Gaining Wisdom Through Trials Helen Truong, 2020-12-18 Although I had accepted Jesus as my Lord and Savior at a young age I did not understand what my salvation meant I did not understand the fruitfulness of my relationship with Christ I thought that being a Christian was going to Church when I felt like it and praying to God whenever I needed something Through many trials in life God continued to pursue me and revealed himself For many years my heart was hardened because most Christians I met were either judgmental envious or hypocrites Many of them could not explain the questions I had about the scriptures I concluded that many Christians were using the Church and God to benefit themselves During the trials God planted seasoned Christians to encourage me to give Christianity another chance It was not until I faced many challenges with my career that I understood my purpose and appreciated the importance of having a relationship with Jesus But he was pierced for our transgressions he was crushed for our iniquities upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace and with his wounds we are healed Isaiah 53:5 Vietnam Jan Dodd, Mark Lewis, 2003 The Rough Guide to Vietnam is the ideal companion for exploring Southeast Asia's most intriguing destination A full colour introductory section includes photos of the country's highlights from the waterborne markets of the Mekong Delta to the faded elegance of Hanoi Lively coverage is given to towns and attractions and opinionated reviews give an up to the minute impression of the country's best known sights There is practical advice on exploring everything that may concern the independent traveller from negotiating Vietnam's borders to dining in street kitchens The Contexts section includes enlightening articles on Vietnamese history religion music and film The Rough Guide to Vietnam is strongly recommended The Daily Telegraph Moral Foods Angela Ki Che Leung, Melissa L. Caldwell, 2020-02-29 Moral Foods The Construction of Nutrition and Health in Modern Asia investigates how foods came to be established as moral entities how moral food regimes reveal emerging systems of knowledge and enforcement and how these developments have contributed to new Asian nutritional knowledge regimes The collection's focus on cross cultural and transhistorical comparisons across Asia brings into view a broad spectrum of modern Asia that extends from East Asia Southeast Asia to South Asia as well as into global communities of Western knowledge practice and power outside Asia The first section Good Foods focuses on how food norms and rules have been established in modern Asia Ideas about good foods and good bodies shift at different moments in some cases privileging local foods and knowledge systems and in other cases privileging foreign foods and knowledge systems The second section Bad Foods focuses on what makes foods bad and even dangerous Bad foods are not simply unpleasant or undesirable for aesthetic or sensory reasons but they can hinder the stability and development of persons and societies Bad foods are symbolically polluting as in the case of foreign foods that threaten not only traditional foods but also the stability and strength of the nation and its people The third section Moral Foods focuses on how themes of good versus bad are embedded in projects to make modern persons subjects and states with specific attention to the ambiguities and malleability of foods and health The malleability of moral foods provides unique opportunities for understanding Asian societies dynamic position within larger global flows connections and disconnections Collectively the chapters raise intriguing questions about how foods and the bodies that consume them have been valued politically economically culturally and morally and about how those values originated and evolved Consumers in modern Asia are not simply eating to satisfy personal desires or physiological needs but they are also conscripted into national and global statemaking projects through acts of ingestion Eating then has become about fortifying both the person and the nation
