The International Ombudsman Yearbook, Volume 3 (1999) International Ombudsman Institute, Linda C. Reif, 2021-10-18 The International Ombudsman Yearbook is the only publication devoted to ombudsman issues The public sector ombudsman is now found at all levels of government in many countries around the world both in established and consolidating democracies The ombudsman is an independent office traditionally appointed by the legislative branch to investigate poor administration of government More recently some ombudsman offices have been given human rights protection responsibilities The International Ombudsman Yearbook contains articles written from legal or public administration perspectives which address issues of interest to the contemporary ombudsman and to all persons with an interest in the institution Compiled and edited by the International Ombudsman Institute the organization composed of over 130 ombudsman members located worldwide the Yearbook will be of interest to lawyers scholars ombudsman office personnel and government entities wherever ombudsman offices are located or contemplated Protest, Policy, and the Problem of Violence against Women S. Laurel Weldon, 2013-12-09 Violence against women is one of the most insidious social ills facing the world today Yet governmental response is inconsistent ranging from dismissal to aggressive implementation of policies and programs to combat the problem In her comparative study of thirty six democratic governments Laurel Weldon examines the root causes and consequences of the differences in public policy from Northern Europe to Latin America She reveals that factors that often influence the development of social policies do not determine policies on violence against women Neither economic level religion region nor the number of women in government determine governmental responsiveness to this problem Weldon demonstrates for example that Nordic governments take no more action to combat violence against women than Latin American governments even though the Swedish welfare state is often considered a leader in social policy particularly with regard to women s issues Instead the presence of independently organized active women s movements plays a greater role in placing violence against women on the public agenda The breadth and scope of governmental response is greatly enhanced by the presence of an office dedicated to promoting women s status Weldon closes with practical lessons and insights to improve government action on violence against women and other important issues of social justice and democracy Biennial Scientific Report 1997-1998 Koninkrijk Nederlands Meteorologisch Instituut, 1999 Transportation Statistics Annual Report (1997) Marsha Fenn, 1998-12 Reports on the state of U S transportation system at two levels Provides a statistical and interpretive survey of the system its physical characteristics economic attributes aspects of its use and performance and the scale and severity of unintended consequences of transportation such as fatalities and injuries oil import dependency and environment impacts Explores in detail the performance of the system from the perspective Charts and tables References List of acronyms European Social Charter Council of Europe. Iceland and Ireland Council of Europe Convention on Action Against Trafficking in Human Beings Council of Europe, 2013-01-01 This Convention aims to prevent trafficking in human beings protect victims of trafficking and prosecute traffickers Its comprehensive scope of application encompasses all forms of trafficking whether national or transnational linked or not to organised crime and covers all victims of trafficking women men and children as well as all forms of exploitation With an emphasis on the human rights of victims of trafficking the Convention contains measures to ensure the proper identification of victims their assistance and protection as well as their compensation It also contains measures to ensure the effective investigation and prosecution of traffickers In addition it sets out measures to promote international co operation and partnerships with civil society Finally it provides for a mechanism to monitor compliance with the obligations it contains Proof, Evidentiary Assessment and Credibility in Asylum Procedures Gregor Noll, 2005-03-01 Today a majority of asylum cases are arguably decided on the basis of evidentiary assessment rather than issues of material law Although the EU wide Common European Asylum System purports to harmonise domestic practices at a minimum level it fails to offer remedies for this crucial issue which poses challenges for practitioners and academics alike Without a coherent approach to evidentiary assessment asylum law will remain fragmented and open to discretionary excess Up to now academic research has not addressed issues of proof and credibility in the asylum procedure to an extent reflecting its practical importance This edited volume attempts to fill the void Academic experts on the theory of evidence international criminal law human rights law refugee law sociology of law and psychology have contributed chapters exploring both empirical and normative dimensions of evidentiary assessment Drawing on the results of a 12 month research project within the framework of the Refugee Research Programme and of three interdisciplinary expert conferences held at the Danish Centre for Human Rights Copenhagen the Institute for International Integration Studies Dublin and the Faculty of Law Lund this volume sets new parameters for an informed debate on evidence in asylum cases A Europe of Rights Helen Keller, Alec Stone Sweet, 2008-07-31 The European Convention on Human Rights has evolved into a sophisticated legal system whose formal reach into the domestic law and politics of the Contracting States is limited only by the ever widening scope of the Convention itself as determined by a transnational court In this book a team of distinguished scholars trace and evaluate comparatively the impact of the ECHR and the European Court of Human Rights on law and politics in eighteen national systems Ireland UK France Germany Italy Spain Belgium Netherlands Norway Sweden Greece Turkey Russia Ukraine Poland Slovakia and Austria Switzerland Although the Court s jurisprudence has provoked significant structural procedural and policy innovation in every State examined its impact varies widely across States and legal domains The book charts this variation and seeks to explain it Across Europe national officials in governments legislatures and judiciaries have chosen to incorporate the ECHR into domestic law and they have developed a host of mechanisms designed to adapt the national legal system to the ECHR as it evolves But how and why State actors have done so varies in important ways and these differences heavily determine the relative status and effectiveness of Convention rights in national systems Although problems persist the book shows that national officials are gradually but inexorably being socialized into a Europe of rights a unique transnational legal space now developing its own logics of political and juridical legitimacy Global Environment Outlook 2000 United Nations Environment Programme,1999 This volume provides a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the conditions of the global environment highlighting key global concerns and making recommendations for policy action

