South African Army Bursaries 2016:

Reimagining Social Justice Scholarship Tamara Shefer, Carmine Rustin, Floretta Boonzaier, 2025-09-25 Showcasing creative decolonial feminist and critical social justice scholarship located in a South African context this book works across modalities and disciplines and within art and activism to challenge hegemonic and oppressive forms of gender and sexuality In the wake of decolonial activism in higher education and civil society since 2015 and the larger struggle for equality and justice Shefer Rustin Boonzaier and their contributors draw primarily from the work of local research and pedagogical projects directed at alternative imaginaries of gender and sexual justice with global import Increasingly scholars are engaging in collaborative dialogical and creative work that foregrounds performance art music crafts literature as well as embodied affective and relational engagements in the making of knowledge This book shares some of these diverse counter hegemonic pedagogies and research approaches that bring an intersectional and decolonial feminist lens to contemporary efforts to decolonise higher education and larger civil society Producing lines of thought and sharing praxis that destabilises disrupts and opens up new possibilities for justice scholarship the book provides a space for going beyond critical reflexivity in research and practice related to gender and sexual inequalities It seeks to make a scholarly intervention founded on rethinking its own grounds through collaborations with knowledges often deployed by those outside the authoritative expert domains of academia aligning it with feminist and decolonial aims This book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of gender sexuality and intersectionality particularly those with a focus on the global South NL ARMS Netherlands Annual Review of Military Studies 2020 Frans Osinga, Tim Sweijts, 2020-12-03 This open access volume surveys the state of the field to examine whether a fifth wave of deterrence theory is emerging Bringing together insights from world leading experts from three continents the volume identifies the most pressing strategic challenges frames theoretical concepts and describes new strategies The use and utility of deterrence in today s strategic environment is a topic of paramount concern to scholars strategists and policymakers Ours is a period of considerable strategic turbulence which in recent years has featured a renewed emphasis on nuclear weapons used in defence postures across different theatres a dramatic growth in the scale of military cyber capabilities and the frequency with which these are used and rapid technological progress including the proliferation of long range strike and unmanned systems These military strategic developments occur in a polarized international system where cooperation between leading powers on arms control regimes is breaking down states widely make use of hybrid conflict strategies and the number of internationalized intrastate proxy conflicts has quintupled over the past two decades Contemporary conflict actors exploit a wider gamut of coercive instruments which they apply across a wider range of domains The prevalence of multi domain coercion across but also beyond traditional dimensions of armed conflict raises an important question what does effective deterrence look like in the 21st century Answering that question requires a re appraisal of key theoretical concepts and dominant strategies of Western and non Western actors in order to assess how they hold up in today's world Air Commodore Professor Dr Frans Osinga is the Chair of the War Studies Department of the Netherlands Defence Academy and the Special Chair in War Studies at the University Leiden Dr Tim Sweijs is the Director of Research at The Hague Centre for Strategic Studies and a Research Fellow at the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda Decolonising Journalism Education in South Africa Ylva Rodny-Gumede, Colin Chasi, Zubeida Jaffer, Mvuso Ponono, 2023-05-19 This book is the culmination of several years of collaborative work It is a unique contribution to the field of journalism because of the depth and variety of contributions it makes to the field The scholars who contribute to this volume respond to the great need to rethink journalism from various perspectives including journalism training research the contents of the news media language media ethics the safety of journalists and gender inequities in the news media In doing this they recognise how the societies that journalism address should themselves change Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection However since the Second World War Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today's Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God It then goes on to suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully By bringing Pentecostalism's function in South African society to the fore this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity As such it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as those working in African Studies A Church Militant Michael Snape, 2022 This is a study of the relationship between Anglicans and the armed forces of the military heritage and history of the Anglican Communion and the changing nature of this relationship between the mid Victorian period and the 1970s This era spanned a period of imperial expansion and colonial conflict round the turn of the twentieth century the two World Wars the Cold War wars of decolonisation and Vietnam In terms of armed conflict it was the bloodiest period in the history of humanity and marked the advent of weaponry that had the capacity to extinguish human civilization This book assesses the contribution of an expansive Anglican Communion to the armed forces of the English speaking world examines the ways in which this has been remembered and explores its challenging legacy for the twenty first century Church of England Polymer Nanocomposites for Advanced Engineering and Military Applications Ramdani, Nouredine,2019-04-01 The field of polymer nanocomposites has become essential for engineering and military industries over the last few decades as it applies to computing sensors biomedical microelectronics hard coating and many other domains Due to their outstanding mechanical and thermal features polymer nanocomposite materials have recently been developed and now have a wide range of applications Polymer Nanocomposites for Advanced Engineering and Military Applications provides emerging research on recent advances in the fabrication methods properties and applications of various nano fillers including surface modification methods and chemical functionalization Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as barrier properties biomedical microelectronics and matrix processing this book is ideally designed for engineers industrialists chemists government officials military professionals practitioners academicians researchers and students

