The Making of an Indian Ocean World-Economy, 1250-1650 Ravi Palat, 2015-10-14 To counter Eurocentric notions of long term historical change Wet Rice Cultivation and the Emergence of the Indian Ocean draws upon the histories of societies based on wet rice cultivation to chart an alternate pattern of social evolution and state formation and traces inter state linkages and the growth of commercialization without capitalism

Pelagic Passageways Rila Mukherjee, 2011 Due to the frontierization of nation states maritime historians have tended to ignore the northern Bay of Bengal Yet this marginal region now dispersed over the four nation states of India China Myanmar and Bangladesh was not marginal in the past Until recently however historians have concentrated largely on the big four the Gujarat Malabar Coromandel and western Bengal coasts Extreme eastern South Asia Bengal and the lands to its north east fanning into Burma and China or modern India s north east and beyond is the focus of Pelagic Passageways This regional unit including diverse topographic features plains forests estuaries deltas rivers mountains lakes plateaus and remote passes oscillates between unity and fragmentation between centrality and marginality in the larger space of the Bay of Bengal To attempt a history of this space is indeed challenging There is not one but two deltas here the western delta corresponding to present West Bengal in India and centred now on Kolkata and the south eastern delta in present Bangladesh centred on Dhaka and running into Arakan Not merely in terms of location but on a historical axis too the two deltas are vastly different as they have followed disparate trajectories dictated in part by their geographies Pelagic Passageways therefore questions the conventional fault line located on the south eastern Bengal delta between the historiography of South and South East Asia Concentrating on commodity and currency flows travel trade routes and interactive networks Pelagic Passageways visualizes the cultural space of the northern Bay of Bengal as embracing upland landlocked areas Ava Yunnan the Tripuri Dimas and Ahom states not usually seen as part of maritime history This collection of essays suggests that they too were a part of the social and commercial networks of the Indian Ocean While these countries literally fell off the map this volume proposes that we see these areas instead as crossroads mediating flows between the land dwelling and aquatic worlds

The Raj and the Rajas Sanjay Garg, 2022-12-22 The decline of the Mughal Empire the political ascendancy of the British East India Company a number of revivalist powers the Sikhs the Marathas the Rohillas etc and a large number of Indian princely states resulted in redrawing the political spaces across India In the process the minting rights of the titular Mughal king and of the neo independent Indian princely rulers were severely curbed by the dominant colonial power both for political as well as economic reasons The territorial expansion of the British Empire in India was invariably followed by the abolition of the native mints and the introduction of the imperial currency in the annexed territories. Indeed the sikka followed the flag. By presenting the monetary history of this period this volume seeks to address some of the questions viz the effect of money supply on trade prices of commodities and services wage structures in different regions as well as on the administrative and military health of a political power. In this unique anthology published studies along with unpublished archival records have been integrated into an overall theme. Together with a comprehensive bibliography cum list for further readings this volume is aimed to serve as a veritable reference tool. Numismatist and Year Book, 1991 Vols 24-52 include the proceedings of the A N A convention 1911-39. Modern India John McLeod, 2019-11-15.
