Jean Valjean said I must remain here henceforth This remark trotted through Fauchelevent's head all night long To tell the truth neither of them slept Jean Valjean feeling that he was discovered and that Javert was on his scent understood that he and Cosette were lost if they returned to Paris Then the new storm which had just burst upon him had stranded him in this cloister Jean Valjean had henceforth but one thought to remain there Now for an unfortunate man in his position this convent was both the safest and the most dangerous of places the most dangerous because as no men might enter there if he were discovered it was a flagrant offence and Jean Valjean would find but one step intervening between the convent and prison the safest because if he could manage to get himself accepted there and remain there who would ever seek him in such a place To dwell
