The Piano in Nineteenth-Century British Culture Susan Wollenberg, 2017-09-29 Since the publication of The London Pianoforte School ed Nicholas Temperley twenty years ago research has proliferated in the area of music for the piano during the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and into developments in the musical life of London for a time the centre of piano manufacturing publishing and performance But none has focused on the piano exclusively within Britain The eleven chapters in this volume explore major issues surrounding the instrument its performers and music within an expanded geographical context created by the spread of the instrument and the growth of concert touring Topics covered include the piano trade and how piano manufacturing affected a major provincial town the reception of Bach's Well Tempered Clavier and Clementi's Gradus ad Parnassum during the nineteenth century the shift from composer pianists to pianist interpreters in the first half of the century that triggered crucial changes in piano performance and concert structure the growth of musical life in the peripheries outside major musical centres the pianist as advocate for contemporary composers as well as for historical repertory the status of British pianists both in relation to foreigners on tour in Britain and as welcomed star performers in outposts of the Empire marketing forces that had an impact on piano sales concerts and piano careers leading virtuosos writers and critics the important role played by women pianists and the development of the recording industry bringing the volume into the early twentieth century The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864

New Approaches to the Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Novel Sibylle Baumbach, Birgit Neumann, 2019-12-20 This book discusses the complex ways in which the novel offers a vibrant arena for critically engaging with our contemporary world and scrutinises the genre's political ethical and aesthetic value Far reaching cultural political and technological changes during the past two decades have created new contexts for the novel which have yet to be accounted for in literary studies Addressing the need for fresh transdisciplinary approaches that explore these developments the book focuses on the multifaceted responses of the novel to key global challenges including migration and cosmopolitanism posthumanism and ecosickness human and animal rights affect and biopolitics human cognition and anxieties of inattention and the transculturality of terror By doing so it testifies to the ongoing cultural relevance of the genre Lastly it examines a range of 21st century Anglophone novels to encourage new critical discourses in literary studies The Oxford History of the Novel in English Priscilla Wald, Michael A. Elliott, 2014-01-21 Witnessing the end of a war that nearly terminated the nation the abolition of racial slavery and rise of legal segregation the rise of Modernism and Hollywood the closing of the frontier and two World Wars the literary historical period represented in this volume constitutes the crucible of American literary history Here 35 essays by top researchers in the field detail how considerations of race and citizenship immigration and assimilation gender and sexuality nationalism and empire all reverberate throughout novels written in the United States between 1870 and 1940 Contributors discuss the professionalization of literary production after the Civil War alongside legal and political debates over segregation and citizenship while chapters on journalism geography religion and immigration offer discussions on everything from the lasting role of literary realism in American fiction to the Spanish American War's effect on developing theories of aesthetics and popular culture The volume offers thorough coverage of the emergence of serial fiction children's fiction crime and detective fiction science fiction and even cinema and comics as new media and artistic revolutions like the Harlem Renaissance helped usher in the new international aesthetic movement of Modernism The final chapters in the volume explore the relationship of the novel to the emergence of American literature as a category in the academy in public criticism and journalism and in mass culture

The Distaff Gospels Madeleine Jay, Kathleen Garay, 2006-01-01 The Distaff Gospels Les vangiles des Quenouilles a fascinating fifteenth century collection of more than 250 popular beliefs constitutes a kind of encyclopedia of late medieval women's wisdom The women's beliefs and experiences are recounted within the narrative frame of traditional gatherings where women meet with their spindles and distaffs to spin They share advice on such important matters as how to control errant husbands how to predict the gender of future offspring how to cure common diseases and ways to deal with evil spirits providing a rare look into the intimate lives of medieval peasant women This edition includes a facing page translation the first in English since 1510 of the two Old French manuscripts of the text The critical introduction discusses the literary context textual history and cultural significance of The Distaff Gospels while the rich selection of appendices includes translations of the names of the women storytellers and excerpts from works by Giovanni Boccaccio Jean de Meun Francois Villon and Christine de Pizan

