Navigating from the White Anthropocene to the Black Chthulucene William Brown,2023-06-30 Navigating from the White Anthropocene to the Black Chthulucene radically re interprets Buster Keaton s iconic 1924 film The Navigator through the combined lenses of posthumanism and critical race theory This book deconstructs the film s underlying anti Blackness and anti Indigeneity while exposing the unthinking whiteness of theorists and philosophers including Gilles Deleuze who have given Keaton s work pride of place in the history of cinema Through its daring and provocative analysis of Keaton s classic Navigating from the White Anthropocene to the Black Chthulucene invites us to consider cinema itself at least in its classical narrative form as a tool for constructing and maintaining white supremacy while building the conceptual tools for a world beyond whiteness

The Navigator's Dream, Volume 3 Julia A. Turk,2012-02 In this third and final volume of Julia Turk s Navigator s Dream series the Navigator makes one final voyage into the realm of tarot to ultimately find enlightenment but it will be much more difficult than a simple turn of the cards for our psychiatrist turned philosopher and mystic In Seatime the hero ascends into the Major Arcana of the tarot deck via a sailboat led by the Higher Self of the Navigator known as Guide Joined together with a motley crew the sailboat takes the Navigator and Guide deep within the islands or Sephiroth of the Mystic SEA These are not tropical islands intended for peace and comfort each island is different than the last and each carries a mystery that must be unraveled Although the Navigator has learned much amidst the tarot cards has the hero learned enough to make it home Externally the Navigator has difficulties but internally there are problems as well as the riddles unravel so do the deeply held psychological issues of the Navigator By the end the mysteries of the Major Arcana might be solved but will the Navigator be able to heal the wounds built prior to the tarot adventure

The Phantom in Focus: A Navigator's Eye on Britain's Cold War Warrior David Gledhill,2014-03-26 Have you ever wondered what it was like to fly the Phantom This is not a potted history of an aeroplane nor is it Hollywood glamour as captured in Top Gun This is the story of life on the frontline during the Cold War told in the words of a navigator who flew the iconic jet Unique pictures many captured from the cockpit show the Phantom in its true environment and show why for many years the Phantom was the envy of NATO It also tells the inside story of some of the problems which plagued the Phantom in its early days how the aircraft developed or was neglected and reveals events which shaped the aircraft s history and contributed to its demise Anecdotes capture the deep affection felt by the crews who were fortunate enough to cross paths with the Phantom during their flying careers The nicknames the aircraft earned were not complimentary and included the Rhino The Spook Double Ugly the Flying Brick and the Lead Sled Whichever way you looked at it you could love or hate the Phantom but you could never ignore it for its sheer power and lethal payload The Phantom in Focus A Navigator's Eye on Britain's Cold War Warrior is unique in that the author flew in the legendary Phantom in the front line and captured beautiful and amazing unpublished photographs that will appeal to historians military specialists and modellers alike Trash Haulers Sam McGowan,2011-12-15 On August 23 1954 the most successful airplane in aviation history took to the skies on its maiden flight A little over two years later the first operational airplanes were delivered to the 463rd Troop Carrier Wing at Ardmore AFB Oklahoma Over the next 21 years Tactical Air Command United States Air Forces Europe and Pacific Air Forces troop carrier tactical airlift crew amassed a heroic and impressive record from Africa to Vietnam Trash Haulers is a revision of a 1988 TAB Aero publication by Sam McGowan who was part of that mission The Navigator's Dream, Volume 2 Julia A. Turk,2012-02 In volume one of Julia Turk's Navigator's Dream series Riverlog we met the Navigator a psychiatrist seeking enlightenment in a dark world Through a mysterious series of events the Navigator fell into the world of tarot cards Once there our hero went head to head with seven strange birds twelve bizarre characters and a camel all different aspects of the mystical deck of cards who helped on the way to adventure and enlightenment In volume two the Navigator is back in the world of cards only this time it's time to meet royalty The Navigator comes to know the Court Cards of the mystic deck the Queens Kings Pages and Knights The Navigator travels from one castle to the next but in order to get through this strange world safely several difficult riddles must be solved that could spell life or death in the pages of fate The Court Cards are not easy to handle They have separate strong personalities that make them difficult to outsmart and difficult to put up with But the Navigator must make it through this new adventure to move on to the final voyage into the magical deck of tarot cards Although a work of fiction extensive knowledge of Hermetic Cabala and tarot is woven within to teach readers and entertain in this court intrigue of danger and death General Leemy's Circus: A Navigator's Story Of The Twentieth Air Force In World War II [Illustrated Edition] Earl A. Science and Sensibility Michael Vincent McGinnis,2016-03-22 If humans are to understand and discover ways of addressing complex social and ecological problems we first need to find intimacy with our particular places and communities Cultivating a relationship to place often includes a negotiating process that involves both science and sensibility While science is one key part of an adaptive and resilient society the cultivation of a renewed sense of place and community is essential as well Science and Sensibility argues for the need for ecology to engage with philosophical values and economic motivations in a political process of negotiation with the goal of shaping humans treatment of the natural world Michael Vincent McGinnis aims to reframe ecology so it might have greater trans scientific awareness of the roles and interactions among multiple stakeholders in socioecological systems and he also maintains that deep ecological knowledge of specific places will be crucial to supporting a sustainable society He uses numerous specific case studies from watershed coastal and marine habitats to illustrate how place based ecological negotiation can occur and how reframing our negotiation process can influence conservation restoration and environmental policy in effective ways

Country Boys and Redneck Women Diane Pecknold,Kristine M. McCusker,2016-02-08 Country music boasts a long tradition of rich contradictory gender dynamics creating a world where Kitty Wells could play the demure housewife and the honky tonk angel simultaneously Dolly Parton could move from traditionalist girl singer to outspoken trans rights advocate and current radio playlists can alternate between the reckless masculinity of bro country and the adolescent girlishness of Taylor Swift In this follow up volume to A Boy Named Sue some of the leading authors in the field of country music studies reexamine the place of gender in country music considering the ways country artists and listeners have negotiated gender and sexuality through their music and how gender has shaped the way that music is made and heard In addition to shedding new light on such legends as Wells Parton Loretta Lynn and Charley Pride it traces more recent shifts in gender politics through the performances of such contemporary luminaries as Swift Gretchen Wilson and Blake Shelton The book also explores the intersections of gender race class and nationality in a host of less expected contexts including the prisons of WWII era Texas where the members of the Goree All Girl String Band became the unlikeliest of radio stars the studios and offices of Plantation Records where Jeannie C Riley and Linda Martell challenged the social hierarchies of a changing South in the 1960s and the burgeoning cities of present day Brazil where college country has become one way of negotiating masculinity in an age of economic and social instability
