The New Right Michael Malice, 2019-05-14 The definitive firsthand account of the movement that permanently broke the American political consensus What do internet trolls economic populists white nationalists techno-anarchists and Alex Jones have in common Nothing except for an unremitting hatred of evangelical progressivism and the so-called Cathedral from whence it pours forth Contrary to the dissembling explanations from the corporate press this movement did not emerge overnight nor are its varied subgroups in any sense interchangeable with one another As united by their opposition as they are divided by their goals the members of the New Right are willfully suspicious of those in the mainstream who would seek to tell their story Fortunately author Michael Malice was there from the very inception and in The New Right recounts their tale from the beginning Malice provides an authoritative and unbiased portrait of the New Right as a movement of ideas ideas that he traces to surprisingly diverse ideological roots From the heterodox right wing of the 1940s to the Buchanan Rothbard alliance of 1992 and all the way through to what he witnessed personally in Charlottesville The New Right is a thorough firsthand accounting of the concepts characters and chronology of this widely misunderstood sociopolitical phenomenon Today's fringe is tomorrow's orthodoxy As entertaining as it is informative The New Right is required reading for every American across the spectrum who would like to learn more about the past present and future of our divided political culture

Trial by Media Lieve Gies, 2025-02-24 This edited collection brings together scholars from criminology law media and communication studies politics and linguistics to consider the different meanings and dimensions of trial by media Trial by media remains an under researched and under conceptualised phenomenon This book sheds new light on the complex and evolving interfaces between courts media and justice It features original analysis of high profile cases of media trials including Nicola Bulley UK Lindy Chamberlain Australia Chris Dawson Australia Sanda Dia Belgium Dragan Vasiljkovi Australia and Roman Zadorov Israel Acknowledging the risks and benefits of heightened media scrutiny of the criminal justice system the book challenges the notion that trial by media is invariably incompatible with the requirements of natural justice It also foregrounds ways in which media trials routinely occur in the absence of a legal trial arguing that there is a need to broaden and rethink the concept of trial by media The book reflects on the enduring significance of legacy media for public perceptions of the law and the disruptive impact associated with digital media Furthermore the collection considers the implications of trial by media for the integrity of court proceedings and the protection of human rights It offers an assessment of the potential demise of court reporting and its traditional bridging function between courts and public opinion

Glass Ceilings and 100-hour Couples Karine S. Moe, Dianna J. Shandy, 2010 When significant numbers of college educated American women began in the early twenty first century to leave paid work to become stay at home mothers an emotionally charged national debate erupted Karine Moe and Dianna Shandy a professional economist and an anthropologist respectively decided to step back from the sometimes overheated rhetoric around the so called mommy wars They wondered what really inspired women to opt out and they wanted to gauge the phenomenon s genuine repercussions Glass Ceilings and 100 Hour Couples is the fruit of their investigation a rigorous accessible and sympathetic reckoning with this hot button issue in contemporary life Drawing on hundreds of interviews from around the country original survey research and national labor force data Moe and Shandy refocus the discussion of women who opt out from one where they are the object of scrutiny to one where their aspirations and struggles tell us about the far broader swath of American women who continue to juggle paid work and family Moe and Shandy examine the many pressures that influence a woman s decision to resign reduce or reorient her career These include the mismatch between child care options and workplace demands the fact that these women married men with demanding careers the professionalization of stay at home motherhood and broad failures in public policy But Moe and Shandy are equally attentive to the resilience of women in the face of life decisions that might otherwise threaten their sense of self worth Moe and Shandy find for instance that women who have downsized their careers stress the value of social networks of running with a pack of smart women who ve also chosen to emphasize motherhood over paid work

The Way We Build Mark Erlich,2023-07-18 The construction trades once provided unionized craftsmen a route to the middle class and a sense of pride and dignity often denied other blue collar workers Today union members still earn wages and benefits that compare favorably to those of college graduates But as union strength has declined over the last fifty years a growing non union sector offers lower compensation and more hazardous conditions undermining the earlier tradition of upward mobility Revitalization of the industry depends on unions shedding past racial and gender discriminatory practices embracing organizing diversity and the new immigrant workforce and preparing for technological changes Mark Erlich blends long view history with his personal experience inside the building trades to explain one of our economy s least understood sectors Erlich s multifaceted account includes the dynamics of the industry the backdrop of union policies and powerful stories of everyday life inside the trades

