The Other Side of Websites Jose Binny, 2015-01-03 You want to search through existing membership sites and communities in order to determine how their membership site is structured traditional coaching email based etc their price structure affiliate program details including commissions offered to those who promote them as well as the specific content that is being offered and over all value on the site itself This book will guide you how to start you own membership website This book will guide you how to start your own membership website The Other Side of Yesterday Carol Miller, 2000-08-17 Did people from the early high cultures of Asia cross the Pacific Ocean thousands of years ago and leave their mark on societies in the ancient Americas This was a hypothesis once seriously entertained by archaeologists and art historians but it fell into academic disfavor in the 1960s In this book Carol Miller an independent scholar writer journalist and sculptress who has lived nearly half a century in Mexico City draws our attention once again to the plausibility indeed the near certainty of early trans Pacific contacts As she presents a startling panorama of parallels among the art architecture theology and astronomy of the Mayas as viewed in relation to other peoples of the Americas as well as those of Asia she demonstrates the likelihood that exchanges took place between them not occasionally but regularly and continually From southern China northern Vietnam Southeast Asia and India seasoned navigators challenged the Pacific reached the west coast of South America and from there north into Central America and what is now Mexico right into the sculpture painting and even the social organization of the people called Mayas Miller draws on the work of the late Austrian anthropologist Robert Heine Geldern and his American colleague Gordon F Ekholm as well as the renowned Norwegian archaeologist explorer Thor Heyerdahl among other scholars of diffusion thus she claims the spread of ideas customs and styles in art and design language calendar even political hierarchies from one end of the globe to the other She reminds us that the notion of early contacts between Asia and the Americas is not new but that it is time to dust it off and take a fresh look at the evidence Her reminder is especially timely in light of recent finds that demand a fresh look at everything we have ever before been taught about human evolution patterns of migration cultural and social development An Inventory of the Ancient

Monuments in Glamorgan: Volume III - Part 1b: Medieval Secular Monuments the Later Castles from 1217 to the present Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments in Wales, 2000 Forty three castles and fortified sites here described were founded or given their most significant fabric after 1217 They include tower houses strong houses possible castles and twenty masonry castles ranging from the great Clare works at Caerphilly and Morlais to the small modestly fortified sites at Barry and Weobley and the exceptional fortified priory at Ewenny The density and variety of the medieval fortifications in Glamorgan are unrivalled and their study is enriched by an exceptional range of works on the history and records of a historic county formed by merging the lordships of Glamorgan and Gower Part 1a described the early castles and traced their role in the Norman conquest and settlement of the fertile southern lowlands down to 1217 when the

Clare inherited Glamorgan In that year the Welsh had expelled the English from Gower and remained unconquered in the Glamorgan uplands Gower was soon lost again and under two redoubtable Clare lords the Glamorgan uplands were appropriated in the mid 13th century and secured in a notable programme of castle works The castle building of Earl Richard de Clare 1243 62 and his son Gilbert the Red Earl 1263 95 as they achieved this second conquest of Glamorgan foreshadowed the later campaigns of Edward I against Gwynedd At Caerphilly above all Earl Gilbert's castle deserves comparison with the great Edwardian works it introduced defensive features later to be adopted by King Edward's Savoyard master masons Gower sites considered include the impressive masonry castles at Oystermouth and Penrice A notable ornately arcaded domestic range at Swansea is the only surviving vestige of the chief castle of Gower which is tentatively described from a variety of records AH the illustrated descriptions incorporate detailed historical accounts The introductory survey outlines the later descent of Glamorgan and Gower to the end of the 15th century and along with the sectional preambles it provides general discussion of the sites

The Archaeology of Early Medieval Poland Andrzej Buko, 2008 The first academic book concerning the most interesting archaeological discoveries of Medieval date 6th mid 13th centuries in Poland The book is meant mainly for students archaeologists and historians It will also interest a wider audience interested in the history and archaeology of central Europe

Medieval Europe From Another Angle Florin Curta, 2025-05-29 While the Middle Ages represent a topic of perennial interest most studies have addressed the western parts of the European continent often from the angle of the written sources This volume examines an area less known in the literary and archaeological evidence The studies included therein provide significant insights into the history and archaeology of East Central and Eastern Europe during Late Antiquity and the early Middle Ages This is the first volume of essays explicitly to reassess the significance of the region as well as the role of the archaeological evidence in studying ethnicity in the Middle Ages particularly in the case of the Slavs and the Avars Because of its geographic chronological thematic and methodological scope this book offers a new perspective from a different angle on the analysis of the archaeological and written sources Some chapters focus on settlement sites others discuss artifacts from burial assemblages As well as advancing new models for the analysis of the written sources in relation to ethnicity Medieval Europe from Another Angle offers new approaches to the understanding of how ethnicity may have been constructed in the Middle Ages in material culture terms It will appeal to scholars and students alike studying Late Antiquity and the early Middle Ages with an interest in material culture and its use in building ethnic boundaries

Beyond the Burghal Hidage John Baker, Stuart Brookes, 2013-03-27 As the title suggests Beyond the Burghal Hidage takes the study of Anglo Saxon civil defence away from traditional historical and archaeological fields and uses a groundbreaking interdisciplinary approach to examine warfare and public responses to organised violence through their impact on the landscape By bringing together the evidence from a wide range of archaeological onomastic and historical sources the authors are able to reconstruct complex strategic and military landscapes and to show how important detailed knowledge of early medieval infrastructure and communications is to our understanding of Anglo Saxon preparedness for war and to the situating of major defensive works within their wider strategic context The result is a significant and far reaching re evaluation of the evolution of late Anglo Saxon defensive arrangements Winner of the 2013 Verbruggen prize given annually by De Re Militari society for the best book on medieval military history The Archeological History of New York Arthur Caswell Parker,1920 Bulletin New York State Museum,1922 New York State Museum Bulletin Arthur Caswell Parker,1920 Bulletin of the New York State Museum ,1922 U.S. National Forest Campground Guide, Southwestern Region Fred Dow,Suzanne Dow,2000 The U S National Forest Campground Guide Southwestern Region describes 159 developed campgrounds in 12 National Forests located in Arizona and New Mexico All of the campgrounds were personally visited and researched by the authors of this Guide There are more than 50 items of information for each campground narrative descriptions including authors anecdotes maps displaying the relative location of the campgrounds and quick look up tables to help in the selection of a campground In addition there are sidebars throughout the Guide containing useful information about camping the forests things to do and the authors experiences Defence Sites II C.A. Brebbia,C. Clark,2014-09-17 Containing the proceedings of the second International Conference on Defence Sites Heritage and Future this book promotes the knowledge of the scale design and functions of defence sites It brings a better understanding of the issues raised by their redundancy and the implications of different disposal processes for the land Redundant defence sites offer a range of opportunities to planners architects and local communities to redevelop large areas bringing new life to often neglected parts of towns These opportunities are common to many countries and the papers in this book stress this common feature and help to share experiences of the transformation of defence sites to civilian uses around the world The re use of defence sites also raises questions regarding the need to recover brownfields and contaminated land which can have far reaching legal responsibilities and environmental consequences Achieving the sustainable development of these sites involves issues related to maintenance and conservation as well as built and natural environmental controls while also responding to the needs and aspirations of the community Topics covered include Military heritage history Castles and fortresses Fortified cities Case studies Transition from military to civilian life Community involvement Economic analysis Risk assessment Simulation and modelling Funding and legal requirements *Lisbon & Cintra; with Some Account of Other Cities and Historical Sites in Portugal.
