

Tuck Everlasting Answers : Prologue - Chapter 11

Study Guide Answers

Prologue

1. The author describes this time of summer by using the analogy of being at the top of a Ferris wheel. After reading her description, create some of your own analogies to describe this time of summer.

Answers will vary but students could mention such things as: a roller coaster, the pendulum on a grandfather clock, a child on a swing or a diver in mid-dive.

2. Who sets out at dawn?

Mae Tuck sets out on her horse at dawn headed for the wood near Treegap.

3. Who was Winnie Foster?

Winnie Foster was a young girl who lived next to Treegap wood which was owned by her parents. She was growing impatient and thinking about running away.

4. Who appeared at Foster's gate at sunset? A stranger who was looking for someone, appeared at Foster's Gate at sunset

5. Explain in your own words what the author meant when she described the woods as the center of the wheel--the hub?

She meant that this was the focal point of the story, the common connection between the three characters introduced in the prologue and the place where they would all be drawn together.

6. List some synonyms and antonyms for the word everlasting.

Synonyms could include forever, infinity, and eternity while some antonyms might be short-lived, ephemeral, temporary and transitory.

Thinking and Learning through Children's Literature Miriam G. Martinez, Junko Yokota, Charles Temple, 2017-04-18 Much of teachers' attention these days is focused on having students read closely to ferret out the author's intended meaning and the devices used to convey that meaning But we cannot forget to guide students to have moving engagements with literature because they need to make strong personal connections to books of merit if they are to become the next generation of readers literate people with awareness of and concern for the diversity of human beings around them and in different times and places Fortunately guiding both students' personal engagement with literature and their close reading to appreciate the author's message and craft are not incompatible goals This book enthusiastically and intelligently addresses both imperatives first surveying what is gained when students are immersed in literature then celebrating and explicating the main features of literature students need to understand to broaden their tastes and deepen their engagement at the same time they meet external standards then presenting a host of active methods for exploring all major genres of children's books and finally presenting suggestions for interdisciplinary teaching units grounded in literature Created by noted leaders in the fields of children's literature and literacy the book is enlivened by recurring features such as suggested reading lists issues for discussion links to technology and annotations of exemplary books