He offers a much needed overview of construction s past and present while exploring roads to the future A Time for Wisdom Paul T. McLaughlin, Mark R. McMinn, 2022-03-14 These are volatile times Fear suspicion and cynicism are chronic A mere tweet inflames the passions of millions while click bait hot takes stoke the amygdalas of everyone with an Internet connection We treat those not in our tribe as a threat and deem anyone with a different opinion as evil Mistaking myopia for measure we lack all sense of proportion in our judgments We are shortsighted mired in the present ignorant of history and blind to the future We thought that technology would save us by connecting us to each other and the world s information Instead it enticed our vices encouraged our biases and eroded the one virtue we need now more than ever wisdom A Time for Wisdom is for readers who feel beleaguered by the incivility of the modern world dispirited by its coarse rhetoric and toxic partisanship It is an invitation to escape the shallow cacophony and restore peace and perspective to our daily lives Written by two psychologists the book takes the best scientific research on wisdom and integrates it with timeless concepts that have for ages guided troubled souls through life s hardships From this foundation the authors present four steps we can follow to practice wisdom in the 21st Century Receiving knowledge Practicing detachment Experiencing tranquility Cultivating transcendence These are profound and spiritual principles that can bring us immense satisfaction when we aspire to live by them In A Time for Wisdom the authors show us how They commend a course of action towards the Good the True and the Beautiful towards calm and clear moral reasoning They lead us out of the circus of contemporary life and show us a path beyond our petty self centeredness By journeying along that path we can like the great sages and scientists before us rise above the immediacy of the moment and partake of the numinous and the infinite State of Threat Wil Hoverd, Deidre Ann McDonald, 2023-11-16 Increasing US China tensions Russia s invasion of Ukraine disruptions to supply chains and maritime trade right wing extremism gangs and the drug trade The international and domestic security environment is dynamic and fraught In State of Threat local and international academics and sector experts discuss the issues facing New Zealand across defence diplomacy intelligence policy trade and border management This timely and up to date analysis of New Zealand s most important security issues is a must read for policy analysts those working in risk management and industry leaders across all sectors of the economy A Deeper Sickness Margaret Peacock, Erik L. Peterson, 2022-03-08 A harrowing chronicle by two leading historians capturing in real time the events of a year marked by multiple devastations When we look back at the year 2020 how can we describe what really happened In A Deeper Sickness award winning historians Margaret Peacock and Erik Peterson set out to preserve what they call the focused confusion and to probe deeper into what they consider the Four Pandemics that converged around the 12 astonishing months of 2020 Disease Disinformation Poverty Violence Drs Peacock and Peterson use their interdisciplinary expertise to extend their analysis beyond the viral science and instead into the social political and historical dimensions of this crisis They consulted with dozens of experts and witnesses from a wide range of fields from leading epidemiologists and health care workers to leaders of the Black Lives Matter movement district attorneys political scientists philosophers and more Their journey revealed a sick country that believed it was well a violent nation that believed it was peaceful one that mistook poverty for prosperity and accountability for rebellion Organized into the journal entries along with dozens of archival images A Deeper Sickness will help readers sift through the chaos and misinformation that characterized those frantic days It is both an unflinching indictment of a nation that is still reeling and a testament to the power of human resilience and collective memory Readers can share their story and become a contributing author by visiting an interactive digital museum where the authors have preserved dozens of more stories and interviews Visit Margaret Peacock and Erik L Peterson s digital museum at adhc.lib.ua.edu/pandemicbook

The Digital Coach Stella Kanatouri, 2020-03-13 Thanks to digital media coaching doesn t have to be constrained by geographical and temporal boundaries Using digital media to facilitate coaching processes however creates a distinct form of coaching practice that requires additional skill from the coach The Digital Coach contains insights based on a comprehensive exploratory research that analysed the discussions of a 1 000 member strong online community of coaches and several interviews with coaches to understand their practical experiences of working with technology At the same time the book offers information insights and examples that can be readily used by the coaching practitioner Based on the developments in the field the book provides suggestions about improving the usability of coaching software and it offers reflections on how emerging technologies like immersive Virtual Reality Augmented Reality and Artificial Intelligence might extend coaching practice Whilst acknowledging the limitations and potential risks that may arise by integrating digital media in coaching the book suggests that coaching success doesn't only depend on media capabilities but also on the coach. The digital coach develops enhanced coaching skills and adapts coaching practice to the media in use. The book is dedicated to the coaching practitioner who uses digital media or who is considering doing so and is relevant for coaching supervisors, buyers of coaching services, human resource professionals and software designers.

