Weimer,David S. Palermo,2024-06-03 Originally published in 1982 this book following the previous volume published in 1974 continued to look at current issues in theoretical and cognitive psychology and looked for new directions for fruitful theory and research The major concern for all the contributors was with the construction of a psychology of the higher mental processes through the evaluation of and improvement upon past efforts as well as the exploration of related areas or disciplines for relevant new ideas The contributors to this volume shared in common the rejection of not only behavioristic and associationistic approaches but also the sensory information processing model that earlier dominated and by weight of numbers of adherents and publications still dominated cognitive psychology at the time Today it can be read and enjoyed in its historical context
