Globalization and New Intra-Urban Dynamics in Asian Cities Natacha Aveline-Dubach[] Sue-Ching Jou[] Hsin-Huang Michael Hsiao[], 2014-08-04 This book presents a set of essays on the globalization and intra urban dynamics of the Asian cities conducted by Taiwanese and French researchers It covers four main themes culture led regeneration projects dynamics of second tier cities urban redevelopment and land issues and new urban spaces of regulation associational life and civic action It involved comparing research subject priorities in this field as well as the approaches chosen to deal with them within a geographical zone extended from Northeast to southern Asia Rather than a comparison between Western and Asian visions of the same urban objects the project aimed to highlight differences and or similarities in the approaches of scientific communities inevitably influenced by national issues With great articulation and discourse between urban reality and theories it also observes distinctive approaches of urban research teams respectively in France and Taiwan

Patch Atlas
Victoria J. Marshall, Mary L. Cadenasso, Brian P. McGrath, Steward T. A. Pickett, 2020-01-03 A new tool for analyzing urban land cover that integrates design practices and ecological knowledge for understanding cities as complex patchy and dynamic systems This atlas is a unique conceptual tool to describe and analyze cities as complex systems using a new hybrid approach to urban land cover classification As an impetus to bring ecologists and urban designers together it builds on over a decade of shared knowledge from the Baltimore Ecosystem Study to inspire ecologically motivated design practice Rather than separating human constructed environments from predominantly biological and geological ones this book integrates built and ecological structures and shows how this integration can contribute to the scholarship of ecology and the practice of design The atlas displays maps and tables depicting these hybrid land cover classes and the relationships between them information on how the specific patch arrangements evolved over time and speculations on how cover might change through design disturbance or succession Interdisciplinary and strikingly illustrated the atlas is a new way to study measure and view cities with a more effective interaction of scientific understanding and design practice
