Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,1999 Bulletin Los Angeles city teachers club,1928 Petre Tutea Alexandru Popescu,2018-01-16 Petre Tutea 1902 91 was one of the outstanding Christian dissident intellectuals of the Communist era in Eastern Europe Revered as a saint by some he spent thirteen years as a prisoner of conscience and twenty eight years under house arrest at the hands of the Securitate This book explores his unique response to the horrors of torture and re education and reveals the experience of a whole generation detained in the political prisons Tutea s understanding of human needs and how they can be fulfilled even amidst extreme adversity not only reflects huge learning and great brilliance of mind but also offers a spiritual vision grounded in personal experience of the Romanian Gulag Following the fall of the Ceausescus he has begun to emerge as a significant contributor to ecumenical Christian discourse and to understanding of wider issues of truth and reconciliation in the contemporary world As Tutea s pupil and scribe for twelve years as a psychiatrist and as a theologian Alexandru Popescu is uniquely placed to present the work of this twentieth century Confessor of the faith Drawing on bibliographical sources which include unpublished or censored manuscripts and personal conversations with Tutea and with other prisoners of conscience in Romania Popescu presents extensive translations of Tutea which make his thought accessible to the English speaking reader for the first time Through his stature as a human being and his authority as a thinker Petre Tutea challenges us to question many of our assumptions The choice he presents between sacrifice and moral suicide focuses us on the very essence of religion and human personhood Resisting any ultimate separation of theology and spirituality his work affirms hope and love as the sole ground upon which truth can be based At the same time hope and love are not mere ideal emotions but are known and lived in engagement with the real world in politics economics science ecol

Deconstruction and the Ethical in Asian Thought Youru Wang, 2007-03-06 The striking parallels between Derrida's deconstruction and certain strategies eschewing oppositional hierarchies in Asian thought especially in Buddhism and Daoism have attracted much attention from scholars of both Western and Asian philosophy This book contributes to this discussion by focusing on the ethical dimension and function of deconstruction in Asian thought Examining different traditions and schools of Asian thought including Indian Buddhism Zen other schools of East Asian Buddhism the Kyoto School and Daoism the contributors explore the central theme from different contexts and different angles Insights and notions from the contemporary discussion of Derridean deconstruction and its ethic or Derridean Levinasian ethic as a paradigm for comparison or interpretation are used as a framework Furthering our understanding of the relationship between deconstruction and the ethical in Asian traditions this book also enriches the contemporary ethical discourse from a global perspective by bridging Asia and the West

Main Currents in Modern Thought, 1971 Is It Nation Time? Eddie S. Glaude, 2002-04-15 During the late 1960s and early 1970s the Black Power movement provided the dominant ideological framework through which many young poor and middle class blacks made sense of their lives and articulated a political vision for their futures The legacy of the movement is still very much with us today in the various strands of black nationalism that originated from it we witnessed its power in the 1995 Million Man March and we see its more ambiguous effects in the persistent antagonisms among former participants in the civil rights coalition Yet despite the importance of the Black Power movement very few in depth balanced treatments of it exist Is It Nation Time gathers new and classic essays on the Black Power movement and its legacy by renowned thinkers who deal rigorously and unsentimentally with such issues as the commodification of blackness the piety of cultural recovery and class tensions within the movement For anyone who wants to understand the roots of the complex political and cultural desires of contemporary black America this will be an essential collection Contributors Eddie S. Hayter, Amy L. Howard, 2024-12-02 Richmond Virginia took center stage globally in the summer of 2020 as an epicenter of antiracist protests in the wake of the police murder of George Floyd In a period of just a few weeks overwhelming public support grew for removing Richmond's Confederate monuments Activists then transformed the remaining statue of Robert E Lee into a shrine to African American resolve to the Black Lives Matter movement and to Black victims of police brutality Coming to terms with Richmond's tortured racial history however is much more difficult than toppling symbols of white supremacy This book explores these dynamics via a multidisciplinary framework of historical research public policy analysis and political analysis showing the inner dynamics of politics and governance in Richmond The authors reveal why change and progress has often been so difficult to achieve and why that matters with a focus on three fundamental policy areas education economic development and housing The result is a comprehensive assessment of urban governance in a major southern city in the early twenty first century as well as an accounting of the policy and human consequences of both its limited successes and its recurring failures