Graphic Design, Print Culture, and the Eighteenth-Century Novel Janine Barchas, 2003-06-05 The uniformity of the eighteenth century novel in today's paperbacks and critical editions no longer conveys the early novel's visual exuberance Janine Barchas explains how during the genre's formation in the first half of the eighteenth century the novel's material embodiment as printed book rivalled its narrative content in diversity and creativity Innovations in layout ornamentation and even punctuation found in for example the novels of Richardson an author who printed his own books help shape a tradition of early visual ingenuity From the beginning of the novel's emergence in Britain prose writers including Daniel Defoe Jonathan Swift and Henry and Sarah Fielding experimented with the novel's appearance Lavishly illustrated with more than 100 graphic features found in eighteenth century editions this important study aims to recover the visual context in which the eighteenth century novel was produced and read

The First Century of Leiden University Library Elfriede Hulshoff Pol, 1975 A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1 A-L T. Bose, Paul Tiessen, 1987-01-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works

The Twenty-First-Century Parson's Handbook Jared C. Cramer, 2025-01-30 When first published at the end of the nineteenth century The Parson's Handbook went on to go through twelve editions the final of which was published in 1932 four years before the death of its author Percy Dearmer In 1965 a thirteenth edition was published by Dearmer's student Cyril Pocknee Now nearly a hundred years after the publication of Dearmer's twelfth edition Jared Cramer provides a new version of this work that will bring the insights of Dearmer's distinctively Anglican approach to worship to bear on the ministry of clergy and lay leaders in the twenty first century Entirely revised and rewritten with attention to the principals of modern liturgical theology and history along with the ecumenical and multicultural context of today's Christian worship this book demonstrates that the principles at the core of Dearmer's approach still can be of tremendous value to anyone who seeks to provide beautiful dignified and collaborative worship in the Anglican prayer book tradition The Academy and Literature, 1890 Johnson's Universal Cyclop:dia, 1893 Saturday Review of Literature, 1925 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1892 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies, Second Edition Cyril Orji, 2021-01-07 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies walks students through topical issues to be encountered in the study of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as these religions encounter other religions in the context of the wider ecumenism The text is written from a Christian point of view and aims at helping students understand that to be Christian is to be ecumenical African Traditional Religions ATRs has been included in this survey to provide background for the religious traditions and cultures of peoples of Africa as Christianity moves inexorably southward The book has been written with undergraduate general education students in mind including meeting the needs of those in seminaries and theological institutes Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1897 Prisons in the Americas in the Twenty-First Century Marten W. Brien, Jonathan D. Rosen, 2015-04-09 This volume on penitentiary systems in the Americas offers a long overdue look at the prisons that exist at the forefront of the ongoing struggle against drugs and violence throughout North Central and South America and the Caribbean From Haiti to Bolivia the authors examine the conditions in these systems and allow several common themes to emerge including the alarming prevalence of lengthy pre trial detention and the often abysmal living conditions in these institutions Taken together this comprises the first comparative overview of the use and abuse of prisons in the Americas Twentieth Century, 1911 The Nineteenth century and after London The Academy, 1892 Reunion Assembly Reporter Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. General Assembly, 1870 Horror Literature through History Matt Cardin, 2017-09-21 This two volume set offers comprehensive coverage of horror literature that spans its deep history dominant themes significant works and major authors such as Stephen King Edgar Allan Poe and Anne Rice as well as lesser known horror writers Many of today's horror story fans who appreciate horror through movies television video games graphic novels and other forms probably don't realize that horror literature is not only one of the most popular types of literature but one of the oldest. People have always been mesmerized by stories that speak to their deepest fears. Horror Literature through History shows 21st century horror fans the literary sources of their favorite entertainment and the rich intrinsic value of horror literature in its own right. Through profiles of major authors, critical analyses of important works, and overview essays focused on horror during particular periods as well as on related issues such as religion, apocalypticism, social criticism, and gender, readers will discover the fascinating early roots and evolution of horror writings as well as the reciprocal influence of horror literature and horror cinema. This unique two-volume reference set provides wide coverage that is current and compelling to modern readers who are of course also eager consumers of entertainment. In the first section, overview essays on horror during different historical periods situate works of horror literature within the social, cultural, historical, and intellectual currents of their respective eras, creating a seamless narrative of the genre's evolution from ancient times to the present. The second section demonstrates how otherwise unrelated works of horror have influenced each other, how horror subgenres have evolved, and how a broad range of topics within horror, such as ghosts, vampires, religion, and gender roles, have been handled across time. The set also provides alphabetically arranged reference entries on authors, works, and specialized topics that enable readers to zero in on information and concepts presented in the other sections.
