1890-1940 Alana D. Murray,2018-06-26 This book examines black intellectual thought during from 1890 1940 and its relationship to the development of the alternative black curriculum in social studies Inquiry into the alternative black curriculum is a multi disciplinary project it requires an intersectional approach that draws on social studies research educational history and black history Exploring the gendered construction of the alternative black curriculum Murray considers the impact of Carter G Woodson and W E B DuBois in creating the alternative black curriculum in social studies and its subsequent relationship to the work of black women in the field and how black women developed the alternative black curriculum in private and public settings Meeting the Challenges to Measurement in an Era of Accountability

Henry Braun,2016-01-29 Under pressure and support from the federal government states have increasingly turned to indicators based on student test scores to evaluate teachers and schools as well as students themselves The focus thus far has been on test scores in those subject areas where there is a sequence of consecutive tests such as in mathematics or English language arts with a focus on grades 4 8 Teachers in these subject areas however constitute less than thirty percent of the teacher workforce in a district Comparatively little has been written about the measurement of achievement in the other grades and subjects This volume seeks to remedy this imbalance by focusing on the assessment of student achievement in a broad range of grade levels and subject areas with particular attention to their use in the evaluation of teachers and schools in all It addresses traditional end of course tests as well as alternative measures such as portfolios exhibitions and student learning objectives In each case issues related to design and development psychometric considerations and validity challenges are covered from both a generic and a content specific perspective The NCME Applications of Educational Measurement and Assessment series includes edited volumes designed to inform research based applications of educational measurement and assessment Edited by leading experts these books are comprehensive and practical resources on the latest developments in the field The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license America's Two Constitutions Thomas J. Reed,2017-10-06 America s Two Constitutions explores the history of the treatment of dissenters in time of war

beginning with the treatment of Tories during the Revolution followed by description and analysis of the Lincoln administration's treatment of disloyal persons during the Civil War President Wilson's organized plan to curb anti-war anti-draft groups including the Socialist party during World War I President Roosevelt's handling of the Japanese internment program and trial of U.S. citizens by military commission during World War II the cold war campaign against Communists in government and in the entertainment field the FBI spying program COINTELL and other means to curb draft resisters and anti-war groups during the Viet Nam war followed by a chapter on the post 9/11 treatment of suspected terrorists including surreptitious interception of electronic traffic and trial of U.S. citizens and foreign nationals by military commission The final chapter concludes that the United States has two constitutions the written constitution in peacetime and a special unwritten constitution in time of war or national emergency

Deceased Loved Ones Communicating with Us Ted Baxter, 2015-05-19 This book summarizes seventy of my honoring the dead books that I was directed to write by the dead The dead would direct me in my dreams usually within a week after they die to write a book for their loved ones They would tell me what to write what photographs to use and to whom to send the book This is the reason why I had decided to publish this book The dead don't forget you after they die Don't forget them People don't change after they die I've had many good experiences and a few very bad experiences with them If I was able to communicate with the dead you can too It's a very interesting story how I had acquired this capability which I discussed in this book I was not born with that capability I also discuss two of my prior lifetimes which have also helped me communicate with the dead These are all things that I suggest that you know about It all helps like it has helped me It's all true and it can be verified in the seventy books that I have written This book summarizes what is in those seventy books This book gives a number of examples that nothing happens by accident You can be whatever you want to be I did it and you can do it too In this lifetime I meet my mother in my 1620 AD lifetime who had given me my current capabilities Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1994 Energy Research Abstracts, 1985 The Rise and Fall of Civic Education

Michael Learn, 2024-09-16 Social studies is a field in crisis The crisis stems from failure to establish the very foundation of social studies purpose in public education civic education Social studies advocates have never put forth a coherent method for teaching civic education because policymakers and the public have been unable to agree upon a general definition of civic education This issue has disrupted the field since the early days As educators sought to include civic education within public schools as a dedicated field social studies evolved into a blending of history social sciences and civic education Social studies evolution never resolved the differences between the three with each discipline striving to control the narrative Instead of creating a unified field the disciplines devalued social studies and thus any discipline associated with it The Rise and Fall of Civic Education The Battle for Social Studies in a Shifting Historical Landscape investigates the changing definitions and purposes ascribed to social studies in the United States through time This result is viewed through the rising tensions from culture wars as America's divisive politics fight to control the narrative of the disciplines within social studies Research in Education, 1970 Walter Harper, Alaska Native Son Mary F. Ehrlander, 2017-10 2018 Alaskana Award from the Alaska Library Association 2018 Alaska Historical Society James H. Drucker Alaska Historian of the Year Award Walter Harper Alaska Native Son illuminates the life of the remarkable Irish Athabascan man who was the first person to summit Mount Denali North America's tallest mountain Born in 1893 Walter Harper was the youngest child of Jenny Albert and the legendary gold prospector Arthur Harper His parents separated shortly after his birth and his mother raised Walter in the Athabascan tradition speaking her Koyukon Athabascan language When Walter was seventeen years old Episcopal archdeacon Hudson Stuck hired the skilled and charismatic youth as his riverboat pilot and winter trail guide During the following years as the two traveled among Interior Alaska's Episcopal missions they developed a father-son like bond and summited Denali together in 1913 Walter's strong Athabascan identity allowed him to remain grounded in his birth culture as his Western education expanded and he became a leader and a bridge between Alaska Native peoples and Westerners in the Alaska territory He planned to become a medical missionary in Interior Alaska but his life was cut short at the age of twenty-five in the Princess Sophia disaster of 1918 near Skagway Alaska Harper exemplified resilience during an era when rapid socioeconomic and cultural change was wreaking havoc in Alaska Native villages Today he stands equally as an exemplar of Athabascan manhood and healthy acculturation to Western lifeways whose life will resonate with today's readers Time Will Only Tell Lawrence Veltkamp, 2024-04-30 Nothing is coincidence Time Will Only Tell is an exploration of how history comes together to show that what happens is what's meant to be Beyond the Bridge: R. D. Lock, 2011-07-11 Seeking a job as a first-year teacher Robin Robertson heads for an interview at the Westminster Rural Agricultural Schools in the spring of 1956 Here Robin could teach and also coach varsity basketball and counsel students Amid the pressures of beginning a new career he starts to wonder whether a big city person like himself can adapt adequately to the lifestyle of small town rural America This story pictures a way of life that has vanished in all too many places Many readers will relate to the challenges, conflicts, and rewards between students and an untried but idealistic teacher Others will recall athletic contests won and lost and perhaps will remember counseling that went way beyond arranging school schedules The author draws upon forty-three years of educational experience in high school and community college focusing on that memorable first year in front of a classroom being in charge of the community's Winter Entertainment Committee basketball games and creating a newly mandated school guidance program Navy Wives Clubs of America United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Administrative Law and Governmental Relations, 1984 Confessions of Guilt George Conner Thomas, Richard A. Leo, 2012 The extreme interrogation tactics permitted after the 9/11 attacks illustrate that the level of fear in society can influence the law of interrogation In light of controversial water boarding policies and extraterritorial detention centers what is the basis for interrogation law in the United States What is the historical precedent for giving potential criminals the right to remain silent or confess to a crime In Confessions of Guilt esteemed scholars of law and criminal procedure George Thomas and Richard Leo tell the story of how over the centuries the law of interrogation moved from indifference about extreme pressure to concern over the slightest pressure and back again Demonstrating that the law of interrogation is inherently unstable and highly dependent on the perceived levels of threat felt by a society the authors shed light on the nuanced and fascinating history of interrogation practices both new and old
