Absent Aviators Donna Bridges, Jane Neal-Smith, Albert Mills, 2016-03-16 The objective of this book is to present a number of related chapters on the subject of gender issues in the workplace of the aviation industry

More specifically the chapters address the continuing shortfall in the number of women pilots in both civilian and military aviation. Considerable research has been carried out on gender issues in the workplace and for example women represent about 10% of employees in engineering. This example is often used to show that the consequences of gender discrimination are embedded and difficult to overcome in masculine dominated occupations. However women represent only 5.6% of the profession of pilot. Clearly there are many factors which mitigate women seeking to become pilots. The chapters within this volume raise both theoretical and practical issues endeavouring to address the imbalance of women pilots in this occupation. Absent Aviators consolidates a diverse range of issues from a number of authors from Australia, Austria, the United States, Canada, South Africa and the United Kingdom. Each of the chapters is research based and aims to present a broad picture of gender issues in aviation, gendered workplaces and sociology underpinned by sound theoretical perspectives and methodologies. One chapter additionally raises issues on the historical exclusion of race from an airline. The book will prove to be a valuable contribution to the debates on women in masculine oriented occupations and a practical guide for the aviation industry to help overcome the looming shortfall of pilots. It is also hoped it will directly encourage young women to identify and overcome the barriers to becoming a civilian or military pilot.

Military Women in World Cinema Deborah A. Deacon, Stacy Fowler, 2023-08-10. From British soldier Flora Sandes to the famed World War II Night Witches of the Soviet Air Force, women across the globe have stepped up to defend their countries during every major and minor conflict of the twentieth century, and filmmakers have long attempted to capture their stories. This book analyzes these military women's portrayals in world cinema, examining movies from Israel, the United Kingdom, Italy, the United States, Japan, and others. It includes theatrical releases, direct-to-video productions, and made-for-television films. Chapters organize films by decade produced and topics covered include the women's sexuality, maternal and marital status, leadership skills, actual jobs performed, and the accuracy of depiction. The book also discusses how each film reflects the contemporary social issues of the nation in which it was produced.

Wragg,2016-09-23 The role of the bomber has proved to be one of the most controversial aspects of twentieth century warfare Bombers tells the story of the bomber with a blend of narrative and personal accounts recording the history of the principle bombing raids and the skill and courage of those who flew them David Wragg begins with a brief overview of the origins of the concept of aerial bombardment which astonishingly go back several thousand years He then describes the early raids of the First World War and the use of the bomber between the wars by the Germans in the Spanish Civil War the Italians in Abyssinia and by the Japanese in China The Second World War marked the massive deployment of the bomber by the main combatants as a major tactical and strategic weapon and bringing this in depth study up to date Wragg examines the United States controversial campaign of extensive bombing in Vietnam during the 1960s and 70s He also discusses whether with the growing use of cruise missiles the manned bomber may soon be the first element of air power to be made redundant in this age of high technology Fully illustrated with a wide selection of photographs Bombers will appeal to all with an interest in this key weapon of twentieth century warfare War of Intervention in Angola Adrien Fontanellaz,Tom Cooper,José Augusto

Matos,2021-06-23 War of Intervention in Angola Volume 4 continues the coverage of the operational history of the Angolan Air Force and Air Defense Force FAPA DAA as told by Angolan and Cuban sources in the period 1985-1988 Many accounts of this conflict better known in the West as the Border War or the Bush War as named by its South African participants consider the operations of the FAPA DAA barely worth commentary At most they mention a few air combats involving Mirage F 1 interceptors of the South African Air Force SAAF in 1987 and 1988 and perhaps a little about the activity of the FAPA DAA's MiG 23s However a closer study of Angolan and Cuban sources reveals an entirely different image of the air war over Angola in the 1980s indeed it reveals the extent to which the flow of the entire war was dictated by the availability or the lack of air power These issues strongly influenced the planning and conduct of operations by the commanders of the Angolan and Cuban forces Based on extensive research with the help of Angolan and Cuban sources War of Intervention in Angola Volume 4 traces the Angolan and Cuban application of air power between 1985-1988 during which it came of age and the capabilities intentions and the combat operations of the air forces The volume is illustrated with 100 rarely seen photographs half a dozen maps and 15 color profiles and provides a unique source of reference on this subject Defence Diplomacy and National Security Strategy Ian Liebenberg,Dirk Kruijt,Shrikant Paranjpe,2020-04-20 The post cold war era presented security challenges that at one level are a continuation of the cold war era at another level these phenomena manifested in new forms Whether the issues of economics and trade transfer of technologies challenges of intervention or humanitarian Minding the Gap Between Restorative Justice, Therapeutic Jurisprudence, and Global Indigenous Wisdom Saade, Marta Vides, Halder, Debarati, 2022-10-28 Foundational principles of the contemporary practices of both restorative justice and the concept of therapeutic jurisprudence often import organic and indigenous practices of conflict resolution to resolve insufficiencies and even to explain fundamental ideas. Too often the indiscriminate use of such practices does not mind the gap between the defining principles, the guiding principles, or the limiting principles that challenge particular features of practical applications. Minding the Gap Between Restorative Justice, Therapeutic Jurisprudence, and Global Indigenous Wisdom gives an authentic voice to practitioners and theorists whose work originates in organic or indigenous conflict resolution. It raises awareness of the diversity of approaches to dispute resolution from the deep perspective of their foundations and understands the challenges that arise in the practical application of restorative justice and therapeutic jurisprudence models when using principles disconnected from their foundation. It further offers ways to bridge the gap so that it is no longer an obstacle but a source of transformation. Covering topics such as justice praxes, indigenous conflict resolution, and global indigenous wisdom, this premier reference source is a dynamic resource for HR managers, lawyers, government officials, mediators, counselors, students, and faculty of higher education, librarians, researchers, and academicians.
