploring the experiences of 15 Black undocumented students and the author's own experiences as a Black DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) recipient, highlighting the invisibility and lack of belonging Black undocumented students face in the undocumented community and the United States at large Access and success within higher education for undocumented students cannot be achieved unless those implementing policies understand the full context of the community Through both an interpretative phenomenological approach and biographical memoir this volume makes meaning of the experiences of undocuBlack students a group who do not often see themselves being represented in the immigrant narrative It argues that without visibility undocuBlack students are rarely the beneficiaries of advocacy and become targets of overcriminalization The stories told here examine the intersection of race and identity in determining positioning within society with the goal of contributing awareness and promoting more inclusive practices among higher education communities This text offers an important new perspective for faculty and administrators policymakers upper level undergraduate and graduate students as well as general readers with an interest in Black and immigrant narratives and the undocumented experience as an academic subject
