Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Management and Military Studies Joseph Soeters, 2020-03-24 This book connects findings and insights authored by famous scholars in management and organization studies with challenges the military is facing today One assumes that management and organization studies is only about the rational predictable and manageable and that military action is predominately irrational unpredictable and unmanageable both assumptions are wrong This book argues that the discipline of management and organization studies is highly relevant for the military in both peace and wartime conditions and for any situation in between In all conditions the giant and complex military organization needs to be structured processed administrated led and accounted for Each chapter presented in this volume focuses on the contributions of founding thinkers in management and organization studies with their work translated and applied to the military setting These scholars are drawn from a variety of backgrounds including organizational sociology economics political science psychology and engineering Although the work of only a few explicitly refers to the military the contributions of all these scholars are relevant in order to come to grips with security and military affairs Together with many other academics work the contributions of these 18 scholars constitute the core of the field of management and organization studies Index Medicus ,2004 Intimate Communities Nicole Elizabeth Barnes, 2018-10-23 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more When China s War of Resistance against Japan began in July 1937 it sparked an immediate health crisis throughout China In the end China not only survived the war but emerged from the trauma with a more cohesive population Intimate Communities argues that women who worked as military and civilian nurses doctors and midwives during this turbulent period built the national community one relationship at a time In a country with a majority illiterate agricultural population that could not relate to urban elites conceptualization of nationalism these women used their work of healing to create emotional bonds with soldiers and civilians from across the country These bonds transcended the divides of social class region gender and language Fires of Gold Lauren Coyle Rosen, 2020 Fires of Gold is a powerful ethnography of the often shrouded cultural legal political and spiritual forces governing the gold mining industry in Ghana one of Africa s most celebrated democracies Lauren Coyle Rosen argues that significant sources of power have arisen outside of the formal legal system to police adjudicate and navigate conflict in this theater of violence destruction and rebirth These authorities or shadow sovereigns include the transnational mining company collectivized artisanal miners civil society advocacy groups and significant religious figures and spiritual forces from African Islamic and Christian traditions Often more salient than official bodies of government the shadow sovereigns reveal a reconstitution of sovereign power one that in many ways is generated by hidden dimensions of the legal system Coyle Rosen also contends that spiritual forces are central in anchoring and animating shadow sovereigns as well as key forms of legal authority economic value and political contestation This innovative book illuminates how the crucible of gold itself governed by spirits serves as a critical site for embodied struggles over the realignment of the classical philosophical triad the city the soul and the sacred Children and Violence Bina

D'Costa,2016-10-04 Children s diverse experiences during periods of conflict post conflict and peacetime reveal that their roles in society and political communities are complex Based on this premise this book suggests that understanding children s roles involves a critical analysis of where the child is situated within her his family within socio political networks and within the state Through examining various case studies in South Asia a region that is marked as much by its homogeneity as by its immense diversity the book observes that significant tensions exist between universal and local approaches to childhood It reflects how the development of international and national discourses on children s rights and protection is relevant to children s everyday lives in situations of conflict Cuban International Relations at 60 Mervyn J. Bain,Chris

Walker,2021-05-03 Cuban International Relations at 60 brings together the perspectives of leading experts and the personal accounts of two ambassadors to examine Cuba s global engagement and foreign policy since January 1959 by focusing on the island s key international relationships and issues Thisbook s first section focuseson Havana s complex relationship with Washington and its second section concentrates on Cuba s other key relationships with consideration also being given to Cuba s external trade and investment sectors and the possibility of the island becoming a future petro power Throughout this study due attention is given to the role of history and Cuban nationalism in the formation of the island s unique foreign policy This book s examination and reflection on Cuba as an actor on the international arena for the 60 years of the revolutionary period highlights the multifaceted and complex reasons for the island s global engagement It concludes that Cuba s global presence since January 1959 has been remarkable for a Caribbean island is unparalleled and is likely to continue for the foreseeable future Scholars of international relations Latin American studies and political science n will find this book particularly interesting Mainstreaming the Tribal Areas (ex-FATA) of Pakistan Bordering Afghanistan Asghar

Khan,2022-08-23 The book addresses why the Pakistani state is facing persistent challenges in extending and consolidating its governance authority throughout its territories especially in the former Federally Administered Tribal Areas ex FATA Even after the de jure merger the question still remains valid that how Pakistani state could establish its governance in these tribal areas Through multi dimensional approaches and multi pronged analysis of state centric top down society centric bottom up and state in society mixed horizontal approaches the book explains factors and dimensions that pose challenges to Pakistani state governance in ex FATA The main hypothesis is that societies where state governance is absent turn to informal governance and create informal institutions as a substitute for the weak central state governance thereby challenging the domination and control authority of the state The book presents policy recommendations for bringing these tribal areas into the mainstream governance system of Pakistan

The House of Beauty Arabelle Sicardi,2025-10-14 When I tell you that beauty is a monster I need you to know it is my favorite kind So begins Arabelle Sicardi s blazingly original collection of essays A former beauty editor Arabelle has devoted their entire adult life to the subject of beauty they have analyzed it criticized it praised it benefited from it loathed it Now in The House of Beauty they get to the contradictions at the heart of it beauty and horror two sides of the same coin With their signature blend of intellectual rigor and poetic sensibility Arabelle explores how beauty myths are crafted sold and weaponized from corporate boardrooms to your local nail salon Follow alongside Arabelle as they trace the global trail of the shimmering mica in your beauty products choose your own adventure style or journey into the past to unearth the sinister connection between fragrance and fascism Bear witness as they visit a tech convention focused on the next horrifying frontier of body modification or as they ask what s at stake in the braids we weave in our hair Sharp yet tender in their observations Arabelle challenges readers to reconsider beauty as more than a product of consumption inviting a vision of beauty rooted in community and self care one that transcends industry driven ideals Equal parts expos and cultural reckoning The House of Beauty cracks open an industry that sells dreams and wields power Once you have encountered Arabelle s words there is no looking back

