Civil Engineering, 2008 Combatants in African Conflicts Simon David Taylor, 2022-05-10 This book focuses on the different types of combatants in conflicts in Africa exploring the fine lines between what might be classified as a militia in one conflict a rebel in another or a terrorist in a third Drawing on the work of Carl von Clausewitz this book provides a conceptually stable and analytically sound new typology on combatants Analysing the relationships between state and society and drawing on Clausewitz s Trinity of passion chance and reason the book presents a set of five types of armed actors Professionals Praetorians Militias Insurgents and Mercenaries Each type is developed through a close reading of foundational theoretical texts reviews of contemporary studies and a historical analysis of their unique characteristics Unlike a reductionist binary perspective this typology accounts for the dynamic complex and evolving relationships of these actors with the state and society A typology of combatants in conflicts in Africa can provide avenues for more in depth analysis of such conflicts and holds implications for Security Sector Reform projects and other peace building programmes As such this book will be an essential reference for scholars and students of African Politics and Military and Security Studies How Long Will South Africa Survive? R.W. Johnson, 2015-01-11 In 1977 Johnson s best selling How Long Will South Africa Survive offered a controversial and highly original analysis of the survival prospects of apartheid Now after more than two decades of the ANC in government he believes the question must be posed again The big question about ANC rule Johnson writes is whether African nationalism would be able to cope with the challenges of running a modern industrial economy Twenty years of ANC rule have shown conclusively that the party is hopelessly ill equipped for this task Indeed everything suggests that

South Africa under the ANC is fast slipping backward and that even the survival of South Africa as a unitary state cannot be taken for granted The fundamental reason why the question of regime change has to be posed is that it is now clear that South Africa can either choose to have an ANC government or it can have a modern industrial economy It cannot have both
