

The book cover features a woman with long, dark, flowing hair, her eyes closed and head tilted back in a serene expression. She is wearing a dark, strapless dress with a delicate lace collar. The background is a deep blue, starry night sky with silhouettes of castle towers and spires. A warm, golden light emanates from behind her, creating a halo effect. The title 'SONGBIRD' is written in a large, elegant, golden script font, with a glowing, swirling line looping around the letters. Below the title, the author's name 'COLLEEN HELME' is printed in a smaller, white, serif font, preceded by the text 'USA TODAY BESTSELLING AUTHOR'.

This is the first collection of essays in which European and American philosophers explicitly think out their respective contributions and identities as environmental thinkers in the analytic and continental traditions The American European as well as Analytic Continental collaboration here bears fruit helpful for further theorizing and research The essays group around three well defined areas of questioning all focusing on the amelioration management of environmentally historically and traditionally diminished landscapes The first part deals with differences between New World and the Old World perspectives on nature and landscape restoration in general the second focuses on the meaning of ecological restoration of cultural landscapes and the third on the meaning of the wolf and of wildness It does so in a way that the strengths of each philosophical school continental and analytic comes to the fore in order to supplement the other's approach This text is open to educated readers across all disciplines particularly those interested in restoration adaptation ecology the cultural construction of place and landscape the ongoing conversation about wilderness the challenges posed to global environmental change The text may also be a gold mine for doctoral students looking for dissertation projects in environmental philosophy that are inclusive of continental and analytic traditions This text is rich in innovative approaches to the questions they raise that are reasonably well thought out The fact that the essays in each section really do resonate with one another directly is also intellectually exciting and very helpful in working out the full dimensions of each question raised in the volume

Where Song Began Tim Low, 2016-09-27 An authoritative and entertaining exploration of Australia's distinctive birds and their unheralded role in global evolution Renowned for its gallery of unusual mammals Australia is also a land of extraordinary birds But unlike the mammals the birds of Australia flew beyond the continent's boundaries and around the globe many millions of years ago This eye opening book tells the dynamic but little known story of how Australia provided the world with songbirds and parrots among other bird groups why Australian birds wield surprising ecological power how Australia became a major evolutionary center and why scientific biases have hindered recognition of these discoveries From violent swooping magpies to tool making cockatoos Australia's birds are strikingly different from birds of other lands often more intelligent and aggressive often larger and longer lived Tim Low a renowned biologist with a rare storytelling gift here presents the amazing evolutionary history of Australia's birds The story of the birds

Richard Wagner's Die Meistersinger von Nurnberg has been one of the most performed operas ever since its premiere in 1868 It was adopted as Germany's national opera Nationaloper not least because of its historical coincidence with the unification of Germany under Bismarck in 1871 The first section of this volume Performing Meistersinger contains three commissioned articles from internationally respected artists a conductor Peter Schneider a stage director Harry Kupfer and a singer Dietrich Fischer Dieskau all experienced in the performance of this unusually demanding 5 hour work The second section Meistersinger and History examines both the representation of German history in the opera and the way the opera has functioned in history through political appropriation and staging practice The third section Representations is the most eclectic exploring in the first place the problematic question of genre from the perspective of a theatrical historian The chronic issue of Wagner's chief opponent Eduard Hanslick and his musical and dramatic representation in the opera as Beckmesser is then addressed as are gender issues and Wagner's own utterances concerning the opera Contributors Nicholas Vazsonyi Peter Schneider Harry Kupfer Dietrich Fischer Dieskau Hans Rudolf Vaget Lutz Koepnick David B Dennis Klaus Van Den Berg Thomas S Grey Lydia Goehr Eva Rieger Peter H yng Nicholas Vazsonyi is Associate Professor of German and Comparative Literature University of South Carolina The Natural History of Pompeii Wilhelmina Mary Feemster Jashemski,Wilhelmina Feemster Jashemski,Frederick G.
