Hydrofeminist Thinking With Oceans Tamara Shefer, Vivienne Bozalek, Nike Romano, 2023-12-19 Hydrofeminist Thinking with Oceans brings together authors who are thinking in with and through the spaces of oceans and beaches in South African contexts to make alternative knowledges towards a justice to come and flourishing at a planetary level Primary scholarly locations for this work include feminist new materialist and post humanist thinking and specifically locates itself within hydrofeminist thinking Together with a foreword by Astrida Neimanis the chapters in this book explore both land and water with oceans as powerfully political spaces globally and locally entangled in the violences of settler colonialism land dispossession slavery transnational labour exploitation extractivism and omnicides South Africa is a productive space to engage in such scholarship While there is a growing body of literature that works within and across disciplines on the sea and bodies of water to think critically about the damages of centuries of colonisation and continued extractivist capitalism there remains little work that explores this burgeoning thinking in global Southern and more particularly South African contexts South African histories of colonisation slavery and more recently apartheid which are saturated in the oceans are only recently being explored through oceanic logics This volume offers valuable Southern contributions and rich situated narratives to such hydrofeminist thinking It also brings diverse and more marginal knowledges to bear on the project of generating imaginative alternatives to hegemonic colonial and patriarchal logics in the academy and elsewhere While primarily located in a South African context the volume speaks well to globalised concerns for justice and environmental challenges both in human societies and in relation to other species and planetary crises The chapters which will be of interest to scholars activists and other civil society stakeholders share inspiring rich examples of diverse scholarship activism and art in these contexts extending international scholarship that thinks in on with ocean s littoral zones and bodies of water The book offers ethico political perspectives on the role of research in ocean governance policy development and collective decision making for ecological justice This book is suitable for students and scholars of post qualitative feminist new materialist embodied arts based and hydrofeminist methods in education environmental humanities and the social sciences

A history of the earth and animated nature ... With copious notes and additions, containing the recent discoveries of eminent naturalists and others. Together with the elements of botany, and an account of the most rare and curious foreign plants ... By G. F. Shaw Oliver Goldsmith,1819 The Poetical Works of John Milton John Milton,1826 The Hidden Voyage Dr. Sharon Campbell-Phillips,2023-01-07 This book is a fiction romance novel that tells a beautiful love story As the streets that lead from the Strand to the Embankment are very slim it s better no longer to walk down them arm in arm If you persevere lawyers clerks will have to make flying leaps into the mud young female typists will have to fidget in the back of you In the streets of London wherein beauty is going unregarded eccentricity must pay the penalty and it is higher no longer to be very tall to put on a long blue cloak or to conquer the air together with your left hand One afternoon in the beginning of October whilst the traffic was turning brisk a tall guy strode alongside the edge of the pavement with a lady on his arm Angry glances struck upon their backs Principles of Geology Sir Charles Lyell,1833 Natural Sinks of CO2 Joe Wisniewski,Ariel E. Lugo,2012-12-06 Most of the attention with respect to the increase in atmospheric greenhouse gas concentrations centers around three issues human generated sources of carbon mostly from burning fossil fuels tropical deforestation which accelerates the production of atmospheric carbon while causing havoc with biodiversity and the economic development of tropical countries and the temperature increase that may accompany increased atmospheric greenhouse gas concentrations This is the first book to focus extensively on the reverse to emissions of carbon dioxide CO2 i e the sequestering of atmospheric carbon by aquatic and terrestrial ecosystems Natural ecosystems are currently sequestering carbon and it is economically feasible to manage existing and additional terrestrial forest soil saline land and aquatic coastal wetland and ocean ecosystems to substantially increase the level of carbon storage The prospect of managing natural systems to absorb additional carbon should begin to change the mindset under which scientists policy makers and society deal with the issue of further greenhouse gas increases Amazing Chesed Rabbi Rami Shapiro,2012-11-12 The question isn't whether grace is there for you in Judaism. The question is do you have the courage to accept it. Chesed isn't a reward; it is reality. God's grace isn't limited to what we want to happen or might like to happen. God's grace is what is happening whether we like it or not. In short, God's grace is the giving of all to all. From the Introduction: Ask almost any Jew whether grace is a central concept in Judaism and an essential element in living Jewishly and chances are their answer will be no. But that's the wrong answer. This fascinating foray into God's love freely given offers you regardless of your level of Jewish involvement a way to answer that question in the affirmative. Drawing from ancient and contemporary traditional and non-traditional Jewish wisdom, this book reclaims the idea of grace in Judaism in three ways. It offers a view of God that helps you understand what grace is, why grace is, and how grace manifests in the world. It sets forth a reading of Judaism that is grace-filled and an understanding of creation, Shabbat, and other Jewish practices from a grace-filled perspective. It challenges you to be embraced and transformed by grace and to live life as a vehicle for God's grace, thereby fulfilling the promise of being created in God's image and likeness.
