Multiethnic Books for the Middle-School

Curriculum Cherri Jones, J. B. Petty, 2013-08-20 This resource makes it easy for teachers and librarians working with middle school children to infuse their curriculum with multicultural literature. Carefully vetted and annotated, it encompasses fiction and non-fiction published in the last decade, making it an ideal reference and collection development tool for schools and public libraries alike.

How i Met Her willianinnovador, 2025-05-11 Alex was a spreadsheet guy until Cecilia walked in with a violin case and a theory that Tuesdays contain hidden doorways. One caffeinated meet-cute later, the pair is pinballing across the planet, haggling for carpets at dawn in Fez, slow dancing on Patagonian ice, chasing tornadoes for fun, and raising seven wide-eyed kids who treat airports like playgrounds. For twenty-four years, they live on first-name terms with wonder, proof that romance and wanderlust share the same passport. Then one quiet night, Cecilia drifts off mid-story and never wakes, leaving Alex with a house full of memories and an atlas tattooed on his heart.

Shadow of Zelos Uwe Jaeckel, 2018-09-29 The year was 2030. The Moon Base had just been dedicated when a transmission came through. Not from Earth and not in the form of any mathematical formula. Only one word in 21 different languages: Come. Concealed from the public, the transmission was traced back to the northern pole of Mars, and a small expeditionary unit was quietly sent, ending in complete disaster. Now ten years later, Darren Hildure and Feng Yusheng, the only survivors of the first expedition, lead the second Mars mission to find the location and hopefully the sender. What they find on Mars alerts them to a dark threat closing in fast. Together with a small group of chosen individuals, Darren and Feng must race against time to unite the world, prepare for battle, and uncover a plot against humanity, setting off a chain of events that will forever alter their lives and shape the fate of the Universe.

The Young Victims of the Nazi Regime Simone Gigliotti, Monica Tempian, 2016-05-05 During the Nazi regime, many children and young people in Europe found their lives uprooted by Nazi policies, resulting in their relocation around the globe. The Young Victims of the Nazi Regime represents the diversity of their experiences, covering a range of non-European perspectives on the Second World War and aspects of memory. This book is unique in that it places the experiences of children and youth in a transnational context shifting the conversation of displacement and refuge to countries that have remained under examined in a comparative context Featuring essays from an international range of experts this book analyses the key themes in three sections the migration of children to countries including England Canada Australia New Zealand Kenya and Brazil the experiences of young people who remained in Nazi Europe and became victims of war displacement and deportation and finally the challenges of rebuilding lives and representing traumas in the aftermath of war In its comparisons between Jewish and non Jewish experiences and how these intersected and diverged it revisits debates about cultural genocide through the separation of families and communities as well as contributing new perspectives on forced labour families and the Holocaust and Germans as war victims      Teaching Global Literature in Elementary

Classrooms Kelly K. Wissman, Maggie Naughter Burns, Krista Jiampetti, Heather O'Leary, Simeen Tabatabai, 2016-07-15 Demonstrating the power of teaching global literature from a critical literacy perspective this book explores the ways that K 6 educators can infuse diverse texts into their classrooms and find support for their endeavours in teacher inquiry communities Through carefully analyzed ethnographically informed portraits of classroom life alternating with teachers own accounts of their teaching and learning experiences it demonstrates how students are moved to question debate and take action in response to global texts This multi vocal work both emerges from and responds to tensions and debates related to the purpose and practice of literature education in a time of Common Core State Standards      Holocaust Cinema

Complete Rich Brownstein, 2021-09-17 Holocaust movies have become an important segment of world cinema and the de facto Holocaust education for many One quarter of all American produced Holocaust related feature films have won or been nominated for at least one Oscar In fact from 1945 through 1991 half of all American Holocaust features were nominated Yet most Holocaust movies have fallen through the cracks and few have been commercially successful This book explores these trends and many others with a comprehensive guide to hundreds of films and made for television movies From Anne Frank to Schindler s List to Jojo Rabbit more than 400 films are examined from a range of perspectives historical chronological thematic sociological geographical and individual The filmmakers are contextualized including Charlie Chaplin Sidney Lumet Steven Spielberg Quentin Tarantino and Roman Polanski Recommendations and reviews of the 50 best Holocaust films are included along with an educational guide a detailed listing of all films covered and a four part index glossary      Family
