Private Practices Meredith Rogers Cherland, 1994 A constructed world Gender practices Literacy practices Instructional practices Identity practices Private lessons

Private Practices Saskatchewan Meredith Cherland University of Regina, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1994 The study of literacy no longer focuses solely on psychological processes In the past ten years literacy has been reconceptualized as a social practice or rather as social practices that make up the fabric of daily life Using an anthropological perspective Private Practices examines the broad fictional reading of middle class pre teen girls and offers fresh insights into the place of literacy both at home and at school in the construction of gender The author provides a wealth of evidence to support the central assumption of the book Gender is a cultural and social construction not a biological given Gender is something that people create while interacting with each other in all the practices of their daily lives including their literacy practices The book also provides critical analysis and commentary concerning the role that reading fiction plays in cultural reproduction In the hope that deeper knowledge of literacy as a social practice will support social transformation and eventually social justice the author suggests compelling reasons for the fact that girls read more fiction and different fiction than do boys

Reading behind Bars Jill Grunenwald, 2019-07-02 A fascinating look into a world many of us never see and a powerful story about one woman's journey to find her own strength with a clear message of the importance of books and information for all Booklist American Library Association starred review Shortlisted for the 2020 Social Justice

Advocacy Book Award by In the Margins Book Awards In December 2008 twentysomething Jill Grunenwald graduated with her master s degree in library science ready to start living her dream of becoming a librarian But the economy had a different idea As the Great Recession reared its ugly head jobs were scarce After some searching however Jill was lucky enough to snag one of the few librarian gigs left in her home state of Ohio The catch The job was behind bars as the prison librarian at a men s minimum security prison Talk about baptism by fire As an untested twentysomething woman to say that the job was out of Jill s comfort zone was an understatement She was forced to adapt on the spot speedily learning to take the metal detectors hulking security guards and colorful inmates in stride Over the course of a little less than two years Jill came to see past the bleak surroundings and the orange jumpsuits and recognize the humanity of the men stuck behind bars They were just like every other library patron persons who simply wanted to read to be educated and entertained through the written word By helping these inmates Jill simultaneously began to recognize the humanity in everyone and to discover inner strength that she never knew she had At turns poignant and hilarious Reading behind Bars is a perfect read for fans of Orange is the New Black and Shakespeare Saved My Life Teaching ESL/EFL Reading and Writing I.S.P. Nation,John Macalister,2020-10-01 The second edition of this bestselling text Teaching ESL EFL Reading and Writing is a fully updated and expanded guide for teaching learners at all levels of proficiency how to develop their reading and writing skills and fluency Practical and accessible this book covers a diverse array of language teaching techniques suitable for all contexts Updated with cutting edge research and theory the second edition is an essential and engaging text Key insights and suggestions are organised around four strands meaning focused input meaning focused output language focused learning and fluency development to allow teachers to design and present a balanced programme for their students Bringing together research and theory in applied linguistics and education the text includes useful examples and practical strategies and features new topics related to technology assessment and genre The second edition includes new tasks and further reading sections in every chapter Teaching ESL EFL Reading and Writing is designed for practising and pre service teachers of all levels and is ideal for certificate diploma masters and doctoral courses in English as a second or foreign language

Reading in the Dark Jessica R. McCort,2016-04-28 Contributions by Rebecca A Brown Justine Gieni Holly Harper Emily L Hiltz A Robin Hoffman Kirsten Kowalewski Peter C Kunze Jorie Lagerwey Nick Levey Jessica R McCort and Janani Subramanian Dark novels shows and films targeted toward children and young adults are proliferating wildly It is even more crucial now to understand the methods by which such texts have traditionally operated and how those methods have been challenged abandoned and appropriated Reading in the Dark fills a gap in criticism devoted to children s popular culture by concentrating on horror an often neglected genre These scholars explore the intersection between horror popular culture and children s cultural productions including picture books fairy tales young adult literature television and monster movies Reading in the Dark looks at horror texts for children with deserved respect weighing the multitude of benefits they can provide for young readers and viewers Refusing to write off the horror genre as campy trite or deforming these essays instead recognize many of the texts and films categorized as scary as among those most widely consumed by children and young adults In addition scholars consider how adult horror has been domesticated by children s literature and culture with authors and screenwriters turning that which was once horrifying into safe funny and delightful books and films Scholars likewise examine the impetus behind such re envisioning of the adult horror novel or film as something appropriate for the young The collection investigates both the constructive and the troublesome aspects of scary books movies and television shows targeted toward children and young adults It considers the complex mechanisms by which these texts communicate overt messages and hidden agendas and it treats as well the readers experiences of such mechanisms Building

Communities of Engaged Readers Teresa Cremin, Marilyn Mottram, Fiona M. Collins, Sacha Powell, Kimberly Safford, 2014-06-20 Reading for pleasure urgently requires a higher profile to raise attainment and increase children s engagement as self motivated and socially interactive readers Building Communities of Engaged Readers highlights the concept of Reading Teachers who are not only knowledgeable about texts for children but are aware of their own reading identities and prepared to share their enthusiasm and understanding of what being a reader means Sharing the processes of reading with young readers is an innovative approach to developing new generations of readers Examining the interplay between the will and the skill to read the book distinctively details a reading for pleasure pedagogy and demonstrates that reader engagement is strongly influenced by relationships between children teachers families and communities Importantly it provides compelling evidence that reciprocal reading communities in school encompass a shared concept of what it means to be a reader in the 21st century considerable teacher and child knowledge of children s literature and other texts pedagogic practices which acknowledge and develop diverse reader identities spontaneous inside text talk on the part of all members a shift in the focus of control and new social spaces that encourage choice and children s rights as readers Written by experts in the literacy field and illustrated throughout with examples from the project schools it is essential reading for all those concerned with improving young people s enjoyment of and attainment in reading The Power of Reading Stephen D. Krashen, 2004-08-19 Continuing the case for free voluntary reading set out in the book s 1993 first edition this new updated and much looked for second edition explores new research done on the topic in the last ten years as well as looking anew at some of the original research reviewed Krashen also explores research surrounding the role of school and public libraries and the research indicating the necessity of a print rich environment that provides light reading comics teen romances magazines as well as the best in literature to assist in educating children to read with understanding and in second language acquisition He looks at the research surrounding reading incentive rewards programs and specifically at the research on AR Accelerated Reader and other electronic reading products
