

Sonnet 138

When my love swears that she is made of truth	A
I do believe her, though I know she lies,	B
That she might think me some untutor'd youth,	A
Unlearned in the world's false subtleties.	B
Thus vainly thinking that she thinks me young,	C
Although she knows my days are past the best,	D
Simply I credit her false speaking tongue:	C
On both sides thus is simple truth suppress'd.	D
But wherefore says she not she is unjust?	E
And wherefore say not I that I am old?	F
O, love's best habit is in seeming trust,	E
And age in love loves not to have years told:	F
Therefore I lie with her and she with me,	G
And in our faults by lies we flatter'd be.	G

Sonnet 14 Lines 10 Syllables On Sports:

Shakespeare Reloaded Robin Garden, 2014-09-24 Shakespeare Reloaded encourages middle secondary students to imaginatively engage with Shakespeare's plays and poetry as they actively explore key ideas and themes and how these are expressed through language. This active approach to studying Shakespeare will complement and enhance the study of individual text.

The Sonnets and a Lover's Complaint William Shakespeare, 2004-08-26 When this volume of Shakespeare's poems first appeared in 1609 he had already written most of the great plays that made him famous. The 154 sonnets all but two of which are addressed to a beautiful young man or a treacherous dark lady contain some of the most exquisite and haunting poetry ever written and deal with eternal subjects such as love and infidelity, memory and mortality and the destruction wreaked by Time. Also included is A Lover's Complaint originally published with the sonnets in which a young woman is overheard lamenting her betrayal by a heartless seducer.
