Tshwane North College For 2016:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt. FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa. More broadly it radically questioned the socio-political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business, the ruling elite and the liberation movement. The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left. Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles. The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance. University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism, improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa, feminism, worker rights and meaningful education. In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism, its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

Open Learning as a Means of Advancing Social Justice Tabisa Mayisela, Shanali Govender, 2024-01-23 This volume investigates the uptake of open learning in South African Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) colleges and higher education institutions. Comprised of 16 studies focused on activities at a range of colleges and universities across the country, these chapters aim to promote a better understanding of open learning practices across the Post School Education and Training (PSET) sector, including issues such as recognition of prior learning, access for students with disabilities, work-integrated learning, professional development, novel student funding mechanisms, leadership for open educational practices, institutional culture, student support, blended and online learning, flexible learning, online assessment, open educational resource development, models and funding, and micro-credentials. This collection of peer-reviewed chapters contributes to understanding the ways in which South African PSET institutions and educators are interpreting open learning as a means of advancing social justice. It includes a historical and contemporary understanding of the economic, cultural and political obstacles facing PSET, drawing on Nancy Fraser's theory of social justice as participatory parity to better understand the ways in which open learning may address systemic social injustices in order to allow South African students and educators to thrive. This volume emerges from research conducted by the Cases on Open Learning (COOL) project, an initiative by the Department of Higher Education and Training in partnership with the Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching (CILT) at the University of Cape Town (UCT) in South Africa.

Autism Mary Clasquin-Johnson, Dikeledi Mahlo, Michel Clasquin-Johnson, 2023-02-10 This book is written at a time of a paradigm shift in the African continent where dependence on western epistemologies and ontologies are giving way to African indigenous knowledge systems Africa has been an importer of knowledge from the west since time immemorial and this book contributes to the body of knowledge on autism spectrum disorder ASD from the African perspective As a result decoloniality and Inclusive Education have gained traction within the academic discourse with University of South Africa UNISA hosting decoloniality annual conference and a summer school to stimulate academic discussions and debates with a focus on African indigenous knowledge systems and theoretical lenses as opposed to the western epistemologies The book also demystifies some of the misconceptions that children with ASD are a curse and punishment from God or gods Among others Ubuntu seems to be the dominant theoretical framework underpinning some of the research studies reported in this book From Polarisation to Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills, Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, 2021-08-05 This book explores the concept of multi species relationships and suggests critical systemic pathways to protect shared habitats This book discusses how the eradication of species as a result of rapid urbanisation places humanity at risk This book demonstrates how narrow anthropocentrism has focused on the rights of human beings at the expense of other species and the environment This book explores a priori norms and a posteriori measures and indicators to include and protect multiple species This book aims to strengthen institutional capacity and powers to address and extend the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda by drawing on local wisdom but also the need to implement laws to prevent ecocide This book highlights that our fragile interdependence requires a recognition of our hybridity and interconnectedness within the web of life and suggests ways to reframe policy within and beyond the nation state to support living systems of which we are a strand Local economies and pandemics: Marius Venter, Chané de Bruyn, 2023-12-14 The outbreak of the global COVID 19 pandemic has presented unprecedented challenges to both developed and less developed local economies The aim of the book is to uncover the best practises in responding to a pandemic from global perspectives as well as from a trans disciplinary point of view Scholars from various spheres in arts culture education health environment business and the public sector present their perspectives on the impacts responses and consequences for local economies and communities As a fundamental part of LED the arts culture education health environment business and the public sector domains were some of the hardest hit by the pandemic The pandemic has certainly exposed the weaknesses of current development policies and calls for new innovative measures in developing resilient local regions This book will form an essential part of the development series of CENLED as it offers insight into how a global pandemic COVID 19 impacted LED in the global North and Global South and the different responses from different spheres Intersection of Adolescent Sexual, Reproductive, and Mental Health in Sub-Saharan Africa Negussie Boti Sidamo, Zacharie Tsala Dimbuene, Sultan Hussen Hebo, Stephen Chukwudeh, 2025-06-18

Adolescence is a crucial stage of development in which young people experience a wide range of emotional social and physical changes One significant aspect of this period is the exploration and emergence of reproductive health and behaviours Alongside this mental health and well being are increasingly recognized as vital components of overall adolescent health and development The intersection of adolescent sexual reproductive and mental health is complex dynamic and multifaceted with numerous social cultural and biological factors influencing these domains Addressing this intersection remains a critical area of research policy and practice to promote healthy adolescent development and empower young people with the knowledge and skills necessary to make informed decisions about their sexual reproductive and mental health In sub Saharan Africa adolescents have greater risk factors and low access to health services that make them prone to such problems This underscores the need to consider an integrated approach to address the sexual reproductive and mental health problems of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa These insights are pivotal for identifying novel approaches that are highly effective and well tolerated for integrated services to improve the relief of adolescents living in sub Saharan Africa from sexual reproductive and mental health problems Indigenous knowledge systems and climate change
