

Five Little Leaves

Five little leaves, so colorful and bright
Dancing around in the warm sunlight
The wind came blowing through the trees
(Blow — blow —)
And one little leaf came tumbling down!

Four little leaves, so colorful and bright
Dancing around in the warm — light
The wind came fu —
then

Five Little Leaves

Five little leaves
Flying by my door
One red leaf blew away,
And then there were four.

Four little leaves
Falling down on me.
One orange leaf one blew away,
And then there were three.

Three little leaves
Falling down on you.
One yellow one blew away,
And then there were two.

Two little leaves
Having lots of fun.
One green leaf blew away,
And then there were one.

One brown little leaf,
Sitting in the sun,
It blew away,
And then there were none.

new ideas that hold the children's attention can be trying. Until now. Here are 55 tried and true story hour programs with a thematic approach. All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range. Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one-hour programs: barnyard animals, the Caldecott Medal, colors, families, a storytelling feast, the five senses, reptiles and amphibians, and around the world. There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs. All story hours provide ideas for name tags, suggested audiovisual materials, recommended story poetry and song selections, additional titles, and a full description of the activity. Storytelling Janice M. This book serves as both a textbook and reference for faculty and students in LIS courses on storytelling and a professional guide for practicing librarians, particularly youth services librarians in public and school libraries. Storytelling: Art and Technique serves professors, students, and practitioners alike as a textbook, reference, and professional guide. It provides practical instruction and concrete examples of how to use the power of story to build literacy and presentation skills, as well as to create community in those same educational spaces. This text illustrates the value of storytelling, covers the history of storytelling in libraries, and offers valuable guidance for bringing stories to contemporary listeners with detailed instructions on the selection, preparation, and presentation of stories. It also provides guidance around the planning and administration of a storytelling program. Topics include digital storytelling, open mics, and slams, and the neuroscience of storytelling.
