Policing and Conflict in Northern Ireland J. Wright, K. Bryett, 2015-12-22 In societies suffering from acute political and social cleavage policing agencies are invariably at the heart of the conflict resolution processes In Northern Ireland there have been calls for the RUC to be disbanded as well as for it to be retained unchanged After considering various options and models especially from Spain South Africa and the Netherlands this book charts a path for reform that takes account of Northern Ireland's political realities and will help build trust and inclusions Women Police Unfurled in Pakistan:

Perspective, Status and Prospective Saima Manzoor Arain, 2014-06-14 Author has trailed emergence of women police reflected Education Competence and Performance with transgenerational roots of wisdom from Constable to IGP psycho socio culture mentors to find freedom justice and unity This has made her a trailblazer to become an unequivocal representative to reflect the conduct of police not maintaining Justice Principle of Unity not a catchword within its ranks and of freedom not the muse of Cohesive Ethics Theorem This book embeds two modes of existence the male operational mode which concentrates on material reliance power and chauvinism and is the basis of such evils as greed for money and domination and the female operational mode which is based in affection in the pleasure of sharing distress of the female and constructive activity where she concludes that female talent is still untapped Hence this book reflects distinct psychological sketch of the Women Police and pushes readers to muse on it and opens bold horizons of intellectual endeavors The

Political Economy of AIDS in Africa Nana K. Poku, 2017-07-05 Sub Saharan Africa is a region devastated by HIV AIDS The extent of the epidemic is only now becoming clear as increasing numbers of people with HIV are becoming ill In the absence of massively expanded prevention treatment and care efforts the AIDS death toll on the continent is set to escalate rapidly Despite progress being achieved in localized settings the alarming statistics reflect the continuing failure of advanced countries to mount a response that matches the scale and severity of the African HIV AIDS crisis Over and above the colossal personal suffering the dire social and economic consequences for fragile nation states are already being felt not only in health but in education industry agriculture transport human resources and economies in general Countries already crippled by drought poverty debt forced migration and civil war must now contend with massive deterioration in child survival rates and life expectancy the erosion of the economic family base massive and insupportable demands on health and public services chronic labour shortages and volatile national security Through a critical and detailed exploration of specific case studies this invaluable volume brings together an unparalleled array of international contributors to redefine the political and economic contours of this calamitous epidemic It examines the impact of the shortfalls in the Global Fund allocation the slow pace of administrative processing of aid and the weaknesses of institutional responses to the crisis from African countries and their partners in the global health community It is essential reading for all concerned with public health epidemiology HIV AIDS research globalization development Africa and indeed our shared future Features include Unique assessments of
