Dear Reference Chair:

I am writing to tell you about a wonderful young woman who will be attending your college this fall as a (classification such as freshman, sophomore, or junior) and going through sorority recruitment. Her name is (Jane Doe), but we all call her (Janie). She would make an outstanding member in your chapter. Both her mother and sister are members of (sorority name).

Janie is a charming, enthusiastic, intelligent, happy, well-adjusted and witty young woman. She is very organized and well-liked by her peers. She was selected as an outstanding young woman from Polk High School. She has been a member of the tennis team for four years and plays the piano. Janie is also the editor of her high school yearbook. Other activities include participation in student government and co-chairing the dance marathon this year.

Janie volunteers in her church nursery and at the Salvation Army shelter. In the summer, she teaches tennis at a local camp. She is a member of the National Honor Society, the Quill and Scroll Society, and a National Merit Finalist. As you can guess, her scholastic achievements are outstanding with a 3.8 GPA. Her class ranking is tenth out of 300 students in her graduating class.

I have known Janie personally for most of her life, as she is a good friend of my daughter. I consider her part of my family. Janie's parents, John and Jane Doe, are both active in the community and could support the financial obligations of being a member of a Greek organization. I cannot say enough positive things about her. Please give Janie strong consideration, as I know other sororities will be looking at her as well. She would be a wonderful asset to (sorority name).

Sincerely,
Your Name

Recovering Five Generations Hence Karen Kossie-Chernyshev, 2013-04-19 Born in the 1880s in Jefferson Texas Lillian B Jones Horace grew up in Fort Worth and dreamed of being a college educated teacher a goal she achieved But life was hard for her and other blacks living and working in the Jim Crow South Her struggles convinced her that education particularly that involving the printed word was the key to black liberation In 1916 before Marcus Garvey gained fame for advocating black economic empowerment and a repatriation movement Horace wrote a back to Africa novel Five Generations Hence the earliest published novel on record by a black woman from Texas and the earliest known utopian novel by any African American woman She also wrote a biography of Lacey Kirk Williams a renowned president of the National Baptist Convention another novel Angie Brown that was never published and a host of plays that her students at I M Terrell High School performed Five Generations Hence languished after its initial publication Along with Horace s diary the unpublished novel and the Williams biography the book was consigned to a collection owned by the Tarrant County Black Historical and Genealogical Society and housed at the Fort Worth Public Library There scholar and author Karen Kossie Chernyshev rediscovered Horace s work in the course of her efforts to track down and document a literary tradition that has been largely ignored by both the scholarly community and general readers In this book the full text of Horace s Five Generations Hence annotated and contextualized by Kossie Chernyshev is once again presented for examination by scholars and interested readers In 2009 Kossie Chernyshev invited nine scholars to a conference at Texas Southern University to give Horace s works a comprehensive interdisciplinary examination Subsequent work on those papers resulted in the studies that form the second half of this book
