To Be A Hero Literature And Thought:

On the Literature and Thought of the German Classical Era Hugh Barr Nisbet, 2021-05-20 This volume provides a valuable contribution to our knowledge of eighteenth and nineteenth century intellectual life inside and outside Germany Prof Karl S Guthke Harvard University This elegant collection of essays ranges across eighteenth and nineteenth century thought covering philosophy science literature and religion in the Age of Goethe A recognised authority in the field Nisbet grapples with the major voices of the Enlightenment and gives pride of place to the figures of Lessing Herder Goethe and Schiller These eleven essays range widely in their compass of thought and intellectual discourse dealing incisively with themes including the philosophical implications of literature and the relationship between religion science and politics The result is an accomplished reflection on German thought but also on its rebirth as Nisbet argues for the relevance of these Enlightenment thinkers for the readers of today The first half of this collection focuses predominantly on eighteenth century thought where names like Lessing Goethe and Herder but also Locke and Voltaire feature The second has a wider chronological scope discussing authors such as Winckelmann and Schiller while branching out from discussions of religion philosophy and literature to explore the sciences Issues of biology early environmentalism and natural history also form part of this volume The collection concludes with an examination of changing attitudes towards art in the aftermath of the Age of Goethe The essays in this volume have been previously published separately but are brought together in this collection to present Nisbet's widely acclaimed perspectives on this fascinating period of German thought It will be of interest to scholars and students of the intellectual life of Europe during the Enlightenment while its engaging and lucid style will also appeal to the general reader

Evil: A History in Modern French Literature and Thought Damian Catani, 2013-02-14 In this original interdisciplinary approach to evil in French literature Damian Catani links literary depictions of evil with cultural events to chart a history of the concept in some of the most important texts in modern literature Beginning with Balzac and Baudelaire Catani covers the restoration and the Second Empire before interpreting how Catholic stereotypes of the evil feminine and new scientific theories impacted the work of Lautréamont and Zola Moving into the twentieth century evil is then explored in terms of the Self power knowledge and politics through readings of Proust Celine Sartre and Foucault By seamlessly bringing together aesthetic philosophical historical and ideological concerns to read key French writers from the 18th to the 21st century this study argues why a broader treatment of literary evils is vital to understanding our contemporary moral and political climate

The German Mind as Reflected in Their Literature

from 1870 to 1914 Fanny Johnson,1922 Thinking and Learning through Children's Literature Miriam G. Martinez,Junko Yokota,Charles Temple,2017-04-18 Much of teachers attention these days is focused on having students read closely to ferret out the author s intended meaning and the devices used to convey that meaning But we cannot forget to guide students to have moving engagements with literature because they need to make strong personal connections to books of merit if they are to become the next generation of readers literate people with awareness of and concern for the diversity of human beings around them and in different times and places Fortunately guiding both students personal engagement with literature and their close reading to appreciate the author s message and craft are not incompatible goals This book enthusiastically and intelligently addresses both imperatives first surveying what is gained when students are immersed in literature then celebrating and explicating the main features of literature students need to understand to broaden their tastes and deepen their engagement at the same time they meet external standards then presenting a host of active methods for exploring all major genres of children s books and finally presenting suggestions for interdisciplinary teaching units grounded in literature Created by noted leaders in the fields of children s literature and literacy the book is enlivened by recurring features such as suggested reading lists issues for discussion links to technology and annotations of exemplary books The Mind-body Problem in German Literature 1770-1830 Catherine J. Minter,2002 With reference to the treatment of mind body problems in the novels and non fictional writings of Johann Karl Wezel Karl Philipp Moritz and Jean Paul this impressive study follows the development of and demonstrates the continuity in the history of ideas in Germany between the Late Enlightenment and Romanticism The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1856 The Intelligent Unconscious in Modernist Literature and Science Thalia Trigoni,2020-11-16 This book reassesses the philosophical psychological and above all the literary representations of the unconscious in the early twentieth century This period is distinctive in the history of responses to the unconscious because it gave rise to a line of thought according to which the unconscious is an intelligent agent able to perform judgements and formulate its own thoughts The roots of this theory stretch back to nineteenth century British physiologists Despite the production of a number of studies on modernist theories of the relation of the unconscious to conscious cognition the degree to which the notion of the intelligent unconscious influenced modernist thinkers and writers remains understudied This study seeks to look back at modernism from beyond the Freudian model It is striking that although we tend not to explore the importance of this way of thinking about the unconscious and its relationship to consciousness during this period modernist writers adopted it widely The intelligent unconscious was particularly appealing to literary authors as it is intertwined with creativity and artistic novelty through its ability to move beyond discursive logic The book concentrates primarily on the works of D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and T S Eliot authors who engaged the notion of the intelligent unconscious reworked it and offered it for the consumption of the general populace in varied ways and for different purposes whether aesthetic philosophical societal or ideological Shortlisted

Literature and Event Mantra Mukim, Derek Attridge, 2021-11-29 If event is a proper name we reserve for monumental changes crises transitions and ruptures that are by their very nature unnameable or unthinkable then this volume is an attempt to set up an encounter between such eventhood as it comes to have a bearing on literary works and the work of reading literature As the event continues to provide a valuable analytical paradigm for work undertaken within the newer subdisciplines of literary and critical theory including close reading bio politics world literature and eco criticism this volume makes a concerted effort to update the scholarship in this area and foreground the recent resurgence of interest in the concept The book provides both a retrospective appraisal of the significance of events to literary studies and the literary humanities as well as contemporary and prospective appraisals of the same and thus would appeal scholars and instructors in the areas of literary theory comparative literature and philosophical aesthetics alike Along with a specialist focus on thinkers such as Derrida Badiou Deleuze and Malabou the essays in this volume read a wide corpus of literature ranging from Han Kang Homer Renee Gladman Proust and Flaubert to Yoruba ideophones Browning Anne Carson Jenichiro Oyabe and Ben Lerner
