The Moroccan Drug Incident Of English Edition:

Reading Mohamed Choukri's Narratives Jonas Elbousty, Roger Allen, 2024-07-15 Reading Mohamed Choukri's Narratives presents an intricate exploration into the life and literary universe of Mohamed Choukri, a towering figure in 20th century Moroccan literature. Known primarily for his groundbreaking autobiographical work al Khubz al f For Bread Alone, Choukri's literary influence extends well beyond this single work. This book seeks to cast a light on his broader body of work, examining the cultural, societal, and personal influences that shaped his unique storytelling style. Through a deep analysis of his narratives, this text aims to unfold how Choukri portrayed the harsh realities he and others encountered, giving voice to the marginalized individuals and communities in Morocco. Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1900 MINURSO - United Nations Mission for the Referendum in Western Sahara Janos Besenyo, 2023-07-17 In 1975 Spain relinquished control of its former colony of Spanish Sahara following a short conflict with the Polisario, the armed movement representing many of the native Sahrawi people. In the wake of Spain's withdrawal, neighboring Morocco and Mauritania divided and occupied the territory. In a fierce guerrilla war that saw the Polisario raid deep into Mauritania and even directly attack the capital city, the latter nation gave up any claim to Western Sahara in 1979 and withdrew. Morocco, however, chose to continue their occupation, building a massive berm stretching for hundreds of kilometers in an effort to contain the Polisario, and fighting continued until a ceasefire was agreed in 1991. One key element of the 1991 agreement was that a UN supervised referendum would be conducted to determine the future of Western Sahara To that end MINURSO Mission des Nations Unies pour l'Organisation d'un Référendum au Sahara Occidental was created to oversee the ceasefire and organize the referendum Over 30 years later however that referendum has still not taken place despite the original agreement and the involvement of some of the late twentieth century's leading diplomats and contrary to its previous promises Morocco is only willing to grant a high degree of autonomy in the occupied Western Sahara The Sahrawis and Polisario refuse to accept this thus the conflict remains unresolved and ever on the brink of reigniting The author of the book János Besenyi a professor at Eötvös University in Budapest Hungary and who served as a peacekeeper in MINURSO presents the history of the area the path leading to the creation of the mission and its operation over the past three decades and provides a detailed description of the mission's team sites and the opposing forces of the Polisario and Morocco This book draws upon several previously unpublished documents as well as previously unpublished photographs taken by peacekeepers This book is recommended not only to military foreign policy and diplomatic experts but also to anyone interested in the history of the region the events there and the oldest peacekeeping operation in Africa

Fortress Europe Or a Europe of Fortresses? Harlan Koff, 2008 The integration of non EU migrants is one of the most salient issues in contemporary European politics and social scientists have dedicated significant attention to this question Even though this field is generally characterized by its richness its weakness has been its focus on specific aspects of immigration such as political participation immigrant entrepreneurship models of citizenship etc This book addresses migrant integration in its complexity First it compares and analyzes local integration regimes because levels and modes of integration vary throughout Europe all the way to the sub national level Second the book discusses integration issues in various arenas including political party systems welfare regimes social movements civil society economic sectors housing urban planning and crime In doing so the study addresses the relationships between integration in various spheres thus embracing the complexity of integration processes Finally the book attempts to explain the links between political economic and social integration through interdisciplinary analysis based on power class and status

Transdex ,1974 The Mediterranean in the Age of Globalization Natalia Ribas-Mateos,2017-12-02 The Mediterranean in the Age of Globalization is a welcome corrective to the tendency to present globalization as a homogenous concept and the failure to describe how it operates in specific regions Ribas Mateos examines globalization and migration across the Mediterranean using an innovative integrated framework so as to map social places by describing how social political cultural and economic forces are embedded within a globalizing environment The author articulates an original and compelling narrative mapping the Mediterranean as a global place where international and regional forces are intertwined in multiple threads In doing so she identifies two key components of globalization affecting specifically forms of welfare and issues of mobility in the context of a weakening European welfare state and the relocation and reinforcement of Mediterranean borders Nine Mediterranean cities are investigated as gateway cities which shape two major effects of globalization welfare and mobility The book challenges conventional North South perspectives and focuses and systematizes the way international migration should be conceptualized The originality of the book results from the author s fieldwork which is rich in descriptive detail and from a theory centered around global perspectives Seven case studies in Southern Europe Algeciras Athens Barcelona Lisbon Naples Turin and Thrace deal with issues related to migration and the welfare state She also includes two ethnographies that represent two Mediterranean gateways in the North South Mediterranean division Tangiers in Morocco and Durrës in Albania which are mapped as border cities in the global Mediterranean context Because of its intrinsically multidisciplinary nature this superb volume will be of particular interest to academics and social science researchers as well as policymakers and international agencies Drug Enforcement ,1974
