

Spanish Civil War

In July 1936, Francisco Franco led the first revolt that sparked the start of the Spanish Civil war. After the election of February 16, 1936 and the election of Republican Manuel Azana, things began to heat up between the Republican and Nationalist side of Spain. This was mainly because of the controversial new reforms Manual wanted to bring to Spain. Some of these reforms were making free speech and divorce legal, limiting the influence the Church had in the government, shutting down religiously run schools and giving women more rights.

The Fascists of Spain were made up of Nationalists, while the Socialists and Communists supported the Republican government. Over the course of three years, the streets of Spain were ravaged by war, and many countries choose to stay neutral and not intervene because of high tensions in Europe over the rising power of Adolf Hitler. The countries that chose to become involved were Fascist Italy and Nazi Germany on the Nationalist side, and the USSR and Mexico aided the Republicans. While many world leaders chose to turn a blind eye, people from around the world were inspired to travel to Spain and volunteer themselves TO fight, hoping to make an impact on the war in support of the Republicans. A multitude of these volunteers were believed to be Canadians, as there were up to 1700 volunteers, but many went unrecorded

After 1937, these Canadians had to be smuggled into Spain because of the the Foreign Enlistment Act, passed by the Canadian government in 1937 to prevent Canadians from joining the Spanish war. In the early stages of the war, Canadians joined an American Battalion of the International Brigades, called the Abraham Lincoln Battalion. This was before the Canadians established the International Brigades Mackenzie-Papineau Battalion. It was named after two Canadian leaders of the Rebellions of 1837, William Lyon Mackenzie and Louis-Joseph Papineau.

An important individual in the war was Canadian physician Norman Bethune. He was along the front lines as a Surgeon and played a huge part in raising funds and support for the Republicans in Spain. September 23, 1938 was the last day in Spain for a majority of the Canadians as Juan Negrin, who was Prime Minister at the time, withdrew all international volunteers in an attempt to persuade Nationalists to withdraw Italian and German troops. This attempt failed and shortly after, Madrid, one of the last Republican cities and the most important due to it
