 performance genre of Kobigaan a dialogic song theatre form in which performers verse duel in contemporary West Bengal in India and Bangladesh The book shows how the genre thought to be a nearly extinct form is still prevalent in the region The author shows how like many other folk practices in South and South East Asia the content and format of this genre has undergone vital changes thus raising questions of authenticity patronage and cultural politics She captures live performances of Kobigaan through ethnographies spread across borders from village rituals to urban festivals and from Bengali cinema to television and new media While understanding Kobigaan from the practitioners points of view this book also explores the crucial issues of gender marginalisation and representation that are true of any performance genre Drawing on case studies it underlines the issues of artistic agency empowerment cultural labour and heritage rituals authenticity creative industries media gender and identity politics Part of the South Asian History and Culture series this book is a major intervention in South Asian folklore and performance studies It also expands into the larger disciplines of literature social and cultural