Fight to Win A.J. Withers, 2021-11-10T00:00:00Z AJ Withers draws on their own experiences as an organizer, extensive interviews with the Ontario Coalition Against Poverty (OCAP) activists and Toronto bureaucrats and freedom of information requests to provide a detailed account of the work of OCAP. This book shows that poor people's organizing can be effective even in periods of neoliberal retrenchment. Fight to Win tells the stories of four key OCAP homelessness campaigns: stopping the criminalization of homeless people in a public park, the fight for poor people's access to the Housing Shelter Fund, a campaign to improve the emergency shelter system and the City's overarching but inadequate Housing First policy and the attempt by the City of Toronto to drive homeless people from encampments during the COVID pandemic. This book shows how power works at the municipal level including the use of a multitude of demobilization tactics, devaluing poor people as sources of knowledge about their own lives and gaslighting poor people and anti-poverty activists. AJ Withers also details OCAP's dual activist strategy: direct action casework coupled with mass mobilization for both immediate need and long-term change. These campaigns demonstrate the validity of OCAP's longstanding critiques of dominant homelessness policies and practices. Each campaign was fully or partially successful; these victories were secured by anti-poverty activists through the use of and the threat of direct disruptive action tactics.

Interactivity, Collaboration, and Authoring in Social Media Krystina Madej, 2016-01-22 This book includes a short history of interactive narrative and an account of a small group collaboratively authored social media narrative, Romeo and Juliet on Facebook After Love Comes Destruction. At the forefront of narrative innovation are social media channels: speculative spaces for creating and experiencing stories that are interactive and collaborative. Media, however, is only the access point to the expressiveness of narrative content. Wikis, messaging, mash-ups and social media (Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and others) are on a trajectory of participatory story creation that goes back many centuries. These forms offer authors ways to create narrative meaning that reflects our current media culture as the harlequinade reflected the culture of the 18th century and as the volvelle reflected that of the 13th century. Interactivity, Collaboration and Authoring in Social Media first prospects the last millennium for antecedents of today's authoring practices. It does so with a view to considering how today's digital manifestations are a continuation, perhaps a reiteration, perhaps a novel pioneering of humans' abiding interest in interactive narrative. The book then takes the reader inside the process of creating a collaborative interactive narrative in today's social media through an authoring experience undertaken by a group of graduate students. The engaging mix of blogs, emails, personal diaries and fabricated documents used to create the narrative demonstrates that a social media environment can facilitate a meaningful and productive collaborative authorial experience and result in an abundance of networked personally expressive and visually and textually referential content The resulting narrative After Love Comes Destruction based in Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet shows how a generative narrative space evolved around the students use of social media in ways they had not previously considered both for authoring and for delivery of their final narrative artifact

The New Meaning of Educational Change Michael Fullan, 2025 This new edition is unlike any of its predecessors Michael Fullan first provides a critical account of the last 60 years of educational change across the world with a focus on the United States He then presents a radically different future including a complete model for transforming our badly outdated current education system A searing synthesis of what we now know about system change Anthony Mackay Centre for Strategic Education Melbourne This definitive book articulates in plain language where we need to go and how to get there Michael Matsuda superintendent Anaheim Union High School District CA Fullan captures the complexity of leadership in a time of technological advancements and complex societal challenges Thomas D Amico director of education Ottawa Catholic School Board Run don't walk to pick up and read the sixth edition of The New Meaning of Educational Change Barnett Berry Learning Policy Institute Michael Fullan brings the reader on a compelling 60 year journey of educational change Tiffany Bastin assistant deputy minister New Brunswick Department of Education NJ I have no doubt that this sixth edition will continue Fullan's enormous success in influencing policy and practice globally Mel Ainscow emeritus professor University of Manchester UK
