The Modern World A History 4th Edition Pearson 2009:

World History Caitlin Corning, 2015-11-01 World History A Short Visual Introduction is the ideal path to understanding the historical events that influence Christian history Caitlin Corning's introduction covers the most important people places and events with precision and clarity The major scenes are creatively illustrated by artist Joseph Novak whose crisp modern style brings history to life The result is an articulate no nonsense approach that guides readers through the events of world history from prehistory to the present day that have shaped Christianity in the past and affect it today World History is part of the Christianity and the Liberal Arts series which recognizes that many Christians are eager to deepen their understanding of the liberal arts yet have limited time to do so By reviewing key fields philosophy history literature world religions and the arts in a concise creative way Christianity and the Liberal Arts books will inspire new insights for a new generation of Christian life and ministry The Shaping of Western Civilization Michael Burger, 2013-01-01 Michael Burger's goal in this inexpensive overview is to provide a brief historical narrative of Western civilization Not only does its length and price separate this text from the competition but its no frills uncluttered format and well written one authored approach make it a valuable asset for every history student The Shaping of Western Civilization begins with the ancient Near East and ends with globalization Unlike other textbooks that pile on dates and facts Shaping is a more coherent and interpretive presentation Burger's skills as writer and synthesizer will enable students to obtain the background required to ask meaningful questions of primary sources In addition to suggestions for further reading this overview includes over 50 images and 22 maps

Rebuilding Earth Teresa Coady, 2020-04-21 A revolutionary guide to designing humane eco conscious homes buildings and cities of the future It is estimated that the earth's population will expand to an unprecedented nine billion people over the next century This explosion in population is predicted to place further stress on our environment deplete our natural resources and lead to increases in anxiety and depression due to overcrowding In this visionary and uplifting book Teresa Coady offers readers new hope Rebuilding Earth is her blueprint for designing and building the cities buildings and homes of tomorrow resulting in more conscious sustainable and humane living Coady shows us how we can shift from an outdated Industrial Age framework to a more humane Digital Age framework This revolutionary approach will enable communities to harness various forms of green energy and reduce the amount of material needed to build infrastructure while contributing to a healthier planet and society We can then experience a new sense of purpose health and happiness Meaningful and lasting change the author tells us can only come through designing interconnected communities that are vibrant resilient and communal Unlike most predictions of doom and gloom Coady presents a refreshingly optimistic view of humanity and its future This book will appeal to those in the construction design and development finance industries as well as anyone interested in improving their lives through understanding the connections between the environment and health China's Path of Industrialization Bei Jin, 2020-01-23 This book reviews China's industrialization from the perspective of inclusiveness and discusses the challenges arising from its industrialization process and how the Chinese people view and seek to overcome these challenges By examining China's industrialization in the context of the global economy it reveals how China should be further integrated into and contribute to the great endeavor of worldwide industrialization and human development in the new era of economic globalization allowing it to become a responsible stakeholder through its national rejuvenation for the benefit of the entire world

Introduction to International Relations Joyce P. Kaufman, 2013-04-04 How do we understand international relations in a globalized world This clear and concise text takes as its starting point the theoretical frameworks that are the foundation of current IR Joyce P Kaufman explains and contextualizes the traditional theories highlighting both their strengths and weaknesses Her levels of analysis approach provides students with the basic tools for a more inclusive understanding of international politics by not forcing them to choose between competing theories Instead in a refreshing alternative to most of the current introductory level texts the book allows readers to view the globe as a complex place of multiple actors facing multiple issues It concludes with cases of current events that will help students apply theories to real world issues

Reading, Writing, and the Rhetorics of Whiteness Wendy Ryden, Ian Marshall, 2013-03 In this volume Ryden and Marshall bring together the field of composition and rhetoric with critical whiteness studies to show that in our post race era whiteness and racism not only survive but actually thrive in higher education As they examine the effects of racism on contemporary literacy practices and the rhetoric by which white privilege maintains and reproduces itself Ryden and Marshall consider topics ranging from the emotional investment in whiteness to the role of personal narrative in reconstituting racist identities to critiques of the foundational premises of writing programs steeped in repudiation of despised discourses Marshall and Ryden alternate chapters to sustain a multi layered dialogue that traces the rhetorical complexities and contradictions of teaching English and writing in a university setting Their lived experiences as faculty and administrators serve to underscore the complex code of whiteness even as they push to decode it and demonstrate how their own pedagogical practices are raced and racialized in multiple ways Collectively the essays ask instructors and administrators to consider more carefully the pernicious nature of whiteness in their professional activities and how it informs our practices

The Mecca Uprising Nasir al-Huzaimi, 2020-12-10 On 20th November 1979 the Salafi Group led by a charismatic figure named Juhaiman al Utaibi seized control of the Sacred Mosque in Mecca the holiest site in the Muslim World The Salafi Group was not trying to establish an Islamic state Instead its members believed they were players in a prophetic script about the End of Time After a two week siege the Saudi government recaptured the mosque threw the survivors into prison and had them publicly executed The Mecca Uprising offers an insider's account of the religious subculture that incubated the Mecca Uprising written by a former member of the Salafi Group Nasir al Huzaimi Huzaimi did not participate in the uprising but he was arrested in a government sweep of Salafi Group members and spent six years in prison In 2011 he published his memoir Days with Juhaiman offering the most detailed picture we have of the

