

A Rubric for Literacy Narrative

The literacy narrative you are writing must fulfill by the following requirements:

The workable rough draft must have at least 3 pages.

The final draft must have at least 4 pages.

An interesting beginning is required.

Mention when you started learning to read/write/compose

Describe time, place and situation that featured the beginning of your literacy Highlight your struggles in the initial period of learning.

Slightly overstate your disappointment and frustration that accompanied your battle for literacy

Clearly mention who came to assist you, guide you, inspire you to uplift you from the frustration you were troubled with.

With a special highlight, dramatize your joy and excitement upon overcoming the hurdles such as frustration and inability to proceed confidently in your pursuit for literacy.

Narrate how you continued to hone your talent for literacy even after coping with the frustration.

Recount how you continued to raise the level of your literacy to the sophisticated level.

Link your story to your present life on the Campus

Tell clearly why your readers should read your story and specify how your story of literacy can be purposeful and meaningful for them

At last, write a concluding paragraph, making a few generalizing statements about human pursuit for literacy.

Use commonplace transition markers to make your story connected.

Use compelling metaphors, styles and terms of expression to make your story attractive

Essays on the Patriarchal Narratives A. R Millard, D. J. Wiseman, 2008-05-07 Today there is renewed interest in the history and traditions of the patriarchal period Recent publications have sought among other things to show that the biblical patriarchs were a literary even fictional creation of the first millennium BC produced to provide the nation of Israel which came into prominence only then with founding fathers Much of this new writing is helpful in distinguishing what are traditional or speculative interpretations from the basic texts of Genesis Sometimes archaeological evidence has been adducted in support of the historicity of the patriarchs and their cultural background in the second millennium BC which can no longer be sustained Sometimes however the value of such evidence is ignored or belittled from the preface Biblical & Near Eastern Essays Carmel McCarthy, John F. Healey, 2004-03-11 This collection of essays contains a wide range of topics reflecting the depth and breadth of interest of the scholar in whose honour they were commissioned Kevin J Cathcart The central focus is Near Eastern and covers a range of philological linguistic exegetical historical and interpretative issues The Near Eastern languages examined include Akkadian Arabic Aramaic Ethiopic Hebrew Septuagintal Greek Syriac and Ugaritic while exegetical and text critical topics include treatments of issues in Deuteronomy 1 Kings Isaiah Amos Psalms and the Song of Songs Hermeneutical and historical essays touch on Ancient Israel's history and its interpretation as well as on the significance of such individuals as the consular official John Dickson E H Palmer in the Cambridge Libraries William Lithgow of Lanark and the contribution to Semitic epigraphy of the explorer Julius Euting This is volume 375 in the Journal for the Study of the Old Testament Supplement series Folk Epics of Rajasthan: An Ecological Study of Pabuji and Devnarayan Dr. Meenakshi, 2024-06-30 The book attempts to trace ecological insights embedded in two major folk epics of Rajasthan Epic of Pabuji and Epic of Devnarayan The first chapter explores man's relation with nature in past and attempts to locate the genesis of our attitudes towards nature in ancient myths as well as its portrayal in literature It tries to define ecology and summarises the ideas about ecological literary criticism given by various critics It highlights the tradition and types of oral epics in Rajasthan The second chapter named Cultural Ecology focuses on the mutuality and interdependence of nature and culture It reflects upon what effects human culture has on nature and vice versa in context of the epics of Pabuji and Devnarayan The chapter focuses on literary ecology which explores the ecological dimensions of literary texts and also puts forth the artistic capability of the text as an agency of ecological awareness The third chapter named History Aesthetics and Phad explores how painters make phad and to what purpose these phads are made what purposes of bhopas and commercial consumers it fulfils and in what ways bhopas inspire the process It also discusses the history of visual narratives and locates the place of phad in it It delves deep into the history of phad tradition of painting as well as its aesthetics The discussion of aesthetics of phad foregrounds how phad helps bhopa in devising as well as improvising the narrative The fourth chapter named Performance and Ecology focuses on how performances of folk epics of Pabuji and Devnarayan further an ecological vision in which natural surroundings play a contributory role in formation of meanings An interconnection between the ecology of the region and the performance of phad has been evaluated which contributes in comprehending the full ecological implications of phad An analysis of both the epics from an ecological literary perspective substantiates the excellence and contribution of the epics in enriching the literary genre with different aspects of ecological connections between man and other natural elements on earth The book establishes that the literary ecology of phad is as diverse as an ecosystem The ecology of phad thrives on cultural diversity including people from all fields such as phad painters phad performers and the audience followers of the deities This correlation is based not only on their economic relations or transactions but they also depend upon each other for their exclusive identity Gospel Essays Mark C. Kiley, 2012-06-28 Is meticulous Matthew also mathematically so Why does Matthew alone in the canon discuss guards at Jesus tomb For popular storytellers in the early church is the serpent of the Garden the unseen catalyst in the murder of John the Baptist Why do almost three dozen words beginning with the Hebrew letter ayin have analogues in Luke s infancy narratives Why do Mary s meditations there cohere with Psalm 19 John s Jesus describes himself as Way Truth and Life Does this bear any relation to the single Latin term veritas St Ignatius of Antioch in his letter to the Ephesians talks about the song of the Body of Christ and people as stringed instruments Does John know that idea What does the Roman legend of the emergence of bees from the carcass of a slain ox have to do with the early church In these close readings of the Gospels the reader will rediscover the fascination of listening to some of the original resonance of the New Testament text with Hebrew Greek and Latin culture Attentive to detail and persistent in asking questions about the larger picture this scholarship fulfills the promise inherent in research

O Woman, Great is Your Faith! Douglas Sean O'Donnell, 2021-08-26 The concept of faith holds a central position in New Testament and early Christian thought yet this concept has not received the careful attention it deserves in the Synoptic Gospels The present study offers a comprehensive analysis of faith as a key motif in the Gospel of Matthew where it plays a major role in communicating this Gospel s vision for how readers should respond to the person and message of Jesus The argument propounded is that Matthew s unique narrative portrayal of the Canaanite woman s faith 15 21 28 is used for pedagogical purposes namely that by comparing and contrasting her great faith with those characters expressing no faith and little faith Matthew uses Jesus s quantitative terms to teach on the nature of true faith She embodies Matthew s theological vision of faith Even though she is a gentile outsider enemy she comprehends the universal scope and abundant blessings of Jesus s mission Moreover she acknowledges Jesus s messianic identity correctly perceiving him to be both David s royal heir and David s Lord Finally based on who she perceives Jesus to be and the purpose of his mission she demonstrates faith as trust manifested in action

Jesus Risen in Our Midst Sandra M. Schneiders, 2013-11-22 Jesus Risen in Our Midst mines the Resurrection Narrative of John s gospel as a rich resource for understanding and developing Christian spirituality In this series of essays which can be read independently of one another Scripture scholar Sandra Schneiders draws out especially fascinating insights on the place of the Resurrection in the overall structure of the Gospel of John the important structure of John 20 which presents a series of episodes that are internally related to each other and constitute a distinctive synthesis of Christian spirituality what the Resurrection story reveals about the New Covenant promised by Jeremiah and Ezekiel the anthropology and eschatology that is operative in John's account of the Resurrection the distinction in John between the Glorification and the Resurrection of Jesus
