

French & Indian War

Both the British and the French claimed that they owned the Ohio River Valley. Great Britain vs. French and Indians. Great Britain wins.

After the war:

- Britain received all lands east of the Mississippi River
- Signed the Proclamation of 1763 - to prevent further fighting with the Indians. King George III issued this proclamation stating that colonists could not settle west of the Appalachian Mountains
- Britain was in debt - decided to tax the colonies to pay off this debt

Colonists were unhappy that they had no voice in British Parliament about the taxes that were being imposed on them.