Mogomotsi,2022-03-23 This volume discusses the complex relationship between Protected Areas and tourism and their impact on community livelihoods in a range of countries in Southern Africa Protected areas and tourism have an enduring and symbiotic relationship While protected areas offer a desirable setting for tourism products tourism provides revenue that can contribute to conservation efforts This can bring benefits to local communities but it can also have a negative impact with the establishment of protected areas leading to the eviction of local communities from their original places of residence while also preventing them from accessing the natural resources they once enjoyed Taking a multi disciplinary approach this book addresses the opportunities and challenges faced by communities and other stakeholders as they endeavour to achieve their conservation goals and work towards improving community livelihoods Case studies from Botswana Malawi Namibia South Africa Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe address key issues such as human wildlife conflicts ecotourism wildlife based tourism landscape governance wildlife crop raiding and trophy hunting including the high profile case of Cecil the lion Chapters highlight both the achievements and positive outcomes of protected areas but also the challenges faced and their impact on how protected areas are viewed and also conservation priorities more generally The volume gives these issues affecting protected areas local communities managers and international conservation efforts centre stage in order inform policy and improve practice going forward This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conservation natural resource management tourism sustainable development and African studies as well as professionals and policymakers involved in conservation policy

Everyday State and Democracy in Africa Wale Adebaw,2022-07-12 Bottom up case studies drawn from the perspective of ordinary Africans experiences with state bureaucracies structures and services reveal how citizens and states define each other This volume examines contemporary citizens everyday encounters with the state and democratic processes in Africa The contributions reveal the intricate and complex ways in which quotidian activities and experiences from getting an identification card genuine or fake to sourcing black market commodities to dealing with unreliable waste collection both re produce and re constitute the state and democracy This approach from below lends gravity to the mundane and recognizes the value of conceiving state governance not in terms of its stated promises and aspirations but rather in accordance with how people experience it Both new and established scholars based in Africa Europe and North America cover a wide range of examples from across the continent including bureaucratic machinery in South Sudan Nigeria and Kenya infrastructure and shortages in Chad and Nigeria disciplinarity subjectivity and violence in Rwanda South Africa and Nigeria the social life of democracy in the Congo Cameroon and Mozambique education welfare and health in Ethiopia the Democratic Republic of Congo and Burkina Faso Everyday State and Democracy in Africa demonstrates that ordinary citizens encounters with state agencies and institutions define the meanings discourses practices and significance of democratic life as well its distressing realities Contributors Daniel Agbiboa Victoria Bernal Jean Comaroff John L Comaroff E Fouksman Fred Ikanda Lori Leonard Rose L vgren Ferenc D vid Mark Ebenezer Obadare Rogers Orock Justin Pearce Katrien Pye Edoardo Quaretta Jennifer Riggan Helle Samuelsen Nicholas Rush Smith Eric Trovalla Ulrika Trovalla

