BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL UP TO BAT!

Ty Linton, Charlotte Christian

Chelsea Ingersoll, Butler High School

As we begin to throw out from the recent cold and wet weather here in South Charlotte, area baseball and softball players are stepping up to the plate for the 2010 high school season. With two 2009 state championship baseball teams (Andrey Kell and Charlotte Christian) here in South Charlotte, local fans are guaranteed to see the best high school baseball action in the state, right here in our own backyard. Both teams have rebounded for the 2010 season and will make yet another run for state titles. There are a few teams that hope to get in the way of their quest.

On the softball side, Butler and Andrey Kell should be in the mix to produce two of the very best teams in the state. After coming up short in their quest to repeat as state champions, Butler will be a tough team to defeat. Andrey Kell, the now softball power, promises to stay near the top of the state rankings with pitcher Jen Rowse leading the way. Marvin Ridge will also have an excellent softball team as will Providence. The South Charlotte Sports Report has become a big fan of softball the last few seasons and we highly recommend making a visit to a game. The action will be fast paced and you will be amazed at the athletic ability these young ladies put on display every game.

The South Charlotte area is one of the top locations in not only North Carolina, but all of the Southeast for college recruiters to search for baseball and softball talent. With successful high school programs, experienced training facilities and dedicated parents, our area will continue to produce Division 1 talent. Everyone that plays a role in youth baseball and softball needs to be recognized for the product that high school baseball and softball has become.

The preseason practice is over, the pitcher has taken his warm-up pitches, the umpire is about to raise his voice, PLAY BALL!!!!

ADVANCED OPTIONS ADDED TO SUMMER CAMP SCHEDULE

With the growth of The South Charlotte Sports Report Youth Summer Camps over the last few years, we have recognized the need to add an advanced camp option for many of our camps. The Advanced camps will be offered this year for Baseball, Football and Volleyball. These "camps inside a camp" include a special format for rising 6th-9th graders.

"We have built a wonderful offering of camps with some of the very best coaches in Charlotte leading the way," said Tripp Rendon. "By offering an advanced academy type option for football, basketball and volleyball, we are able to provide a higher level of instruction for our older campers, in addition to delivering the same great experience for the younger campers. This allows us to divide the campers more by age and teach age appropriate skills in a smaller setting with even more professional adult instructors."

The older students will receive a more intense experience designed to provide them with the foundations for success on the middle and high school levels.

"We want the camps to always be fun, but the older campers tell us they want to be challenged more so they get the feel of high school action at an early age."

Coaches Mike Craft (Andrey Kell Basketball), Zoe Bell (Andrey Kell Volleyball), Karen Bradbury (Providence Volleyball) and James Martin (South Meck Football) will continue to lead the camps and will be joined by the very best instructors in the area.
