Mandates and Missteps Anna Kent, 2024-02-02 Mandates and Missteps is the first comprehensive history of Australian government scholarships to the Pacific from the first scheme in 1948 to the Australia Awards of 2018 The study of scholarships provides a window into foreign and education policy making across decades and the impact such policies have had on individuals and communities This work demonstrates the broad role these scholarships have played in bilateral relationships between Australia and Pacific Island territories and countries The famed Colombo Plan is here put in its proper context within international aid and international education history Australian scholarship programs it is argued ultimately reflect Australia and its perception of itself as a nation in the Pacific more than the needs of Pacific Island nations Mandates and Missteps traces Australia's role as both a coloniser in the Territory of Papua and New Guinea and a participant in the process of decolonisation across the Pacific This study will be of interest to students and scholars of international development international education and foreign policy The Report: Papua New Guinea 2012 ,2012 Contains information about the key sectors in Papua New Guinea PNG such as LNG and agriculture as well as investment opportunities and interviews of important politicians and businesspeople Biodiversity, Access and Benefit-Sharing Daniel F. Robinson,2014-11-13 The Nagoya Protocol to the Convention on Biological Diversity CBD is rapidly receiving signatures and ratifications Many countries are preparing to implement the protocol through national research permit systems and or biodiversity laws Yet there is still considerable confusion about how to implement the Protocol regarding access and benefit sharing ABS procedures and minimal experience in many countries This book seeks to remedy this gap in understanding by analysing a number of ABS case studies in light of the Nagoya Protocol The case studies are wide ranging with examples of plants for medicinal cosmetic biotech and food products from or for development in Australia North Africa Madagascar Switzerland Thailand USA and Oceania These will encourage countries to develop national systems which maximise their benefits both monetary and non monetary towards conservation and support for local communities that hold traditional knowledge In addition the author analyses new expectations raised by the Nagoya Protocol such as the encouragement of the development of community protocols by indigenous and local communities As a result stakeholders and policy makers will be able to learn the steps involved in establishing ABS agreements issues that arise between stakeholders and the types of benefits that might be realistic Australians in Papua New Guinea 1960-1975 Ceridwen Spark,2014-06-01 Australians in Papua New Guinea provides a history of the late Australian years in Papua New Guinea through the eyes of 13 Australians and four Papua New Guineans by presenting the experiences of Australians who went to work in Papua New Guinea PNG over several decades before the 1970s This extraordinary book balances expatriates with indigenous Papua New Guineans balances gender and pioneers an innovative combination of written reminiscences and interviews that reveal the impact of Australian colonial policy on pre indendence PNG It follows medical practitioners Michael Alpers Ken Clezy Margaret Smith Ian Maddocks and Anthony Radford with accompanying reflections by wife Robin who grappled with complex medical issues in difficult surroundings Other contributors John Langmore John Ley and Bill Brown became experts in governance The final group featured was involved in education and social change Ken Inglis Bill Gammage and Christine Stewart Papua New Guinean contributors medical expert Sir Isi Henao Kevau diplomats Charles Lepani and Dame Meg Taylor and educator and politician Dame Carol Kidu further deepen the insights of this collection A final reflection is provided by historian Jonathan Ritchie himself part of an Australian family in PNG The history of this important Pacific nation unfolds as do the histories of individuals who were involved in its formative decades Biodiversity, biogeography and nature conservation in Wallacea and New Guinea Dmitry Telnov,2015-05-11 The Coombs Brij V. Lal,Allison Ley,2014-09-01 The Coombs Building at The Australian National University is a Canberra icon Named after one of Australia s greatest administrators and public intellectuals Nugget Herbert Cole Coombs for more than forty years the building has housed two of the University's four foundational Schools the Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies and the Research School of Social Sciences This volume of recollections is about the former It looks at life in the building through the prism of personal experience and happenstance Part memoir part biography and part celebration this book is about the people of Coombs past and present Through evocative and lucid reflections present and former denizens of the building share their passions and predilections quietly savour their accomplishments and recall the failings and foibles of the past with a kindly tolerance