

Sonnet 116

by William Shakespeare

'Let me not to the marriage of true minds
Admit impediments.
Love is not love
Which alters when it alteration finds,
Or bends with the remover to remove:
O no; it is an ever-fixed mark,
That looks on tempests,
and is never shaken;
It is the star to every wandering bark,
Whose worth's unknown,
although his height be taken.
Love's not Time's fool,
though rosy lips and cheeks
Within his bending sickle's compass come;
Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,
But bears it out even to the edge of doom.
If this be error and upon me proved,
I never writ, nor no man ever loved.'

Harvey, Katharine Eisaman Maus, 1990-08-08 This collection gathers new essays by critics and scholars who are currently reshaping our sense of the function and nature of seventeenth century poetry Contributors return to the New Critical canon of Renaissance poetry with fresh perspectives that emphasize considerations of gender ideology power and language In the first group of essays David Norbrook Annabel Patterson John Guillory Rosemary Kegl and Stephen Orgel explore the various ways in which a text can be political Next Arthur Marotti Jane Tylus and Jonathan Goldberg consider the circumstances of textual production and reception in the seventeenth century Finally Stanley Fish Gordon Braden Michael C Schoenfeldt and Maureen Quilligan discuss the particular forms of anxiety that result when seventeenth century poets modify the traditional rhetoric of sexual desire to serve what seem to be erotic or religious purposes These essays accompanied by an extensive editors introduction intersect less in their shared enthusiasm for particular authors or interpretative methods than in a common interest in particular critical issues They present the most exciting work by critics redefining Renaissance studies Jane Austen and William Shakespeare Marina Cano, Rosa García-Periago, 2019-11-06 This volume explores the multiple connections between the two most canonical authors in English Jane Austen and William Shakespeare The collection reflects on the historical literary critical and filmic links between the authors and their fates Considering the implications of the popular cult of Austen and Shakespeare the essays are interdisciplinary and comparative ranging from Austen's and Shakespeare's biographies to their presence in the modern vampire saga Twilight passing by Shakespearean echoes in Austen's novels and the authors afterlives on the improv stage in wartime cinema modern biopics and crime fiction The volume concludes with an account of the Exhibition Will Jane at the Folger Shakespeare Library which literally brought the two authors together in the autumn of 2016 Collectively the essays mark and celebrate what we have called the long standing love affair between William Shakespeare and Jane Austen over 200 years and counting POETRY FOR STUDENTS CENGAGE LEARNING. GALE, 2016 A Singing Contest Meg Tyler, 2013-11-05 A formal analysis A Singing Contest comprises close readings of Seamus Heaney's poetry Tyler argues that in an era of fractured poetry and politics Seamus Heaney stands out his impulse is towards unity and regeneration Her book considers the interplay between different kinds of literary tradition and community in his poetry For Heaney poetry represents a structure allowing imaginative mediation of conflicts that appear irreconcilable in the social political and historical realms By detailed structural analysis of diction meter imagery and generic form Tyler illustrates how Heaney's poems create concords from discords unities from fracture From the preface by Rosanna Warren A Singing Contest is written with imaginative and emotional urgency and in some large sense as it examines Heaney s spells it seems itself to want to cast a spell against death Hence Tyler s return in various ways to readings of elegy whether the fictive elegies of classical pastoral poems or Heaney s personal elegies She pores in detail over Clearances the sonnet sequence composed in memory of the poet s mother in The Haw Lantern and she concludes her book with a chapter on literary elegies Heaney s farewells to his friends and admired contemporaries Ted Hughes Zbigniew Herbert and Joseph Brodsky In these analyses one sees the wholeness of Tyler s project her argument that for Heaney literary tradition itself rightly received and transformed reaches into the voids made by death and establishes connection across rupture Her thesis is an ancient one and she gives it particular shape and force in asking us to contemplate it at work in Heaney where it binds individual to collective experience and past to present