Ethical Economics and Sustainable Development Devi Datt Tewari,Kehinde Damilola Ilesanmi,2025-11-04 As societies strive for economic progress they often prioritize metrics like GDP growth technological innovation and industrial expansion However amid the rush for material progress something important yet frequently overlooked comes into focus the influence of moral capital on the trajectory of economic expansion This book explores the role of moral capital and its relationship with economic growth It emphasises how investment in moral frameworks can promote social well being and sustainable development The book is divided into two sections The first part focuses on the theorisation of the moral capital and African economic sustainability nexus while the second part is devoted to some selected empirical studies on the impact of moral capital on African economic policies The book argues that firm growth is crucial not only for stakeholders but also for the broader economy underpinning the sustainability of the ecosystem and by adhering to ethical principles organisations can make a positive impact on social economic and environmental issues Furthermore they can proactively address societal concerns promote fairness and justice and engage in sustainable practices Through their actions institutions become agents of positive change helping to shape a more inclusive equitable and sustainable world The key message of the book is that the cultivation of moral capital requires a collective effort from all stakeholders involved in institutional development governments institutions civil society and individuals must collaborate to create an ecosystem that incentivises and rewards ethical behaviour It includes diverse perspectives and combines conceptual theoretical and empirical research addressing contemporary issues in African economic policy and sustainability It presents global case studies to make the case for the importance of moral capital in addressing African leadership problems The book will appeal to academics students and researchers in economics ethics development studies and sustainability The State of Palestine

Philip Leech, 2016-10-26 Based on extensive field research interviews and participant observation undertaken across several sites in Nablus and the surrounding area it provides a bottom up interpretation of the Palestinian Authority's agenda and challenges the popular interpretation that its governance represents the only realistic path to Palestinian independence As the first major account of the Palestinian Authority's political agenda since the collapse of the unity government this book offers a unique explanation for the failure to bring a Palestinian state into being and challenges assumptions within the existing literature The European Union Decoded Maria Lorca-Susino, 2016 The European Union EU and the Eurozone became the economic integration example to follow for years However the worldwide economic crisis that unfolded in 2007 put the whole economic integration process in question the European project in jeopardy and the euro under pressure with serious doubts that it can survive its first crisis The core argument of this book is twofold First it seeks to explain the difficult political economic and fiscal idiosyncrasies of all member states in order to put the reasons for the economic crisis into a new and clear perspective Second it argues that the institutional response put forward to explain this tremendous crisis is flawed and dangerous because it does not solve the main underlying problem the deep differences among member states on their understanding of economic and financial behavior This study counters the leading institutional explanation for the economic crisis that has impacted the entire EU It presents a unique and provocative explanation of why the EU and the Eurozone are still immersed in an economic crisis and will be of key interest to students and scholars of European Politics and Economics

Interconnecting the Violences of Men Kate Seymour, Bob Pease, Sofia Strid, Jeff Hearn, 2024-11-04 This book aims to expand and enrich understandings of violences by focusing on gendered continuities interconnections and intersections across multiple forms and manifestations of men's violence In actively countering both the compartmentalisation of studies of violence by type and form and the tendency to conceptualise violence narrowly it aims to flesh out not delimit understandings of violence Bringing together cross disciplinary indeed transdisciplinary perspectives this book addresses how what are often seen as specific and separate violences connect closely and intricately with wider understandings of violence how there are gendered continuities between violences and how gendered violences take many forms and manifestations and are themselves intersectional Grounded by the recognition that violence is itself a form of inequality the contributors to this volume traverse the intersectional complexities across both experiences of violent inequality and what is seen to count as violence The international scope of this book will be of interest to students and academics across many fields including sociology criminology psychology social work politics gender studies child and youth studies military and peace studies environmental studies and colonial studies as well as practitioners activists and policymakers engaged in violence prevention

Trade Unions of the World (8th edition) Daniel Blackburn,2021-01-03 Trade Unions of the World is the essential guide to trade unions and trade unionism in more than 200 countries and territories around the world examining the social political and economic contexts they inhabit Each country profile includes an overview of the political and economic history of the country or territory and an outline of the development of trade unionism locally and the situation for trade unions and trade union rights today The profiles include details not only of national centres but also of all larger affiliated unions giving a comprehensive global picture of trade unionism around the world today A wide range of data is provided on the history structure membership and political and industrial role of the unions A final section profiles the key actors at global and regional levels The country profiles cover Political and economic background Population GDP HDI and GINI Indexes Overview of trade union history and development within the country Details for national trade union centres and further detail on the history and character of key affiliates and non affiliated unions International affiliations Understanding West Africas Ebola Epidemic Ibrahim Abdullah,Ismail Rashid,2017-10-15 From 2013 to 2015 over 11 000 people across West Africa lost their lives to the deadliest outbreak of the Ebola virus in history Crucially this epidemic marked the first time the virus was able to spread beyond rural areas to major cities overturning conventional assumptions about its epidemiology With backgrounds ranging from development to disease control the contributors to this volume some of them based in countries affected by the Ebola epidemic consider the underlying factors that shaped this unprecedented outbreak While championing the heroic efforts of local communities and aid workers in halting the spread of the disease the contributors also reveal deep structural problems in both the countries and humanitarian agencies involved which hampered the efforts to contain the epidemic Alarminglly they show that little has been learned from these events with health provision remaining underfunded and poorly equipped to deal with future outbreaks Such issues they argue reflect the wider challenges we face in tackling epidemic disease in an increasingly interconnected world