Wicked Valuations Michael McDermott, 2018-07-16 Traditional valuation approaches are increasingly recognised as being insufficient to address the wicked valuation problems of the diverse peoples and groups that inhabit the globe from north south east to west This book demonstrates the limitations of science and in particular economics as the foundation on which valuations are traditionally based It demonstrates the importance of and provides justification for the personal cultural values and norms which underpin our assessment of value and the fact that these vary across the world In Wicked Valuations Michael McDermott develops a means of engaging with highly complex valuation problems His autoethnography provides a lens to draw on knowledge and experience from his 40 years in land valuation in Africa and the Asia Pacific while documentary analysis is used to draw in the views of other valuation practitioners and scholars who are becoming increasingly aware of the need to develop ways to adapt land valuation processes to the complexity of our contemporary landscapes Struggle, Reform, Boom and Bust Stephen Howes, Martin Davies, Rohan Fox, Maholopa Laveil, Manoj K. Pandey, Kelly Samof, Dek Joe Sum, 2025-07-31 Since Papua New Guinea's independence in 1975 economic growth has been slow but volatile with major changes in economic structure and policies as well as in politics and governance This economic history written to commemorate the fiftieth year of independence and the first to be produced in some 15 years divides the half century since independence into four periods the relative stability but also early struggles of the seventies and eighties the crises and reforms of the nineties the boom of the 2000s and the quiet bust of the 2010s Two chapters cover each period's major economic policy institutional and political developments The final three chapters provide an overall assessment of economic performance and policies since independence and link them with its politics and institutions The book combines painstaking documentation with original analysis to reveal both the strengths and weaknesses of the PNG economy and theorises that the country's hyper politics and insecurity have combined to produce and are reinforced by a weak but stable state and low and increasingly resource dependent growth Data driven frank insightful and engaging Struggle Reform Boom and Bust is written by an expert team of economists from the University of Papua New Guinea and The Australian National University under the leadership of Professor Stephen Howes Director of the ANU Development Policy Centre It is an essential resource for anyone interested in the economy of Papua New Guinea as well as an important contribution to the literature on the challenges and institutional determinants of post colonial development The Boy from Boort Bill Gammage, Gavan

Daws, Brij V. Law and Judicial Review in Papua New Guinea is a must read for lawyers and public alike involved in the judicial review of administrative decisions. The book contains a comprehensive guide to an increasingly important yet quite complex area of law. The author draws from his own experience and research to make this important contribution to the development of Papua New Guinea's expanding judicial review jurisprudence. This work is essential reading to understand the nuances involved in this area of law. Dr Vergil Narokobi LL B LL M Ph D Counsel for the Papua New Guinea Ombudsman Commission President of Papua New Guinea Law Society 25 June 2018 Port Moresby PNG. This work is of very high quality and would be a very valuable tool for judges magistrates lawyers the academia and people in decision making positions in the public and the private sectors. I recommend the book to them. I am impressed with your comprehensive use of local case precedents and in depth knowledge of the topics. Honourable Sir Gibbs Salika KBE CSM OBE Deputy Chief Justice of Papua New Guinea as he then was 4 July 2018 Port Moresby PNG. An extensive thought provoking and easy to read compendium that makes accessible the law of Papua New Guinea on the topic of judicial review in its many guises. Emeritus Professor Tony Angelo Victoria University of Wellington QC 7 October 2018 Wellington New Zealand Charles Crichton Quentin Falk, 2021-06-29

Charles Crichton is perhaps best remembered as the director of the unlikely blockbuster hit A Fish Called Wanda made when he was seventy seven years old. But the most significant part of his career was spent at Ealing Studios in the 1940s and 1950s working on such beloved comedies as Hue and Cry, The Lavender Hill Mob and The Titfield Thunderbolt. Nonetheless as this pioneering study of Crichton's work reveals his filmmaking skills extended way beyond comedy to wartime dramas and film noir and his adaptability served him well when he made the transition into primetime television working on popular shows such as The Avengers, Space 1999 and The Adventures of Black Beauty. Featuring first hand testimony from colleagues ranging from Dame Judi Dench and Petula Clark to John Cleese and Sir Michael Palin this riveting account of Crichton's fascinating life in film will appeal to film scholars and general readers alike.
