over time space and various types of crises Religious Influences in Thai Female Education (1889-1931) Runchana Pam Suksod-Barger, 2014-06-26 In this study Runchana Pam Suksod Barger examines the impact of religion on female access to education in Thailand from 1889 to 1931 the early Modernization Period in Thailand Although Thailand had traditionally been a Buddhist nation state Protestant missionaries during this era arrived in the country to convert Thais to Christianity The Protestant belief in literacy so that everyone could read the Bible opened up educational opportunities for Thai girls that were not previously available to them Suksod Barger investigates the degree to which Buddhist and Christian Protestant influences affected Thai educational reforms for girls in primary and secondary education during the early Modernization Period using a feminist theoretical framework to understand the social political economic and religious impact Examination of historical documents and empirical data are employed to compare the effect of two religions values on female education access The study contributes to the exploration of the historical and contextual discourse of Buddhism and women in Thailand the history of education for Thai females during the early Modernization Period and the overview of Protestant missions in the country particularly their influence in establishing systems of mass education The Role of Religions in the European Perception of Insular and Mainland Southeast Asia Monika Arnez, Jürgen Sarnowsky, 2016-08-17 For people nowadays the constant exchange of people goods and ideas and their interaction across wide distances are a part of everyday life However such encounters and interregional links are by no means only a recent phenomenon although the forms they have taken in the course of history have varied It goes without saying that travel to distant regions was spurred by various interests first and foremost economic and imperialist policies which reached an initial climax around 1500 with the European expansion to the Americas and into the Indian Ocean The motivations of European travellers for venturing to the regions of maritime and mainland Southeast Asia which are the focus of the studies presented here were manifold ranging from the pursuit of power commercial exploitation intellectual curiosity and the aspiration to proselytize among indigenous people This book adds to existing knowledge on travel travel experiences and travel writing by Europeans in mainland and insular Southeast Asia from the 16th to the 21st century based on specific case studies Moreover it demonstrates how Europeans perceived religion in the region presently known as Southeast Asia Working on the assumption that many of the European traders seafarers explorers and administrators arriving in Southeast Asia came as Christians convinced of the superiority of their religion the contributors to this volume analyse their encounters with Muslims who had been their long standing enemies in the Mediterranean and with Hindus Buddhists and adherents of local religions They involve themselves closely with the travelogues and the role of religions therein and in doing so reveal the ways in which religion influenced the travellers understanding of societies in maritime and mainland Southeast Asia The volume explores a number of questions including How did European travellers perceive religion in different regions of Southeast Asia in different historical periods How did the administrators the missionaries the natural historians and the explorers position themselves vis vis Islam and

Buddhism on Java and in Siam And what do travel accounts tell us about the way Southeast Asian people perceived the Europeans Reinterpreting Indian Ocean Worlds Stefan C. A. Halikowski Smith, 2011-05-25 The Indian Ocean World was an idea borne out by researchers in economic history and trade in the 1980s in response to the compartmentalization of specific area studies within the wider rubric of Asian civilisations and culture Professor Kirti N Chaudhuri's books Trading World of Asia and the English East India Company 1978 and then Trade and Civilization in the Indian Ocean 1985 figured amongst the forefront of this new movement in historical thinking undertaking detailed historical analysis first of the English East India Company and then a comparative cultural history of Asian material life and civilisation Today historians continue to hold on to the idea of an Indian Ocean world although studies now follow a number of different threads from themes like linguistics and creolization to the seeds of national consciousness By presenting a number of studies here gathered into the themes of Intermixing The World of Trade and Colonial Paths it is hoped we can render tribute to one of the outstanding historians in this field and reflect the plenitude of current research in this subject area Ecological Policy and Politics in Developing Countries Uday Desai, 1998-04-16 Examines in depth the ecological problems policies and politics of ten major developing countries Global Portuguese , 2025-05-22 Global Portuguese results from conferences convened at the University of London School of Advanced Study to highlight legacies of Portuguese empire in postcolonial societies Its chapters trace Portuguese legacies from the early modern to contemporary period through history anthropology language literature linguistics and cuisine There are sections devoted to sociolinguistic and anthropological method and studies on Thailand Sri Lanka Goa Macau Brazil Angola Indonesia S o Tom and Zambesia Contributors are Matthias R hrig Assun o Doroth e Boulanger Silvia Figueiredo Brand o David Brookshaw Paul Melo e Castro Augusto Soares da Silva Shihan de Silva Jayasuriya Stefan Halikowski Smith Annabel Jackson Ivana Stolze Lima Selina Patel Nascimento Malyn Newitt Gerhard Seibert Andrzej Stuart Thompson Raan Hann Tan and Silvia Rodrigues Vieira
