Acharya, Richard Stubbs, 2013-10-31 The recent proliferation of theories of international relations has transformed analyses of Southeast Asia s international affairs A new generation of scholars has promoted a lively and illuminating debate which has seen the traditional realist neorealist approach which continues to hold centre stage challenged by constructivist analyses In turn constructivists have found themselves under fire from an array of competing approaches This collection engages this emerging debate It underscores the point that Southeast Asia is now an important site for applying new theories of international relations It also demonstrates that theoretical frameworks originally developed in North America and Europe have to be adapted to the specific circumstances found in places like Southeast Asia and that this process can enrich theory building The chapters in this book focus on the realist neorealist constructivist English School and critical approaches The resulting debate helps to shed light on ways of analysing Southeast Asian relations as well as on the evolution of these key theoretical frameworks This book was published as a special issue of The Pacific Review Tourism Marketing in East and Southeast Asia Styliadis, Dimitrios,Kim, Seongseop,Kim, Jungkeun,2022-12-19 Despite the increased research interest in tourism in Asia most research has focused on the key destinations China Macau Hong Kong Thailand while neglecting other destinations which are less well explored Little is known about the marketing efforts and practices along with the successes and challenges countries in the East and Southeast Asia have been experiencing This book aims to address this oversight by exploring the marketing approaches techniques and tools used by various countries in the region both collectively and individually to manage their tourism offerings and position them in the global tourism market China Hong Kong Indonesia Japan Korea Macau Mongolia Myanmar Vietnam The book will be of interest to tourism marketing researchers practitioners academics undergraduate and postgraduate students who will find these insightful contemporary case studies useful in the classroom The Narcotics Situation in Southeast Asia United States. Safe Migration and the Politics of Brokered Safety in Southeast Asia Sverre Molland, 2021-07-19 The book investigates how the United Nations governments and aid agencies mobilise and instrumentalise migration policies and programmes through a discourse of safe migration Since the early 2000s numerous non governmental organizations NGOs UN agencies and governments have warmed to the concept of safe migration often within a context of anti trafficking interventions Yet both the policy enthusiasm for safety as well as how safe migration comes into being through policies and programs remain unexplored Based on seven years of ethnographic fieldwork in the Mekong region this is the first book that traces the emergence of safe migration why certain aid actors gravitate towards the concept as well as how safe migration policies and programmes unfold through aid agencies and government bodies The book argues that safe migration is best understood as brokered safety Although safe migration policy interventions attempt to formalize pre emptive and protective measures to enhance labour migrants well being the book shows through vivid ethnographic details how formal migration assistance in itself depends on and produces informal asnd mediated practices The book offers unprecedented insights into what safe migration policies look like in practice It is an innovate contribution to contemporary theorizing of contemporary forms of migration governance and will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists political scientists and human geographers working within the fields of Migration studies Development Studies as well as Southeast Asian and Global Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003185734> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