Salafi Group and Juhaïman The Mecca Uprising had profound effects on Saudi Arabia and the Muslim world DC1 YG2 The Saudi government headed off opposition from religious activists and made efforts to buttress the ruling family's legitimacy as the guardians of Islam Huzaimi's memoir sheds light on the background of this religious and political landscape and is the most detailed account we have of the Salafi Group and Juhaïman The English edition is complete with an introduction and annotations prepared by expert David Commins to help readers understand the relevance of the Meccan Uprising DC3 and how it fits into the history of the Islamic World DC1 lower case Muslim world YG2 changed to author's suggestion DC3 Mecca Uprising

Western Europe 2013 Wayne C. Thompson, 2013-08-28 Western Europe is an annually updated presentation of each sovereign country in Western Europe past and present Radical Betrayal Anders W. Edwardsson, 2023-12-05 In Radical Betrayal Anders W. Edwardsson delivers a provocative examination of how both liberal and neoconservative forces have undermined American exceptionalism the belief in America's unique character and role in world history Tracing the evolution of American national identity from its founding through the present day Edwardsson argues that the post World War II era has witnessed a gradual erosion of the principles that once defined the American experiment From Woodrow Wilson's progressive idealism to Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal from Lyndon Johnson's Great Society to George W. Bush's democratization agenda Edwardsson methodically chronicles how political leaders have dramatically expanded federal power and global interventionism in ways that contradict America's founding vision The author demonstrates how both parties have contributed to what he sees as America's decline liberals through welfare state expansion and neoconservatives through misguided foreign wars Most provocatively Edwardsson argues that Donald Trump's presidency represented a potential return to traditional American principles before being undermined by establishment forces He warns that continued abandonment of American exceptionalism threatens not only the nation's prosperity but its very survival as a unified republic Whether you agree with his analysis or not Edwardsson's sweeping historical narrative challenges readers to reconsider the forces shaping American politics and identity in an increasingly polarized age If you enjoyed The Case for Nationalism by Rich Lowry The Dying Citizen by Victor Davis Hanson or America in Retreat by Bret Stephens you'll love Radical Betrayal

The Material of World History Tina Mai Chen,David S. Churchill,2015-03-27 This volume considers the confluence of World History and historical materialism with the following guiding question in mind given developments in the field of historical materialism concerned with the intersection of race gender labour and class why is it that within the field of World History historical materialism has been marginalized precisely as World History orients toward transnational socio cultural phenomenon micro studies or global histories of networks Answering this question requires thinking in an inter related manner about both the development of World History as a discipline and the place of economic determinism in historical materialism This book takes the position that historical materialism as applied to the field of World History needs to be more open to the methodological diversity of the materialist tradition and to refuse narrowly deterministic frameworks that have led to marginalization of materialist cultural analysis in studies of global capitalism At the same time World History needs to be more self critical of the methodological diversity it has welcomed through a largely inclusionary framework that allows the material to be considered separately from cultural social and intellectual dimensions of global processes

A History of Russia, Central Asia and Mongolia, Volume II David Christian, 2018-01-08 Provides an all encompassing look at the history of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia Beginning with the breakup of the Mongol Empire in the mid thirteenth century Volume II of this comprehensive work covers the remarkable history of Inner Eurasia from 1260 up to modern times completing the story begun in Volume I Volume II describes how agriculture spread through Inner Eurasia providing the foundations for new agricultural states including the Russian Empire It focuses on the idea of mobilization the distinctive ways in which elite groups mobilized resources from their populations and how those methods were shaped by the region s distinctive ecology which differed greatly from that of Outer Eurasia the southern half of Eurasia and the part of Eurasia most studied by historians This work also examines how fossil fuels created a bonanza of energy that helped shape the history of the Communist world during much of the twentieth century Filled with figures maps and tables to help give readers a fuller understanding of what has transpired over 750 years in this distinctive world region A History of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia Volume II Inner Eurasia from the Mongol Empire to Today 1260 2000 is a magisterial but accessible account of this area s past that will offer readers new insights into the history of an often misunderstood part of the world Situates the histories of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia within the larger narrative of world history Concentrates on the idea of Inner Eurasia as a coherent ecological and geographical zone Focuses on the powerful ways in which the region s geography shaped its history Places great emphasis on how mobilization played a major part in the development of the regions Offers a distinctive interpretation of modernity that highlights the importance of fossil fuels Offers new ways of understanding the Soviet era A History of Russia Central Asia and Mongolia Volume II is an ideal book for general audiences and for use in undergraduate and graduate courses in world history The Blackwell History of the World Series The goal of this ambitious series is to provide an accessible source of knowledge about the entire human past for every curious person in every part of the world It will comprise some two dozen volumes of which some provide synoptic views of the history of particular regions while others consider the world as a whole during a particular period of time The volumes are narrative in form giving balanced attention to social and cultural history in the broadest sense as well as to institutional development and political change Each provides a systematic account of a very large subject but they are also both imaginative and interpretative The Series is intended to be accessible to the widest possible readership and the accessibility of its volumes is matched by the style of presentation and production

Fictions of Home Martin Mühlheim, 2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics
