Western Hemisphere Dept.,2015-01-05 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY This is the final review under the Extended Credit Facility ECF arrangement The program contributed to maintaining macroeconomic stability and there was progress on structural reforms The authorities intend to request a successor arrangement under the ECF A new finance minister was appointed in April uncertainly remains on the timing of elections Preliminary data suggest that GDP in FY2014 grew by 3 5 4 percent while inflation increased slightly to about 5 percent An increase in fuel prices in October should result in fiscal savings of at least 1 percent of GDP during FY2015 The March performance criterion on net international reserves NIR was met but although the deficit was lower than projected the performance criterion on net central bank credit to the central government was missed Downside risks are significant and include a pull back of Venezuela related flows a resumption of political tensions and vulnerability to weather events A total of SDR 1 638 million will become available upon completion of this review bringing total disbursements under the ECF to SDR 40 950 million Key Policy Recommendations The policy mix in particular the adjustment going forward should come from a lower fiscal deficit rather than from a tighter monetary policy The FY2015 fiscal deficit should be reduced to mitigate financing risks as part of a medium term plan to restore fiscal sustainability The central bank should let the exchange rate adjust more to market pressures Intervention should be parsimonious geared at avoiding excess volatility and disorderly movements in the exchange rate it should be guided by fundamentals in the medium term Progress on structural reforms including on the energy sector and on public financial management should catalyze more donor support and is essential for supporting growth A possible new ECF arrangement would entrench macroeconomic stability and promote policies to generate sustained GDP growth      Just Immigration Amstutz, Mark R.,2017 Few issues are as complex and controversial as immigration in the United States The only thing anyone seems to agree on is that the system is broken Mark Amstutz offers a succinct overview and assessment of current immigration policy and argues for an approach to the complex immigration debate that is solidly grounded in Christian political thought After analyzing key laws and institutions in the US immigration system Amstutz examines how Catholics evangelicals and main line Protestants have used Scripture to address social and political issues including immigration He critiques the ways in which many Christians have approached immigration reform and offers concrete suggestions on how Christian groups can offer a more credible political engagement with this urgent

aspects of commercial and insolvency law to give readers a detailed understanding of the legal and regulatory issues relating to corporate finance Informed by insights from theoretical and empirical work the book examines from a legal perspective the key elements of corporate financing structures and capital markets in the UK The authors practical experience of transactions and regulatory issues ensures that thorough scholarly inquiry and critical reflection are complemented by an assured understanding of the interface between legal principles and rules as they are documented and in their actual operation Key developments covered in this third edition include the post Brexit adaptation of UK company law and capital market regulation important new cases on parent company liability in tort creditor facing duties of directors issuer and director liability for misleading statements to the market alternatives to public market financing and recent changes in the practice of debt finance such as the emergence of non bank lenders

Uganda International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept.,2017-09-15 This Technical Assistance Report proposes draft regulations to address issues in the provisions of the Public Finance Management Bill 2012 The draft regulations propose a virement regime which serves to protect the composition of the budget in particular prevention of virement between development and recurrent spending which will be particularly important in light of the new fiscal environment It is also proposed to further strengthen the expenditure controls through a requirement to regularize excess expenditures through the contingencies fund and requiring reporting of outstanding payments

The Divine Bureaucracy and Disenchantment of Social Life Maznah Mohamad,2020-03-02 This book traces the expansion of Islamisation within a modern and plural state such as Malaysia It elaborates on how elements of theology sacred space resources and their interactivity with secular instruments such as legislative electoral and new social technological platforms are all instrumentally employed to consolidate a divine bureaucracy The book makes the point that religious social movements and political parties are only few of the important agents of Islamisation in society The other is the modern and secular state structure itself Weber s legal rational bureaucracy or Hegel s ethical bureaucracy predominantly characterises a modern feature of governmentality In this instance an Islamic bureaucracy is advantageously situated not only within an ambit of modernity and therefore legality but divinity and therefore sacrality as well This positioning gives religious state agents more salience than any other form of bureaucracy leading to their unquestioned authority in the current contexts of societies with Muslim majority rule One of the requisites of this condition is the homogenisation of Islam followed by ring fencing of its constituents The latter can involve contestations with women other genders secular Muslims non Muslims as well as dissenting Muslims with their differing truthful Islams
