The Migration Of Ghosts:

The Migration of Ghosts Pauline Melville, 2000-03-16 Spirits are on the move in Pauline Melville's fabulous short story collection as she weaves a magnificent tapestry featuring Guyanese and European tales Seismic Interferometry Deyan Draganov, Johan O. A. Robertsson, 2008 Seismic Interferometry History and Present Status SEG Geophysics Reprint Series No 26 shows that developments in seismic interferometry the methodology of generating new seismic responses by crosscorrelation have taken an enormous flight since the beginning of this century In 2006 the editors of this volume compiled a supplement to Geophysics dedicated to this new branch of science The 22 papers of the well received supplement recognized by one award for best paper and two honorable mentions for best paper in Geophysics and more than 100 citations in the first 20 months form the basis for this reprint volume The editors have added 50 papers from SEG and other journals including Science Physical Review and Geophysical Research Letters The book contains an editors introduction with extensive references and chapters on seismic interferometry without equations highlights of the history of seismic interferometry from 1968 until 2003 and a more detailed overview of the rapid developments since 2004 Seismic Interferometry is an invaluable source for researchers and students interested in the theory and applications of interferometry in geophysical exploration seismic and EM seismology ultrasonics and underwater acoustics Difficult Diasporas Samantha Pinto, 2013-09-06 In this comparative study of contemporary Black Atlantic women writers Samantha Pinto demonstrates the crucial role of aesthetics in defining the relationship between race gender and location Thinking beyond national identity to include African African American Afro Caribbean and Black British literature Difficult Diasporas brings together an innovative archive of twentieth century texts marked by their break with conventional literary structures These understudied resources mix genres as in the memoir ethnography travel narrative Tell My Horse by Zora Neale Hurston and eschew linear narratives as illustrated in the book length non narrative poem by M Nourbese Philip She Tries Her Tongue Her Silence Softly Breaks Such an aesthetics which protests against stable categories and fixed divisions both reveals and obscures that which it seeks to represent the experiences of Black women writers in the African Diaspora Drawing on postcolonial and feminist scholarship in her study of authors such as Jackie Kay Elizabeth Alexander Erna Brodber Ama Ata Aidoo among others Pinto argues for the critical importance of cultural form and demands that we resist the impulse to prioritize traditional notions of geographic boundaries Locating correspondences between seemingly disparate times and places and across genres Pinto fully engages the unique possibilities of literature and culture to redefine race and gender studies Samantha Pinto is Assistant Professor of Feminist Literary and Cultural Studies in the English Department at Georgetown University In the American Literatures Initiative Taking Flight Jennifer Donahue, 2020-07-23 Caribbean women have long utilized the medium of fiction to break the pervasive silence surrounding abuse and exploitation Contemporary works by such authors as Tiphonie Yanique and Nicole Dennis Benn illustrate the deep rooted consequences of trauma based on gender sexuality and race and trace the steps that women take to find safer ground from oppression Taking Flight examines the immigrant experience in contemporary Caribbean women s writing and considers the effects of restrictive social mores In the texts examined in Taking Flight culturally sanctioned violence impacts the ability of female characters to be at home in their bodies or in the spaces they inhabit The works draw attention to the historic racialization and sexualization of black women s bodies and continue the legacy of narrating black women s long standing contestation of systems of oppression Arguing that there is a clear link between trauma shame and migration with trauma serving as a precursor to the protagonists emigration Jennifer Donahue focuses on how female bodies are policed how moral racial and sexual codes are linked and how the enforcement of social norms can function as a form of trauma Donahue considers the relationship between trauma shame and sexual politics and investigates how shame works as a social regulator that frequently leads to withdrawal or avoidant behaviors in those who violate socially sanctioned mores Most importantly Taking Flight positions flight as a powerful counter to disempowerment and considers how flight whether through dissociation or migration functions as a form of resistance

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi,2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others

Visions of an Unseen World Sasha Handley,2015-09-30 A study of the production circulation and consumption of English ghost stories during the Age of Reason This work examines a variety of mediums ballads and chapbooks newspapers sermons medical treatises and scientific journals novels and plays It relates the telling of ghost stories to changes associated with the Enlightenment