British Royal Visits and Black Loyalism in Twentieth-century Southern Africa Hilary Sapire, 2024-10-31 Exploring the entwined histories of British royal visits to Southern Africa in the twentieth century this book analyses the clashing voices of dissent and cheering crowds that accompanied royal tours providing insight into the shifting nature of Black loyalism Originating in the Indigenous empire loyalism of eighteenth century Canada Black loyalism encompassed loyalty to the British crown and a shared ideology of rights and entitlements which positioned the crown as a source of protection against white settler rapacity colonial violence and racial oppression However expressions of monarchical devotion were often double edged and addressed the fundamental contradiction of a crown that was both the source of rights and complicit in colonial conquest appropriation and misrule It was on royal occasions such as jubilees coronation celebrations and especially royal visits when the sovereign was literally amongst their more distant subjects that loyalist sentiment was rekindled reinvented and made directly relevant to the concerns of the day By analysing change and continuity in Black perspectives towards both the British and Indigenous African monarchy during these visits this book offers a fruitful way into examining an array of Black Southern African discourses on governance political values and cultural identities across the region It argues that the refashioning of British imperial monarchy in the twentieth century was profoundly shaped by African initiatives and re imaginings and provides valuable reading for those researching imperialism popular attitudes to the British monarchy in the twentieth century and the diverse politics and identities of southern Africa

The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent's resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation's ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turn sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent's countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations

Environmental Humanities of Extraction in Africa James Ogude, Tafadzwa Mushonga, 2022-08-17 This book brings together perspectives on resource exploitation to expose the continued environmental and socio political concerns in post colonial Africa The continent is host to a myriad of environmental issues largely resulting from its rich diversity of natural resources that have been historically subjected to exploitation Colonial patterns of resource use and capital accumulation continue unabated making environmental and related socio political problems a dominant feature of African economies The book pursues the manifestation of these problems through four themes environmental justice violent capitalocenes indigenous knowledge and climate change The editors locate the book within the broad fields of political ecology and environmental geopolitics to highlight the intricate geographies of resource exploitation across Africa It uniquely focuses on the socio political and geopolitical dynamics associated with the exploitation of Africa's natural resources and its people The case studies from different parts of Africa tell a compelling story of resource exploitation related issues of environmental degradation in a continent particularly vulnerable to climate change and the continued plundering of its natural resources The book will be of great interest to scholars and students from the interdisciplinary fields of the environmental humanities and environmental studies more broadly as well as those studying political ecology environmental policy and natural resources with a specific focus on Africa

Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa Cuthbeth Tagwirei, 2025-09-26 Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa examines protest movements through the lens of Apartheid Studies the first general theory of apartheid which explores how oppression harm injustice poverty loss and inequality persist The book argues that apartheid which breaks the world of the oppressed into fragments fomenting diverse experiences of oppression among its victims frames the nature and course of protests by making them subject to its fragmentation Protest is thus redefined as good neighbourly and demoted on account of its symbiotic relationship to apartheid It is observed that the proliferation of protests does not preclude the persistence of apartheid Rather protest and apartheid are seen to be compatible By examining protest hashtags on X from South Africa and Zimbabwe the book explores and identifies the forms relations meanings trajectories and effects protests take evoke and embody as fragments subsisting in a fractured apartheid universe It demonstrates how and why life goes on amidst protest sheds light on the contradictions paradoxes and complexities that characterise protest movements and invites conversations around protest as a paradigm in the context of apartheid The book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of social movements protests sociology African Studies and communication and media studies

Mercenaries and Security Contractors in the 21st Century Eugenio Cusumano, Christopher Kinsey, Robert Parr, 2025-03-31 This book examines the debate over private security contractors using historical and contemporary cases including several non Western examples Since the end of the Cold War security privatization has grown in its geographical outreach breadth and scope This pervasive expansion of the private military and security market warrants a systematic investigation of commercial actors involvement in the variety of tasks associated with the provision of violence ranging from combat to vessel protection and cybersecurity Combining theoretical and empirical approaches the essays in this volume provide a historical investigation into private force that extends beyond Europe and the United States By focusing on recent developments such as the extensive involvement of Russian mercenaries in Ukraine new evidence from the Global South and the added historical depth given to the study of commercial providers of warfare this volume questions the endurance of norms like the mercenary taboo and the state monopoly of violence In doing so it sheds new light on the past present and future of private security This book will be of much interest to students of private security studies military studies security studies and international relations
