Martyushev, Anna Bogdan, 2016-02-18 Selected peer reviewed papers from the IV International Conference for Young Scientists High Technology Research and Applications 2015 HTRA 2015 April 21-24 2015 Tomsk Russia International Handbook on Shareholders' Agreements Sebastian Mock, Kristian Csach, Bohumil Havel, 2018-05-07 Shareholders Agreements have a growing influence on the general understanding of corporate law since they bind not only the shareholders but also affect the constitution of the corporation and can have a severe impact on capital markets Therefore Shareholders Agreements are more and more subject to regulation in corporate capital market and also insolvency law on the national the European and the international level This handbook provides a general examination of conceptual questions of Shareholders Agreements and provides an analysis of the regulation of Shareholders Agreements in European and international law and of the national law of more than 20 jurisdictions Readers will get a general understanding of the theoretical and practical problems involved with Shareholders Agreements and detailed information on the regulation of Shareholders Agreements in several jurisdictions and the applicable law in the case of transnational corporations and cross border transactions Rethinking Public Governance Tibor Babos, Sameeksha Desai, Andreas Knorr, 2018 Contributions for this volume are based on the conference Rethinking Public Governance held in Budapest at Hungary's National University of Public Service within the framework of the Transatlantic Policy Consortium TPC in 2015 The papers cover a range of topics including the importance of education and of efficient management of government resources for successful democracy building processes analysis of formality and informality in public administration and analysis of select ethnic minority problems The papers represent various approaches connecting research and policy Dr Tibor Babos is a chief government advisor on security policy at the Prime Minister's Office Hungary Dr Sameeksha Desai is an associate professor at Indiana University School of Public Env Affairs Dr Andreas Knorr is professor of economics at the German University of Administrative Sciences Speyer Violent Extremism Caroline Logan, Randy Borum, Paul Gill, 2023-11-02 Violent extremism has galvanized public fear and attention Driven by their concerns the public has pushed for law enforcement and mental health systems to prevent attacks rather than just respond to them after they occur The prevention process requires guidance for practitioners and policymakers on how best to identify people who may be at risk to understand and assess the nature and function of the harm they may cause and to manage them to mitigate or prevent harm Violent Extremism provides such guidance Over 10 chapters prepared by leading experts this handbook illuminates the nature of violent extremism and the evolution of prevention driven practice Authors draw on the literature and their experience to explain which factors might increase risk factors or decrease protective factors risk how those factors might operate and how practitioners can prepare risk formulations and scenario plans that inform risk management strategies to prevent violent extremist harm Each chapter is crafted to support thoughtful evidence based practice that is transparent accountable and ultimately defensible Written for an international audience the volume will be of interest to law enforcement and mental health professionals criminal justice and security personnel as well as criminologists policymakers and researchers Praise for Violent Extremism In Violent Extremism Logan Borum and Gill have assembled the most celebrated scholars and practitioners in anticipating and mitigating violence This extraordinary accomplishment could transform the future of risk assessment John Monahan University of Virginia Scholarly scientific and so very practical this is the book we have been waiting for It should be read and re read by every practitioner and researcher working on violent extremism John Horgan Georgia State University Since the early 2000s the field of assessing violent extremism risk has developed apace This landmark text authoritatively takes stock of past and current theory research and practice and provides a coherent vision for the future Christopher Dean Cardiff Metropolitan University

Socioeconomics, Philosophy, and Deneocoloniality Abdul Karim Bangura, 2025-08-21 Existing paradigms such as decoloniality simplify the complex dynamics between former colonies and colonial powers Such frameworks overlook the role of local elites in maintaining and even enhancing oppressive systems They also imply that external forces are responsible for ongoing exploitation This book tackles this concept head on by introducing a new methodology called deneocoloniality Deneocoloniality expands on decoloniality and neocolonialism It argues that while decoloniality focuses on the residual impacts of colonialism by external forces it neglects the internal dynamics where former colonized elites play a significant role in perpetuating oppression for personal gain The book presents socioeconomic and philosophical case studies to support deneocoloniality as a more comprehensive framework for understanding current realities in African countries Readers will gain a nuanced understanding of the intricate power structures affecting developing nations The book provides a structured methodology for analyzing problems emphasizing the importance of logical reasoning and collaborative efforts It offers practical solutions based on deep analysis moving beyond mere diagnosis to actionable recommendations This approach aims to equip readers with the tools needed to develop policies and strategies that address both external and internal sources of oppression

Regional Economic Outlook, April 2016, Sub-Saharan Africa International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2016-05-03 Economic growth in sub Saharan Africa as a whole has fallen to its lowest level in 15 years though with large variation among countries in the region The sharp decline in commodity prices has severely strained many of the largest economies including oil exporters Angola and Nigeria and other commodity exporters such as Ghana South Africa and Zambia At the same time the decline in oil prices has helped other countries continue to show robust growth including Kenya and Senegal A strong policy response to the terms of trade shocks is critical and urgent in many countries This report also examines sub Saharan Africa's vulnerability to commodity price shocks and documents the substantial progress made in financial development especially financial services based on mobile technologies

Advanced Materials in Drug Release and Drug Delivery Systems Katarzyna Winnicka, 2021-09-03 Development of new drug molecules is costly and requires longitudinal wide ranging studies therefore designing advanced pharmaceutical formulations for existing and well known drugs seems to be an attractive device for the pharmaceutical industry Properly formulated drug delivery systems can improve pharmacological activity efficacy and safety of the active substances Advanced materials applied as pharmaceutical excipients in designing drug delivery systems can help solve problems concerning the required drug release with the defined dissolution rate and at the determined site Novel drug carriers enable more effective drug delivery with improved safety and with fewer side effects Investigations concerning advanced materials represent a rapidly growing research field in material polymer science chemical engineering and pharmaceutical technology Exploring novel materials or modifying and combining existing ones is now a crucial trend in pharmaceutical technology Eleven articles included in the the Special Issue Advanced Materials in Drug Release and Drug Delivery Systems present the most recent insights into the utilization of different materials with promising potential in drug delivery and into different formulation approaches that can be used in the design of pharmaceutical formulations
