literary canon The Doubts and Loves of Yehuda Amichai Ido Bassok, 2024-11-15 The Doubts and Loves of Yehuda Amichai Israeli European and International Poet presents the life and works of Yehuda Amichai born Ludwig Pfeuffer in Würzburg Germany. The book is based on copious material from Amichai's personal archive in the Beinecke Library at Yale University, other archives and numerous interviews with family members and others who knew him well. Each phase of the biography is linked to its overarching historical context and provides a literary analysis of the key features of his writing. What emerges is a multifaceted picture of a crucial period in the 20th century in which Amichai was both a witness and an actor without ever taking a simplistic direct position in his poetry. Amichai, an engaged political poet, was an enlightened humanitarian European while remaining an authentic Israeli who loved his country and was deeply involved finding solutions to its problems. Amichai was also a great admirer of women. The analysis of his tempestuous love life helps shed light on important aspects of his prose and poetry. Several chapters are also devoted to the background and influence of Amichai's works in genres other than poetry, including his two novels and a collection of short stories, his radio plays and his children's poetry. Assam Police

Great War Modernists Lee M. Jenkins, 2024-07-11 Taking 44 Mecklenburgh Square as the focal point and springboard for a critical group study of D. H. Lawrence, H. D. and Richard Aldington, this book offers a fresh perspective on the relationship of modernist biofiction and poetry to the literature of the First World War. A group that Perdita Schaffner described as another Bloomsbury set, the Mecklenburgh Square writers like the Bloomsbury Group proper lived in squares and loved in triangles in Dorothy Parker's famous formulation. Geographically adjacent, these sets intersected socially and at points in their aesthetics both practiced innovative forms of what may broadly be defined as life writing. But demarcating the Mecklenburgh Square writers from the Bloomsbury Set, the former had its origins in the transatlantic avant-garde. Lawrence, H. D., Aldington and John Cournos were all associated with Imagism, the poetic movement which instantiated Anglo-American modernism. Considered as a pro tem collective, these four poets, all of whom were also novelists and translators, contest the binaries that still obtain between modernist and First World War writing. This group study of Lawrence, H. D., Aldington and Cournos tracks the transition of Imagism from a pre-war mode to a war poetics which includes but is not confined to the trench lyric and it traces in the transtextual relations between the Mecklenburgh Square novels the traumatic imprint of the war on modernist life writing. Literary Digest International Book Review Clifford Smyth, 1926 London and Westminster Review, 1876
