discourses of race gender violence and power in the United States and abroad Taken together the essays ask us to reconsider the limitations and possibilities of this work which although dogged by controversy must be understood as one of the most extraordinary media events of the late twentieth century a cultural touchstone of enduring significance Contributors Norvella P Carter Warren Chalklen Elise Chatelain Robert K Chester Clare Corbould C Richard King David J Leonard Delia Mellis Francesca Morgan Tyler D Parry Martin Stollery Dominic Meng Hsuan Yang Bhekuyise Zungu The House where My Soul Lives Maryemma Graham,2022 This biography of poet and writer Margaret Walker takes us inside America in the middle of the 20th century seen through the eyes of one southern black woman who refused to focus on what was not possible but what was on publisher s description Black Women Legacies Alexandria Russell,2024-12-10 From Black clubwomen to members of preservation organizations African American women have made commemoration a central part of Black life and culture Alexandria Russell illuminates the process of memorialization while placing African American women at the center of memorials they brought into being and others constructed in their honor Their often undocumented and unheralded work reveals the importance of the memorializers and public memory crafters in establishing a culture of recognition Forced to strategize with limited resources the women operated with a resourcefulness and savvy that had to meet challenges raised by racism gender and class discrimination and specific regional difficulties Yet their efforts from the 1890s to the 2020s shaped and honed practices that became indispensable to the everyday life and culture of Black Americans Intersectional and original Black Women Legacies explores the memorialization of African American women and its distinctive impact on physical and cultural landscapes throughout the United States Thea's Song: The Life of Thea Bowman Charlene Smith and John Feister,2009 The definitive authorized biography of Thea Bowman a black girl born in civil rights era Mississippi who joined a convent of white Catholic sisters and went on to inspire millions of all faiths and none Anne Spencer between Worlds Noelle Morrisette,2023-02-15 Anne Spencer between Worlds provides an indispensable reassessment of a critically neglected figure Looking beyond the poetry she published during the Harlem Renaissance Noelle Morrisette provides a new critical lens for interpreting Spencer s expansive life and imagination through her archives giving particular focus to her manuscripts authored from 1940 to 1975 Through its attentiveness to Spencer s published and unpublished work her work as a librarian and an activist and the political dimensions of her writing Anne Spencer between Worlds transforms our understanding of Spencer It offers a sustained examination of poetry and ecology and the relationships among race gender and archives through its analysis of the manuscripts that Spencer produced and revised throughout her life Morrisette argues that the expansiveness depth and range of Spencer s writing has not been appreciated because she did not publish this incomplete ongoing work She also demonstrates that careful reading of the manuscripts challenges many of the assumptions that have governed Spencer s reception In Anne Spencer between Worlds Spencer emerges as a deeply engaged political poet who used the creative possibilities of the unpublished manuscript to explore pressing political and cultural concerns and to develop experimental cultural forms In her unpublished manuscripts Spencer pushed beyond the lyric mode to develop experimental forms that were alert to the expressive possibilities of the epic prose correspondence and mixed genres Indeed Spencer s manuscripts serve as witnesses of historical and poetic junctions for the poet and for the attentive reader of her archives Conversations with Margaret Walker Margaret Walker,2002