Species Sensitivity Distributions in Ecotoxicology Leo Posthuma,Glenn W. Suter II,Theo P. Traas,2001-12-20 In spite of the growing importance of Species Sensitivity Distribution models SSDs in ecological risk assessments the conceptual basis strengths and weaknesses of using them have not been comprehensively reviewed This book fills that need Written by a panel of international experts Species Sensitivity Distributions in Ecotoxicology reviews Nitrogen, the Confer-N-s K. van der Hoek,J. Willem Erisman,S. Smeulders,John Robert Wisniewski,2012-12-02 The First International Nitrogen Conference provided an opportunity for researchers and decision makers to exchange information on environmental pollution by nitrogen compounds on three scales global continental regional and local The main topics were air ground water and surface water pollution emission sources atmospheric chemistry deposition processes and effects disturbance of nitrogen cycles critical loads and levels assessments policy development and evaluation target groups and abatement techniques and new approaches leading to an integrated abatement strategy The peer reviewed papers from the Conference presented in this volume will provide readers with a comprehensive review of the transport deposition and impact on ecosystems of nitrogen

The Law of International Human Rights Protection Walter Kälin,Jörg Künzli,2009 Human rights are invoked on many occasions But are they more than lofty values and abstract principles This text shows how human rights create legal entitlements for those protected by them and impose obligations on those bound by them Frames in the Toxicity Controversy Arnold Tukker,1999-01-31 There is a great deal of controversy about how to deal with man made chemicals Environmentalists and industrialists throughout the world clash on such subjects as chlorine PVC endocrine disrupters and the precautionary principle In this book Tukker untangles the controversy Three chapters relate to long term evaluations into two hot spots in the toxicity controversy the debates on chlorine in the Netherlands and PVC in Sweden The book adopts a political philosophical view presenting a thorough theoretical analysis of the potential of scientific research to solve controversies and evaluating the history of the chlorine and PVC controversies The book combines the quantitative analytical approaches of environmental science with qualitative approaches of policy sciences and the philosophy of science frame analysis cultural theory discourse theory etc It is an accessible analysis of the toxicity debate that will enable scientists policy makers and others to place their roles in a much wider context within the decision making process RAPRA Review Reports Rapra Technology Limited, The Child and the European Convention on Human Rights Ursula Kilkelly,2024-11-01 The European Convention on Human Rights is the most successful system for the enforcement of human rights in the world

However to date its full potential for protecting children s rights has not been explored as attention has focused on the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child This unique book provides the first analysis of the extensive case law of the Commission and the Court of Human Rights on all issues concerning children and their rights This study is important as a study of the regional protection of children s rights and moreover the case law itself can be directly applied in the legal system of nearly every European country including the UK The book includes chapters on the rights of the child under the European Convention on Human Rights in relation to education protection from abuse the right to identity child care juvenile justice health care and immigration and the family It also explores the potential of the Strasbourg mechanism for the protection of children s rights and thus provides a practical and vital guide to the study and use of the European Convention in the broad area of children s rights

Global Environment Outlook 2000 United Nations Environment Programme (Unep),2013-11-05 The continued poverty of the majority of the planet s inhabitants and excessive consumption by the minority are the two major causes of environmental degradation The present course is unsustainable and postponing action is no longer an option Inspired political leadership and intense cooperation across all regions and sectors will be needed to put both existing and new policy instruments to work From the Synthesis Global Environment Outlook 2000 GEO 2000 is a comprehensive and authoritative review and analysis of environmental conditions around the world It is the flagship publication of the world s leading environmental organization the United Nations Environment Programme UNEP and is based on information provided by more than 30 regional and international collaborating centres The book presents a region by region analysis of the state of the world s environment highlighting key global concerns and making recommendations for policy action The regions covered include Africa Asia and the Pacific Europe and Central Asia Latin America and the Caribbean North America West Asia and the Polar Areas Chapter 1 Global Perspectives describes the main drivers of environmental change such as the economy population growth political organization and regionalization as well as potential impacts of recent global developments including the growth of the consumer culture trade and international debt Chapter 2 The State of the Environment provides a global and region by region overview of the environment at the end of the second millennium The chapter covers global issues such as ozone climate change El Nifio and nitrogen loading and universal issues of land and food forests biodiversity freshwater marine and coastal areas atmosphere and urban areas Chapter 3 Policy Responses reviews the broad range of policy instruments and responses being used to address environmental issues including multilateral environmental agreements and analyses the difficulties of compliance implementation and assessment Chapter 4 Future Perspectives looks at environmental issues that will require priority attention in the 21st century and some alternative policy options that could be used in the regions Chapter 5 Outlook and Recommendations makes recommendations for future action based on the environmental legacy left by past and present policy and management systems GEO 2000 will be the benchmark reference and guide to the state of the global environment Written in clear non technical language and supported throughout by informative graphics and tables it is essential reading for all those involved in environmental policy making implementation and assessment and for researchers and students of regional and global environmental issues Originally published in 1999

The Treatment of Prisoners J. L. Murdoch, 2006-01-01 At the start of the 21st century some 2 million Europeans were detained against their will in prisons police stations mental health institutions or other detention centres It is generally recognised that protection against the arbitrary deprivation of liberty and the prevention of ill treatment reflect the extent to which states respect human rights and human dignity when these can be jeopardised by demands for security and efficiency This book describes the European system for the protection of people deprived of their liberty and how this has evolved over the past fifty years It discusses the different initiatives taken by the Council of Europe in this area of which the European Convention on Human Rights and the Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment are the most significant

Environmental Indicators for Agriculture Methods and Results Volume 3 OECD, 2001-03-13 This book is the first comprehensive study to review and take stock in OECD countries of progress in developing indicators to measure the environmental performance of agriculture
