Screen Translation

Yves Gambier,2016-04-08 There are three fundamental issues in the field of screen translation namely the relationship between verbal output and pictures and soundtrack between a foreign language culture and the target language culture and finally between the spoken code and the written one All three issues are raised and discussed by contributors to this special issue of The Translator The topics covered include the following the use of multimodal transcription for the analysis of audiovisual data the depiction and reception of cultural otherness in Disney animated films produced in the 1990 s the way in which subtitles in Flanders strengthen the already streamlined narratives of mainstream film stories and how they enhance the characteristics of the films and their underlying ideology developing a research methodology for testing the effectiveness of intralingual subtitling for the deaf and hard of hearing the pragmatic semiotic and communicative dimensions of puns and plays on words in The Simpsons the reception of translated humour in the Marx Brothers film Duck Soup and non professional interpreting in live interviews on breakfast television in Finland The volume also includes a detailed profile of two postgraduate courses that have been successfully piloted and run at the Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona the Postgrado de Traducci n Audiovisual and the Postgrado de Traducci n Audiovisual On line
