Souvenirs Biographies Autobiographies:

Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi. This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self-consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned. In the first book-length study in English to address this phenomenon, Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground-breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post-war authors: Nathalie Sarraute, Georges Perec, Jean Genet, and Hélène Cixous. She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge. Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self. Biography / Autobiography Awards 1917-1992 Heinz-D. Fischer, 2011-04-20 The School of Journalism at Columbia University has awarded the Pulitzer Prize since 1917. Nowadays there are prizes in 21 categories from the fields of journalism, literature, and music. The Pulitzer Prize Archive presents the history of this award from its beginnings to the present. In parts A to E, the awarding of the prize in each category is documented, commented on, and arranged chronologically. Part F covers the history of the prize biographically and bibliographically. Part G provides the background to the decisions. The New Biography Jo Burr Margadant, 2000-09-04 This collection offers new perspectives on the lives of eight famous women in nineteenth-century France. Their stories are used as a starting point through which the contributing authors experiment with what is called the new biography. Childhood, Autobiography and the Francophone Caribbean Louise Hardwick, 2013-04-04 This book explores a major modern turn in Francophone Caribbean literature towards ré-cits d'enfance narratives of childhood and asks why this occurred post-1990. He originally planned to have his memoirs published only after his death but realized once he'd passed his 70th year that a lot of the material might be OK to publish before his departure. These chapters were published in serial form in the North American Review during 1906-1907. While much of the material consists of stories about the people, places, and incidents of his long life, there are also several sections from his daughter. In My Mark Twain, Howells pens a literary memoir that includes such fascinating scenes as their meetings.
