The Midnight Swimmer:

The Midnight Swimmer Edward Wilson, 2013-06-01 October 1962 If the Cuban gamble goes wrong and war breaks out Britain will no longer exist London dispatches a secret envoy to defuse the confrontation Spawned in the bleak poverty of an East Anglian fishing port Catesby is a spy with a big anti establishment chip on his shoulder He loves his country but despises the class who run it Loathed by the Americans and trusted by the Russians Catesby is sent to Havana and Washington to make clandestine contacts London has authorised Catesby to offer Moscow a secret deal to break the Cuban Missile Crisis deadlock But before that can happen Catesby meets the Midnight Swimmer who has a chilling message for Washington A triangle of love and death that began in Berlin ends in Cuba On one corner is a war disabled KGB general on another corner is his unfulfilled wife This sophisticated novel is full of twists and turns that merge historical fact with fiction Sleaze and high politics literally share the same beds A white knuckle superpower standoff is played out against a backdrop of honey trap blackmail Mafia contracts assassinations and Vatican scandal The real blurs into the surreal as Che's car surfs on the Havana seafront and Fidel takes the pitcher's mound against a professional baseball team

The Gates of Kant Baroness Emmuska Orczy, 1907 "Trading Magic for Fact," Fact for Magic Marc Colavincenzo, 2021-10-18 This study brings together three major areas of interest history postmodern fiction and myth Whereas neither history and postmodern fiction nor history and myth are strangers to one another postmodernism and myth are odd bedfellows For many critics postmodern thought with its resistance to metanarratives stands in direct and deliberate contrast to myth with its apparent tendency to explain the world by means of neat complete narratives There is a strain of postmodern Canadian historical fiction in which myth actually forms a complement not only to postmodernism's suspicion of master narratives but also to its privileging of those marginal and at times ignored areas of history The fourteen works of Canadian fiction considered demonstrate a doubled impulse which at first glance seems contradictory On the one hand they go about demythologizing in the Barthesian sense various elements of historical discourse exposing its authority as not simply a natural given but as a construct This includes the fact that the view of history portrayed in the fiction has been either underrepresented or suppressed by official historiography On the other hand the history is then re mythologized in that it becomes part of a pre existing myth its mythic elements are foregrounded myth and magic are woven into the narrative or it is portrayed as extraordinary in some way The result is an empowering of these histories for the future they are made larger than life and unforgettable
